DRYS CONTINUE OFFENSIVE IN PROHIBITION DEBATE

Women Weary of Serving Liquor at Functions, Society Leader Testifies at Hearing

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 6. (Exclusive)—The American farmer is convinced prohibition is a good thing for the country, and will not stand for its repeal, Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, told the House Judiciary Committee in the wet and dry hearings today.

Speaking for 1,000,000 members in thirty-four States, Taber branded as "pure propaganda" statements by the wets that the Eighteenth Amendment has injured the farmers economically through reducing the market for grains. The fact, he said, is that prohibition has helped the farmers because much of the money which formerly was spent in saloons now goes for the purchase of meats, grain products, milk and other commodities of agriculture.

He produced government statistics to prove that since enactment of the dry laws production and consumption of major farm products have increased amazingly all along the line.

CORN USE SMALL

Only about 1 per cent of the annual corn crop ever went into the making of liquors, he asserted, while raising of hops was always a relatively unimportant industry. The rye market was at first curtailed by prohibition, he said, but found immediate relief through the increased use of rye for foodstuffs and export.

"There is one word that gives the reason why the liquor traffic will never come back," Taber asserted, "and that word is 'automobile.'" He said in his opinion urban voters would join hands with the farmers in keeping drunken drivers off the streets and highways.

Before Taber took the stand the committee heard from Miss Ruth G. K. Strawbridge of Philadelphia that "dry" parties are becoming popular among the social elite in the third city. After conferences with former Chief Justice Taft and largely at his suggestion, Miss Strawbridge said she recently sent personal letters to 2300 Philadelphia matrons, prominent in social and civic affairs, asking if they would be willing to set an example of prohibition law enforcement in their entertainments. This was shortly after President Hoover had appealed to the "better people" to back him up in observing the dry laws.

DRY SOCIETY FAVORED

The result of the poll was that 1237 women replied saying they were in favor of discontinuing the serving of drinks in their homes and applauding Miss Strawbridge's proposal for creation first of a local and then a national committee of society women willing to set an example of law obedience, while only 347 replied that they did not favor the plan.

"The response to the letter was immediate and gratifying," Miss Strawbridge said. "Instead of finding an overwhelming majority in favor of the liquor-drinking fad at private gatherings and entertainments, I found that most of these

FIVE KILLED, MANY HURT IN TORNADO

Storm Sweeping Through Three Southern States Also Does Heavy Damage

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) March 6. (AP) Tearing through Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana tonight, a tornado took a toll of five lives, injured nearly two score persons, virtually wiped out one village, disrupted communications, and caused property damage of upward of $100,000.

The wrecking wind first struck plantations and villages in Bolivar, Sunflower and Humphreys counties in Mississippi. Cutting an 800-foot swath across Bolivar county, the tornado killed two negroes, injured ten persons and destroyed fifteen houses. Damage there is estimated at $20,000.

Near Kosciusko, Miss., a 65-year-old woman, Mrs. J. W. Adams, was killed and two negro farm tenants wer injured as the storm swept the Adams plantation.

The next point struck was Gregory, Ark., a village of 200 near Augusta. The village was virtually destroyed, the property damage being estimated at $30,000.

Twisting into Louisiana, the tornado hit Harris, near Homer, killed two negroes, probably fatally injured a third and caused damage expected to amount to several thousand dollars.

More than a score of persons were injured.

Communications at all points were disrupted in varying degrees.

At Boyle, Miss., the inhabitants heard the approach of the tornado in time to flee their houses, but many were struck by flying debris. Damage in Boyle itself, however, was not extensive.

Prince Expects to Play Round of Golf Today

NAIROBI, KENYA (Africa) March 6. (AP)—The Prince of Wales, much improved in health, is looking forward to seeing the races here Saturday, and if he is able plans to get in a round of golf tomorrow.

The populace hoped the Prince might attend the opening of the Nairobi races today, but this was impossible. He derived considerable benefit from his motor ride yesterday and took another today.

There is general enthusiasm that he should have so quickly begun recovery from the sub-tertian malaria with which he was stricken last Friday.

HOTEL IN BANKRUPTCY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (AP)—The Ben Franklin Hotel Company of San Mateo was petitioned into involuntary bankruptcy today in Federal District Court by five companies which charged the company owes debts in excess of $1000.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, March 6.—[To the Editor of The Times:] No wonder Mr. Ford and Mr. Edison are for present conditions. Been more Fords wrecked in the last few years than ever before, and with all our different concoctions of drink, this is the age of inventions. This investigation will run along for weeks, and hundreds will come to get their name in the papers. I can't help but believe that all these Washington hearings must be sponsored by the railroads and hotels; there can't possibly be any other reason for holding them.

Reed Smoot got the tariff on sugar raised yesterday, so that means that a bunch of Senators must have got it raised on something they wanted. Then they say there is no trading votes.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

FRENCH FLOOD RUIN GROWS

Bordeaux Saved But Thousands Homeless, 300 to 400 Dead, and Large Sections Laid Waste

BORDEAUX (France) March 6. (AP)—An area of Southern France equal to that of Pennsylvania has been devastated in four days by floods with losses running beyond 1,000,000,000 francs.

This city, the third in importance in France, barely escaped the flooded waters of the Big Garonne River, swollen by its flooded tributaries. The commander of the port tonight allayed the fears of his fellow-citizens by declaring that the flood has reached its maximum in the region of the city, which is in no danger.

VINEYARDS RUINED

The vineyards of the famous Barsac region, which furnish highly prized white Bordeaux wines, are entirely under water. Five hundred houses are flooded and roads are cut throughout the region.

Appalled by reports of how the southern section of their beautiful land has been laid waste, how hundreds of lives have been lost, how thousands of families have been made homeless and penniless, President Doumergue and Premier Tardieu tomorrow will hasten to the stricken area for an inspection.

The waters have ruined the Department of the Tarn, have ravaged the Departments of Tarn-et-Garonne and Lot-et-Garonne, and have damaged nine other departments seriously.

The official list of deaths has reached 150, but the work of clearing the ruins to find the missing has only begun. Persons who have visited the region estimate that between 300 and 400 are dead.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS

Thousands of families are homeless, many wiped out entirely. In some cases parents lost all of their children, while in others children returning home found the flood swirling over the place where their homes stood and their parents washed away.

The bereaved now haunt the river banks, looking haggardly for loved ones whose bodies will be found later miles from the place where the flood surprised them.

As to material losses, many hold that yesterday's estimate of 1,000,000,000 francs is far too low.

TAFT STILL HOLDS OWN IN ILLNESS

Much Advice for "Sure Cures" Pours in Along With Friendly Letters

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—William Howard Taft continued today to hold his own against the complications of diseases that for more than a month have kept his life in the balance.

Worn themselves by the steady vigilance over their patient, the doctors who have assisted Mr. Taft to resist the illness, Francis R. Hagner and Thomas A. Claytor, after tonight's visit said the former Chief Justice took nourishment fairly well today, but his condition showed no improvement since morning. Still gravely ill, Mr. Taft was able to greet briefly those who entered the room.

The mailman is one of the most important daily callers at the Taft residence, bringing dozens of letters. Many from all sections of the country are written to wish the former President well. Others, almost equally as numerous, are laden with advice to the physicians for effecting "sure cures" of Mr. Taft. They range from well-known old-fashioned remedies to suggestions that he be given "lots of brown potatoes, oatmeal with brown sugar and all the orange juice he can take."

GUAM HONORS MAGELLAN

GUAM, March 6. (AP)—Guam today celebrated Magellan Day, the 409th anniversary of its discovery by Ferdinand Magellan on his first circumnavigation of the earth. An elaborate ceremony took place at the newly built American school at Umatac, where Magellan landed, and the school was named in honor of the great Portuguese explorer.

RAINSTORM SLIPS AWAY FROM NORTH

Week-Old Visitor Goes East and Weatherman Sights Clear Sky Today

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive)—With a few departing showers, Northern California's week-old storm moved eastward today and the Weather Bureau predicts fair skies tomorrow with local frosts in the valleys and on the north coast. A depression still exists off Kodiak, Forecaster Reed said, but there is not enough information about it to venture a prediction. Snow at the Sierras Summit receded to 90 inches from 104 yesterday.

Precipitation in inches reported by official northern stations at 5 p.m. today was:

FAIR WEATHER PLEDGED FOR WEEK-END

Fair weather with plenty of sunshine is expected for the week-end, with the complete passing of the recent disturbance, which yesterday brought additional showers to widely scattered points.

The official forecast says: "Fair with rising temperatures today and tomorrow; gentle variable winds." Only a few scurrying clouds remained yesterday from the rainstorm, but late in the afternoon the skies became overcast. The Weather Bureau, however, could see no indication of additional rain.

Following is the rainfall, in inches, reported from various Southern California points up to 6 p.m. last night:

Judge Scores "The Peephole"

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive)—Superior Judge Johnson denied an injunction today which would prevent police from raiding "The Peephole," stage production at a local theater, in a decision bristling with denunciation of the management and cast.

"Invocation of the sacredness of personal rights," Judge Johnson informed S. A. Goldtree, manager of the Green-street Theater, "will not justify the grant of a free license to contaminate public morals. This court will throw no protecting arm around those sponsoring a production so abhorrent as 'The Peephole.'"

LINDBERGH DOES PONY LOOP

Lone Eagle Makes Three-Point Landing After Short Flight from Back of Polo Mount

DEL MONTE, March 6. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, unable to fly his glider today owing to lack of wind, took a new kind of flight, this time from the back of a polo pony, and landed in a class with the Prince of Wales.

Galloping down the Del Monte polo field on one of J. Cheever Cowdin's ponies, the Lone Eagle was sent sprawling to the turf and was dragged for about twenty-five feet. Shaken but apparently unhurt he laughed off the incident and left soon after for his lodge. No camera recorded the fall.

Lindbergh had motored to the polo field during the morning for a chat with Cowdin, who arrived today from New York. It was on a second visit this afternoon that the ride that terminated so unexpectedly in a spill took place.

The colonel came to Del Monte to make experimental flights in his glider, of which the first, a short one, was made yesterday.

Lindbergh's riding heretofore has been limited to comparatively gentle saddle horses and it was the first time he had ever been on a high-stepping polo pony.

His visit to the polo field today indicated an interest that many believe will develop into active participation in the game. It was authoritatively stated that the colonel is considering remaining here to see the Argentine four in action Sunday instead of returning to Los Angeles Saturday. He expects to attend tomorrow's game when the Argentines make their initial appearance on Del Monte field against the All-Stars.

RED MARCH ON CITY HALL MADE FIASCO BY POLICE

Officers Quell Sporadic Riots; Twenty-six Taken to Jail as Huge Crowds Watch

The widely heralded march on the City Hall by local Communists and Red sympathizers failed of its purpose yesterday when the projected demonstration was swallowed up in a throng of 5000 idly curious and nonparticipating spectators, and left the radical leaders grumbling about the lack of unity in their ranks.

Approximately 1000 uniformed and plainclothes officers surrounded the City Hall district to forestall the demonstration which produced no action in that area but sporadic disorders occurred near Second and Main streets that resulted in the arrest of twenty-six men and women.

A good many of the men arrested received thwackings on their heads when they resisted the officers, but aside from a few scratches and bumps none of them received injuries to display to their "comrades." The most obdurate of the radicals were the women, and their men leaders cowered in the crowds for the most part and permitted those "Bolshevixen" to do the public scratching, kicking and howling.

POLICE USE CLUBS

The whole affair was most disheartening to the Communists. They had planned a serious mass demonstration and it was smothered completely by the alertness of the officers and the disinclination of the onlookers to join in lawlessness.

Blackjacks and nightsticks worked effectively in settling those who boiled over with radicalism. During the demonstrative fiasco of the Communists police found it unnecessary to use either tear gas or fire hose as was expected.

It looked for awhile that the crowd would be disappointed for lack of action. But one "Bolshevixen" saved the day when she became so filled with the radical spirit and the fear that she would not be arrested that she screamed hysterically, threw a lot of handbills into the air and leaped on the back of an unsuspecting officer.

SHRIEKS FOR TALKIES

She was promptly taken in hand and steered toward a police car. But she spied the sound-news reel cameras and struggled obliquely with her captors until she was directly before one. Then she uttered her most piercing shrieks and struggled with all her might.

Language poured from her torrentially—but she forgot to guard her speech for the "mike" in alluding to her captors, and it is feared frankly by the newsreel men that her [illegible] utterances must be censored and will not reach the folks in the hinterland.

The "Bolshevixen" would have spoken for the rest of the reel had the camera men not stopped grinding and grinned at her. She moved on to a police car, docile and sheepish, for her weekly ride to the station.

The regretful part of the affair, police say, is the large number of law-abiding citizens caught in the milling mass, trying to board street cars to get away only to be caught in a new rush started by some stupid, illiterate orator trying to get his name on the police blotter—which he usually did with amazing success and dispatch.

LEADERS ARRESTED

As to the asserted leaders of the radicals Lieut. William F. Hynes sent his men through the crowds and covered them all until they made some overt move toward rioting. Promptly they were taken into custody. They always resisted enough to get a few belts from a blackjack in some officer's hand.

In the milling and scuffling at Second and Main streets someone shoved an armful of bricks from a near-by building. Officer C. B. Buxton scrambled up a fire escape and arrested C. H. Bruhm, who is asserted to have been hurling the bricks on the crowds.

The first two persons taken to the City Jail from the vicinity of the City Hall were booked for blocking the sidewalk. They were:

Irving Manning, 24 years of age, of 4314 Pennsylvania avenue, La Crescenta, and Mrs. Rose Padilla, 40, of 508 Camulos street. Both were taken into custody by Officer Gray at First and Main streets

Police Battle Communists in Cities Throughout United States

Tear Bomb Thrown to Quell Demonstration in Front of White House

By the Associated Press

On historic old Boston Common, in the newer Campus Martius of Detroit, on Pennsylvania avenue outside the high iron fence that surrounds the White House grounds, in New York's Union Square facing the Tammany Wigwam, in the hills of Seattle, and in the roaring canyons of Chicago, tens of thousands of persons gathered on "Red Thursday."

Some of them now are in jail, and some are in hospitals, hundreds nurse lacerated scalps, black eyes, bruised noses, and the rest, thousands on thousands, went peacefully back to flats and bungalows, enjoying the exhilaration of having seen "a real show."

MOSTLY CURIOUS ONES

There were Communists among them, Communists trying to make more Communists by an international unemployment day, with the jobless marching simultaneously on city halls over all America and all over the world. There were men without work, too, shabby, ill-fed, despondent, but more than all the rest there were just everyday Americans—those curious ones who will stop traffic any day to watch a man demonstrating a safety razor in a drug store window.

And so far into the night New York police detectives worked to sort out Communists from innocent onlookers among the 100 injured in the prison ward of Bellevue Hospital, and in Cleveland, Detroit and Seattle hundreds of persons who no doubt are not Communists at all, nor even out of jobs, were recovering from nightstick blows.

FOSTER ARRESTED

With nearly 100 injured and almost as many arrested, including William Z. Foster, Presidential candidate of the Workers' Communist party in 1928, New York's demonstration was the biggest.

BATTLE WAGED IN FRONT OF WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—The gas from a tiny tear bomb ended the heralded Communistic demonstration in front of the White House today after fists had begun to fly.

Eleven demonstrators were arrested. Four of them and two policemen were slightly bruised in a fight within hailing distance of the office where President Hoover was busy at work.

BAY CITY AIDS PARADERS

Police Clear Way for Unemployed Marchers to City Hall and Mayor Assists Speakers

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (AP)—San Francisco today tendered its so-called unemployed a public reception.

In marked contrast to repressive measures imposed in some other communities, police here aided in formation of the parade up Market street to the City Hall, in which some 2200—white, black and yellow—men, women and children participated. Traffic on the city's 120-foot wide thoroughfare was held back that the demonstration might go on. Chief of Police Quinn joined the parade for a time.

In the Civic Center Mayor Rolph had had a temporary rostrum built and a public address system installed for the occasion. A court reporter was on hand to make a record of every word spoken. The leaders of the demonstration presented their demands; the Mayor promised he would study them and transmit them next Monday to the Board of Supervisors, and the paraders disbanded.

There was no disturbance. The paraders sang as they marched along, and the crowds on the sidewalks watched and smiled. Many followed on to the City Hall, where the throng totaled between 5000 and 6000.

William Simon, district organizer for the Communist party, led the marchers. In a speech he declared that the Communist party was the only political organization which could solve the problem of unemployment. Other speakers attacked the proposed expenditure here for a war memorial, and criticised the American Federation of Labor for its aloofness from today's demonstrations throughout the country.

CHIEF TALKS FIRST AT OAKLAND DEMONSTRATION

OAKLAND, March 6. (AP)—Several hundred unemployed persons marched to the City Hall here today and were met there by Chief of Police Marshall, who told the gathering that if there was to be any talking he would do it first.

The Chief said that as long as the gathering remained orderly there would be no arrests. A woman, Sonia Baltrum, stepped up beside the Chief and declared that many workmen needed temporary relief. She was followed by Archie Brown, who has been in jail here several times as an asserted Communist. Police would not let him speak.

Then the crowd demanded that Chief Marshall let Brown talk. It was agreed that the crowd should select five representatives to go up into the Council chamber of the City Hall and present their grievances. This was done.

their desks for lunch, were watching the Communists taking part in the international observance of "unemployment day." The President had ordered that they be not disturbed unless they trespassed on Federal property.

The demonstrators formed a small knot at the center of the crowd of onlookers, after a short time spent in parading back and forth. Many of them were negroes.

William Lawrence of Baltimore, a leader of the Communists, sought to address his followers from a vantage point on the high iron fence which surrounds the White House. A patrolman and a detective forced him down and then the melee began.

Some of the police were hit and they retaliated with fists and night sticks. One of their number dropped the tear bomb, and the fumes immediately caused a dispersal of the half-amused, half-angry crowd. While some eyes were blackened in scuffles between the police and demonstrators, others were reddened by the gas.

During some of the excitement, Mrs. Hoover was receiving a group of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the White House. Some members of the organization watched the scene from the pavement.

Two of those arrested were women. Some were charged with assault and all with disorderly conduct. Arrangements for their release from police custody were carried ahead tonight by Charles E. Ford, attorney for the International Labor Defense Association.

FOURTEEN INJURED IN DETROIT CLASHES

DETROIT, March 6. (AP)—Downtown Detroit was turned into a battle ground between police and unemployed this afternoon. In a series of disorders, starting at 1 p.m. and continuing until well past 3 p.m., fourteen persons were sent to hospitals with injuries from policemen's night sticks, while thirty-one others, asserted agitators and sympathizers, were arrested. None of the injuries was serious. Seven women and twenty-four men were arrested.

Considerable damage was sustained by stores on Woodward avenue when the crush of the crowd crashed in show windows and carried away doors. The police estimated the crowd at almost 100,000 persons.

The disorders, which at first centered about the Campus Martius and Cadillac Square, where the City Hall is situated, soon spread up Woodward avenue and into numerous intersecting streets as the crowd swelled and 2000 police attempted to stop speeches and the displaying of placards.

The demonstration started at 1 p.m., when, as if by an agreed signal, a group of men unfurled placards bearing the words "Work or Wages." A detail of police swooped down on the group and attempted to wrest the placards from them. Numerous clubbings occurred in the clash and one patrolman was struck by a lead pipe hurled by one of the group.

ATTACKS ON STATE HOUSE IN BOSTON REPULSED

BOSTON, March 6. (AP)—Eight persons were arrested here today in a Communist unemployment protest demonstration that started with a meeting on the Common and culminated in an unsuccessful attempt to conduct another meeting on the State House steps.

The demonstration took on the disorderly aspect during what started out as a peaceful meeting at the Parkman Bandstand on the Common. Jackson W. Wales, former Harvard University student and Communist leader, who was a speaker, engaged in a fight with John Kelley, a bystander. Wales was arrested and the march on the State House followed.

About 5000 persons had gathered at the bandstand and most of the crowd joined in the march although it was estimated only about 1000 were Communists or active in the demonstration.

At the Capitol, State troopers and local police augmented by State House officers repulsed wave upon wave of Communist advances as the demonstrators tried to enter the grounds.

The crowd that gathered to participate in and witness the demonstration was the largest since the days when Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers were visiting the State House.

MORE THAN 40,000 PERILED BY BATTLE

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Incited by fiery orators, several hundred Communists turned a peaceful unemployment demonstration into a riot in Union Square today when they attempted to storm through police lines in defiance of orders not to parade.

More than 40,000 other persons, attracted to the square through curiosity, became innocent victims of the police charges that followed. Scores were injured in the rush. Almost 100 persons, including three policemen, were taken to hospitals.

Six of the Communists' leaders, including William Z. Foster, organizer of the unemployment demonstration, were arrested on charges of inciting riot.

The demonstration, which started in the square at noon, progressed for more than two hours in an orderly fashion while four and sometimes five speakers were shouting at the crowds at the same time.

Airplanes droned overhead, tickertape and torn papers fluttered down from the tall buildings around the square and a carnival atmosphere prevailed.

Police Commissioner Whalen had set up temporary headquarters in the square within earshot of the speakers and the surrounding streets were lined with mounted and foot police, armored motorcycles and emergency wagons.

Having been refused permission to march from the square to City Hall to present a petition to Mayor Walker, the Communist leaders leaped to the speaking platforms and urged their excited followers to defy the police.

A police emergency truck, waiting at the corner with mounted machine gun and manned by a tear gas bomb squad, swung into the street to head off the marchers.

Two lines of policemen and detectives, who had blackjacks and clubs hidden under their coats and uniforms, closed in behind the truck but met with resistance as the Communists attempted to break through.

Part of the demonstrators turned and stormed the police stronghold and fighting between police and Communists broke out all over the Plaza in Seventeenth street.

Mounted policemen repulsed the attack on the headquarters, where Commissioner Whalen was wielding a nightstick along with his men. The Communists used clubs, paving blocks and other weapons.

When the crowd broke and ran up the side streets mounted policemen and the motorcycles kept in pursuit. The square was quickly cleared and the fighting soon ended.

MOB OF 1000 FIGHTS POLICE IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE, March 6. (AP)—Defying police orders there should be no parades or other Communists' gatherings here today in the "demonstration" against capitalism, approximately 1000 persons bearing soviet and Communists' banners, battled with mounted police and patrolmen.

STUDENTS EMBROILED IN MADISON CLASH

MADISON (Wis.) March 6. (AP)—Lottie Blumenthal, a Communist leader, was knocked to the pavement and David Gordon, University of Wisconsin student, was attacked by a group of university students who attempted to halt a parade of Madison's unemployed today.

Police intervened as the students rushed from the sidewalk into the street, centering the attack on Gordon, Miss Blumenthal and other leaders in the parade. A banner and some Communistic literature carried by Gordon was seized.

CHICAGO MARCH PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION

CHICAGO, March 6. (AP)—Under passive police chaperonage 10,000 jobless, Communists and sympathizers, led by four young girls, paraded peaceably through the West Side today. The demonstration was sanctioned by a police permit and not one arrest was made.

Three times the long line came to a momentary halt, twice in front of Roman Catholic institutions, where the marchers booed. A third time the paraders stopped to scramble for food when someone produced a box of buns.

VANCOUVER MEETINGS TURN INTO FIZZLES

VANCOUVER (B.C.) March 6. (AP) Communist meetings here today fizzled out when orators mounted their soap boxes in a public park here and faced an audience of not more than 400, more than half of that number police and reserves.

The agitators bore banners proclaiming their political faith, but none ventured out of the park where Chief of Police W. J. Bingham said they could meet. A bedraggled Red flag hung on a near-by fence, but no one seemed anxious to claim ownership.

BOOKED AS SUSPECTS

The following were booked on suspicion of criminal syndicalism: Carl Sklar of 229 Boyle avenue, said to be one of the ring-leaders in the local Communistic movement; Mrs. Goldie Katz, 33; George Haka, 39; Bakumun Fukumaga, 36, of 515 East First street; Alfred J. Lucas, 36; Fred Spitler, 33; Warren W. Hatter, 19, of 1714 West Twenty-fifth street; James V. Marshall, 37, 1600 East Thirty-second street; Eisuke Yamaguchi, 30; 805½ East First street; Alfred Puglivick, 29, 1016 Montgomery street; Jane Doe No. 1, Samuel H. Wolfe, 25, 100 South Arden Boulevard; Mrs. Fanny Relin, 33, 239 North Soto street.

YOUNGSTERS HELD

Two juveniles also were booked on the same charge and later transferred to the Juvenile Bureau. They were Mary Hawkin, 15, of 2281 Folsom street, and Miriam Brooks, 14, of 1756 North Rowan street.

Only one injury out of the affair was reported at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital where Richard Drake, 21, a radio operator of 229 North Boylston street, was treated for minor lacerations received when he fought with an officer.

While the radicals failed miserably on their proposed assault on the City Hall, Attorney Leo Gallagher, representing those who wished to demonstrate, appeared at the Mayor's office to protest against the opposition to the mass movements. Gallagher did not get to see Mayor Porter but talked with Lee Porter, the executive's secretary. The Mayor for the time being is seeing his callers with caution.

GUARD FOR MAYOR

Marion Voss, Mayor Porter's assistant secretary, received a telephone call yesterday morning and an excited voice warned her that anyone coming to see the Mayor should "be searched to the skin." A special guard of officers is maintained about Porter's office.

Mayor Porter had no formal statement to make on the attempted demonstration but expressed satisfaction that no violence had occurred and belief that Chief of Police Steckel and his men will be able to control the situation. The executive was in his office during the morning, attended a luncheon at the Firestone tire plant with members of the City Council, and returned to his office shortly after 3 p.m., about the time the immense crowds had gathered. He remained there until the end of the day.

Reserve squads of officers were kept on duty last night on the threat of the Communists that another attempt will be made to demonstrate before the City Hall.

The Fire Commission yesterday gave Chief Steckel privilege to use fire hose and pumping apparatus to quell any uprising. The situation has not been serious enough to order the use of the fire-fighting equipment. Neither was the disturbance sufficient yesterday to warrant use of tear gas as was used at the Plaza disorder last week.

RED RIOT BRINGS DEATH IN BERLIN

Two Killed, Thirty Hurt and 149 Taken by Police

Fight Starts After Dusk as Workers Join Idlers

Few Serious Clashes in Most European Cities

BERLIN, March 6. (Exclusive)—Riot cars were clanging through the streets of Berlin tonight after two men were killed, thirty wounded seriously and 149 were arrested in encounters between the police and Reds, who were trying to hold their "starvation demonstrations."

The trouble didn't begin until dusk, when workers, coming from the factories, joined the masses of the jobless, who were ambling through the streets waiting for an opportunity to organize the demonstrations which were ordered by their wire-pullers at Moscow.

POLICE BATTLE REDS

The soviets had enjoined the workers to demonstrate all day against the "government that is starving the workers," but those of the Germans who had jobs remained at their posts, disregarding the Moscow orders. Only when they came out of the factories did they remember their instructions and flocked to the meeting grounds designated by the Red leaders.

In front of the Liebknecht House which was decorated with red flags and huge signs ordering the hungry masses to riot, the Reds massed in dense crowds, singing the International. They refused to budge when they were ordered away by the police. Mounted police were brought into action, but the Reds turned against them until the police started firing blank cartridges.

CALMER THAN EXPECTED

The Reds tried to install themselves on the roofs of near-by houses, but the police resorted to real ammunition to get them down. The chief of the Berlin "Schupo," Col. Heimannsberg, personally took over the command of the police in the Buelowplatz. He closed the subway station from which Red reserves were pouring, and re-established quiet at 10 o'clock tonight.

Throughout Germany the Red demonstrations proved calmer than was expected. Toward dusk the Communists began demonstrations all over the country, but in most quarters the police were in readiness.

FEW SERIOUS CLASHES IN EUROPEAN CITIES

LONDON, March 6. (AP)—"International unemployment day" was observed in most of the capitals of Europe today with parades of Communists and jobless, many arrests of leaders in clashes with the police, but with very little disorder of importance, except in Berlin.

"Red Thursday" proved only a pale pink in the British Isles. In Dublin there were some lively incidents, as a large number of unemployed attempted to march on Leinster House, where the Dail sits. They were charged by the police, who used their batons and arrested eight demonstrators.

FIVE HELD IN LONDON

In London a demonstration on Tower Hill attended by 3000 persons led to some skirmishing with the police, in which five demonstrators were injured. Four men were arrested in Glasgow and five in Manchester. No reports of disturbances were received from elsewhere in the country.

Communists and police clashed at municipal employment offices in Berlin, the most serious being at the Central Office, where a mob of 3000 jobless blocked the streets. At one place the demonstrators attacked the police with bricks and other missiles, but were dispersed shortly. Riotous clashes were reported from Hamburg, Breslau and Kiel.

PARIS NOT EXCITED

Paris went about its business calmly and Communist demonstrations of any consequence failed to materialize. Special detachments of police were on hand but they had little to do. The big department stores as a measure of precaution gave up their sidewalk sales for the day.

There were demonstrations in Stockholm, Seville, Antwerp, Copenhagen and Budapest, but no disorders were reported, although in some cases arrests were made.

SIX POLICEMEN HURT IN WARSAW RIOT

WARSAW, March 6. (AP)—Six policemen and one woman were injured in a riot near the market here between police and persons out of work.

Nine Communist leaders were arrested in the clash, which arose when the workers tried to make public protest.

FIFTY-SIX ARRESTED IN MUNICH STRUGGLE

MUNICH (Bavaria) March 6. (AP) Fifty-six Communists were arrested here last night by police breaking up demonstrations. The bridge leading to the center of the city was barricaded to halt the disturbers. Police cars patrolled the trouble centers all night.

COURT OF APPEALS REVERSES JUDGMENT

SAN DIEGO, March 6. (AP)—The Fourth District Court of Appeals at Fresno today reversed the conviction of Willis Thorp of this city on a forgery charge and ordered a new trial. "This is simply another illustration of a prosecutor by indirection and the use of hearsay and incompetent testimony, bolstering up a weak case where no satisfactory evidence connecting the man with the crime is available," the opinion read. Thorp was accused of issuing a forged check here on March 3, 1928. The opinion was prepared by Associate Justice F. J. Marks and concurred in by Associate Justice Charles R. Barnard.

REVOLT, CRY OF RED PRESS

Moscow Papers Print Flaming Editorials Calling on Unemployed to Rise Against Capitalists

MOSCOW, March 6. (AP)—Flaming front-page editorials inciting the workers and workless of the world to rise in a mighty struggle against capitalism appeared in today's Pravda, Izvestia and other soviet organs in connection with the international demonstration against unemployment fostered by the Communist International.

Calling the soviet republic the "fatherland of all laborers," Izvestia tells the world's unemployed that socialism and the overthrow of capitalism are their only salvation.

"Pitiless struggle of class against class," says Pravda, "was, is and will be the fundamental slogan of the proletariat because the question of unemployment can only be solved by victory of the laboring classes over the capitalists. Fascism and all other hostile elements must be crushed."

Pravda places the number of unemployed in the United States at 5,000,000, Izvestia at 6,000,000, and the American Communist party at 7,000,000.

ONE KILLED, TRIO SHOT IN STRIKE ROW

PHILADELPHIA, March 6. (AP)—One man was shot to death and three were wounded seriously tonight in a battle between employees of the H. C. Aberle Hosiery Mills, and asserted members of the hosiery workers' unioin and their sympathizers. The man killed was Carl Mackley, 23 years of age.

John Cooper, 20; William Zimmerman, 36, and James Thoney, 39, were wounded critically and physicians feared they might not recover.

A strike has been in progress at the Aberle mills for several weeks. Officials of the American Federation of Full Fashioned Hosiery Workers declared, however, that none of the strikers from those mills took part in the disturbance tonight. They said that Mackley and the three wounded men were members of the union, but were employed at other mills.

The battle occurred near the Aberle mills. Workers being transported to their homes in automobiles were followed by strike sympathizers. At a street intersection the car containing Mackley and three who were wounded cut in front of those containing the Aberle workers.

The next instant the shooting began. Mackley's car was riddled with bullets. He was killed instantly.

BOY DIES OF MYSTERIOUS AFFLICTION

Youth Struck by Auto Remains Unconscious More Than Month

UKIAH, March 6. (AP)—Jack Harvey, 14 years of age, died from brain trauma at the General Hospital today after being unconscious 712 hours. He received concussion of the brain February 4, last, when knocked from his bicycle by an automobile driven by Dr. H. O. Cleland.

Outside of opening his eyelids several times, the boy made no movement during the four weeks. Physicians rated his case as a medical puzzle as he appeared almost in normal condition otherwise. He was fed through a tube.

The boy was a son of Hugh T. Harvey, office manager of a fruit company here.

GEST WILL ADMIT HE'S BANKRUPT

Producer's Attorney Says He'll Not Deny Condition in Answer to Creditors

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—In answer to court proceedings now pending against Morris Gest on behalf of three of his creditors, who say that he is $500,000 in debt, Gest will admit a condition of bankruptcy, his attorney said today.

The producer himself declined to discuss court angles of his difficulties, referring all queries to his lawyer, E. Forrest Trancer, but he said he is deeply depressed by the situation.

"I've had a lot of trouble," Gest said. "I've been sick two years and was in a railroad accident last year. After that I had trouble with my eyes and almost lost my sight.

"Then the crash came and I had to close the 'Passion Play' in New York last June, and 'The Miracle' got stranded in Dallas in January.

LESS LIQUOR COMES OUT OF CANADA

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—A decrease of more than 50 per cent in the amount of liquor exported from Canada to the United States in December and January, as compared to the same months a year previous, was indicated in figures made public today by Assistant Secretary Lowman.

Lowman's statement showed a decrease of exports to the United States from 402,811 gallons in December, 1928, to 239,517 in December, 1929, while there was a decrease from 410,852 gallons in January last year to 238,504 in January this year.

"A considerable percentage of the alcoholic beverages leaving Canada for the United States were seized by customs officials and the Coast Guard and a further quantity was diverted back into Canada," Lowman said.

GANDHI DEMAND GIVEN TO PUBLIC

Ultimatum Denounces India Rule by Great Britain

Plea Made for Effort to Find Way Out of Difficulty

No Harm to Any Englishman Intended in Campaign

AHMADABAD (India) March 6.—The ultimatum of Mahatma Gandhi to the British Crown asking the Indian national independence and threatening in lieu of that a campaign of intensive civil disobedience, was made public here today.

Gandhi, venerable Indian Nationalist, after a vehement attack on British rule in India, which he says "has impoverished the dumb millions," says: "On bended knees I ask you to ponder this phenomenon."

The ultimatum is addressed to Viceroy Lord Irwin, and begins:

"My Dear Friend—Before embarking upon civil disobedience and taking risks which I have dreaded all these years, I would fain approach you and find a way out. My personal faith is absolutely clear. I hold British rule to be a curse, but I do not intend to harm a single Englishman or any legitimate interest he may have in India."

BABY FRAUD UNCOVERED WHEN WIFE CONFESSES

ALAMEDA, March 6. (AP)—A 6-weeks-old baby which police declare was given by Mrs. Maude Rawles, 35 years of age, of Booneville, to Mrs. Frances Scott, 28, of Alameda, today is in the Salvation Army home, where it was taken from the Scott home last night by police. The child was born January 28 at Guerneyville.

Police said their investigation disclosed Mrs. Scott had told her husband she was soon to become a mother and then left the city. She returned with the baby. Her husband, suspicious, asked an investigation. This disclosed a birth certificate revealing Mrs. Rawles as the mother.

Angelina Floyd, Alameda police woman, said Mrs. Scott confessed the hoax to her and had explained she wanted a baby and that the child's mother could not support it.

TROUBLE AGAIN BREWS IN HAITI

Rumors of Borno Plans for Coup Cause Concern

Hoover Group Intervention Agitation Rises Anew

Rioters in Southern Area Quelled by Authorities

PORT - AU - PRINCE (Haiti.) March 6. (AP)—Haitian agitation for intervention by President Hoover's investigating commission into the political affairs of the republic reached a new peak today.

Rumors spreading through the city that President Borno intends to make a coup-d'etat by resigning and naming his own successor through new appointments to the Council of State, caused great excitement. Similar rumors a week ago provoked demonstrations.

At Jacmel, in the southern part of the country, Capt. Hal Potter, nacional garde officer in command, reported today that 100 young men had rioted last night. The police subdued them with sticks. Two sergeants were hit with stones, but were not injured.

Feeling in the south ran high against the American occupation of the island republic. Conditions are under control, however, and no serious trouble is expected.

Leaders of the groups opposing occupation conferred privately with the commissioners late today, discussing plans for a provisional government.

They agreed to issue a statement urging their followers to refrain from any disturbances that might lead to riots while the commissioners are studying the situation. Further discussions will take place tomorrow.

Though the commissioners refused to discuss the possibility of their taking immediate action, there is a feeling that they will very soon advise President Hoover that it is necessary to form a temporary popular government in Haiti until it is possible to hold legislative elections.

BANQUET POISONING LAID TO BAD CHICKEN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive) — Tainted chicken caused the illness of 145 delegates to the Salvation Army's annual Young People's Congress at their banquet February 23, last, the Board of Health announced today. The chickens had been prepared too long before they were served, it is said.

KEYSTON POSTS REQUIRED BOND

Five Thousand Dollars Set on Each Indictment Count

Los Angeles Pair Scheduled for Surrender Today

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive)—George N. Keyston, president of the stock exchange and a senior partner in the brokerage house of Leib, Keyston & Co., appeared before United States Commissioner Fisk today and furnished bond on Federal warrants charging him and five associates with conspiring to embezzle approximately $550,000 from the Bank of Italy with the connivance of three of the bank's former employees. With Keyston were Douglas C. Alexander, partner in the brokerage concern, and Claud Calmarino, an employee.

Each was required to post bond of $5000 on each of the Federal grand jury indictment counts against them.

William H. Crocker and Ettore Avenali of the Crocker First National Bank posted $10,000 for Keyston and $5000 for Alexander. Calmarino's $10,000 bond was supplied by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company. Elmer J. Griffin, former employee of the brokerage house and the sixth member of that organization to be indicted, left the company's employ two years ago, it was said. He is listed as missing.

RETURN DATE FIXED

All of the indictments are made returnable the 22nd inst.

Attorney Herbert W. Clark, representing the brokerage group, informed United States Marshal Escola that Ray S. Rossitter, resident member of the concern at Los Angeles, and Charles H. Clay, an employee of the Los Angeles office, both of whom were indicted, will surrender here tomorrow.

Attorney Sterling Carr, representing Joseph C. Bray, indicted former manager of the Post-Fillmore branch of the Bank of Italy, and Robert G. Haddow, his assistant, obtained their release on their own recognizance from Federal Judge Kerrigan, because of the fact they have furnished bond of $20,000 each on indictments returned against them a year ago.

BURKE TO APPEAR

Attorney Walter Duane, representing Daniel P. Burke, indicted former teller of the bank branch, said he will bring his client into Federal Judge Louderback's court tomorrow, where Bray, Haddow and Burke are scheduled to go to trial on the previous indictments.

Haddow and Bray, who are said to have testified freely before the Federal grand jury, sufficiently, in fact, to bring the indictments against the members of the brokerage company, are declared probable government witnesses in the trial of the current actions. Their attorney bolstered the report by saying his clients "will tell all of the truth when the time comes."

CONFERENCES CITED

Attorney Carr asserts Keyston and his associates were fully aware of the assertedly fraudulent arrangement by which bank funds were used to play the stock market and cites conferences between the indicted former bank employees and the indicted brokerage men, which he declares went on over a period of four years before the disclosures came.

Government investigators assert the brokerage men must have had knowledge of the situation because the dummy accounts used were in the names of persons known to have such modest means their transactions in the sums at issue could not have escaped detection or inquiry.

Bertram E. Alanson, vice-president of the stock exchange, today took over the duties of the presidency as the result of a request made by Keyston. The stock exchange board of directors pointed out that Keyston has not resigned but the move has been made at his request, pending the outcome of the case.

BOY SCOUTS' CHIEF REACHES AMERICA

(Special) Lord Robert Baden-Powell, founder and chief scout of the worldwide Boy Scout organization, and Lady Baden-Powell, arrived here today on the Burness-Bermuda liner Bermuda after a cruise in the West Indies. Lord Baden-Powell said he is favorably impressed with the progress of the Boy Scout movement in the West Indies.

Brown was a silent man and resented publicity. His private benevolences were enormous and he exercised an important influence in Australian public and industrial affairs.

CHECK PASSER PICKS JUDGE

Prosecutor and Detective Also Seek Distributor Of Worthless Paper

Complaining witness in a hold-up case, he passed a $15 worthless check on Judge Young in his chambers, victimized Prosecutor Dunne of $30 in witness fees and left Detective McGlothen "out" $10 on a fake check.

1930 The same corner ten years later.

What will You Be Saying in 1940?

In 1930 a lot of us have said ... "I had an eye on that corner ten years ago; I knew money would be made there. If I could have bought it then I would be living on my income today. But it was more than I could swing."

Will we be saying the same thing in 1940? We doubt have an eye right now on a corner that we feel sure is going to move. It is possible that we might go out and collect a dozen corners in a row, with reasonable assurance of increase in value in all and of picking at least three big winners.

But it is more than we can swing!"

Individually, yes; collectively, no. Your few hundreds or few thousands teamed up with the investments of scores of others will enable you to swing those corners and certainly many others during the next ten years.

That is the principle of the Otto G. Wildey Co., Ltd., Real Estate Investment Trust. It operates in business properties; liberal diversification of investments is enforced by the very terms of its trust agreement. Its units in any amount you can comfortably carry are available now for $100 each, or may be bought for as little as $10 down. There is your answer to what you will be saying in 1940.

Mail the coupon now for "An Approach to Business Real Estate," by Otto G. Wildey. Don't wait until today's best chances are gone.

VAPEX
VAPEX

All day long, wherever you are, you can breathe the delightful Vapex vapor and feel your head clear in an instant. Swiftly and surely, Vapex breaks up congestion. ... The secret of this remarkably quick relief that Vapex gives is its high concentration. The formula is so complex that it is impossible to imitate that formula has been jealously guarded since the discovery of Vapex during the war-time influenza epidemic in England. ... This high concentration in Vapex also makes it very convenient and economical to use. Just a drop on your handkerchief in the morning gives you relief for the entire day. The healing vapor keeps its strength. At night a drop on each end of your pillow insures sleep—with a clear head and unobstructed breathing. Ideal for children because it is so simple and so convenient. Vapex actually costs less per application. The $1 bottle contains fifty applications. Always insist on V-A-P-E-X; you can easily recognize it by its white box with the green triangle. Do not accept a cheap substitute. ... Vapex is distributed in the United States by E. WOMEN TAKE SILENCE VOW

Rosika Schimmer Will Be Mum at Hearing

Dorothy Detzer Likewise to Seal Her Lips

Citizenship Bill Fight to Revolve Around Them

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—They both say they'll keep absolutely silent, but Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer and Miss Dorothy Detzer will be the center of a word war on the subject of peaceful citizenship next Tuesday on Capitol Hill.

Remember the Schwimmer case? Remember the Detzer case?

A few months ago they simmered simultaneously.

Mrs. Schwimmer precipitated a controversy when she refused to subscribe to the "defense clause" of the oath of allegiance. A judge denied her naturalization.

Miss Detzer caused a furore of discussion when she balked at the selfsame item in certification of passport. A more lenient judge substituted "affirmation" for oath and let her sail.

AMENDMENT SUPPORTED

But alike, they point-blankly refused to promise ever to take up arms and go forth and kill in defense of country.

Now Mrs. Schwimmer announces she will appear, wordlessly, in behalf of legislation which grew out of her case—the Griffin bill to amend the naturalization law by adding the new sentence:

"Except that no person mentally, morally, and otherwise qualified shall be debarred from citizenship by reason of his or her religious views or philosophical opinions with respect to the lawfulness of war as a means of settling international disputes."

And Miss Detzer simultaneously says she will attend Tuesday's hearing on the Griffin bill before the House Immigration and Naturalization Committee as Mrs. Schwimmer's silent champion, but not to testify.

MUCH ORATORY SLATED

Representative Griffin, Democrat, New York City, author of the bill, today received the "silent appearance" statements of both women. In that of his constituent, Mrs. Schwimmer, he read some irony, a hope that "though a foreigner I will be permitted to listen to the speakers."

There'll be representatives of some forty-five antiwar organizations for her to listen to, Representative Griffin said, and it is to be presumed that militant patriotic groups will also offer some oratory.

Although they won't talk themselves, both women will be represented by spokesmen. Dorothy Detzer promised "two distinguished people to testify" and Mrs. Schwimmer said in the absence abroad of Miss Sarah Schuyler Butler, the sister of Nicholas Murray Butler, Miss Emili Marx, woman attorney twice an assembly candidate, will appear for her.

OLD PREROGATIVE WILL BE SCORNED

Data on World Bank Sought From Mellon

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—The House Banking Committee today unanimously approved two resolutions calling on Secretaries Stimson and Mellon for information as to the extent to which the Federal Reserve Board is participating in the formation of the Bank of International Settlements.

Official American participation in the creation of the international bank designed to handle reparations payments under the Young plan has been opposed by Chairman McFadden of the committee.

FORD ANSWERS FARM QUESTION

Work Set Forth as Solution of Relief Problem

Mass Production Advocated for Agriculture

Wider Use of Machinery and Chemistry Urged

FORT MYERS (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—Solution of the farm problem, like almost every other economic difficulty, lies in work, which is a remedy for all things, Henry Ford asserted in an interview at his winter home here.

Machinery, chemistry and education of the farmer toward intensive production are the best agencies of relief, Mr. Ford said.

"As far as that goes, mass production will be as much an agency as anything else, but all agencies must be co-ordinated and co-operative with each other," he said.

The manufacturer was asked if mass production might not lead in a short time to overproduction.

OVERPRODUCTION CURB

"Certainly not," he responded, "overproduction of foodstuffs will be eliminated automatically by development of by-products."

Search for and development of by-products will bring chemistry into the limelight as an agency for bettering conditions, Mr. Ford pointed out.

Any system of restriction of labor, pending development of a market for increased production of foodstuffs, is a step in the wrong direction, Mr. Ford declared.

"I have always been against restricted production. In fact, our company fought one patent for seven years because it tended to restrict production of automobiles," he said.

If this is a machine age, then Henry Ford believes that it is an age that must be directed by man. No man or woman, he said, will fail to find plenty of work if he looks for it.

"What about the automatic machines that are replacing men in plants and factories?" he was asked.

"Who's going to make the machines?" was his question in reply.

The manufacturer recounted at length his ideas on work.

"I believe every man could double his labor output if he tried, and on condition that he used intelligence in selecting his method of operation for the increased production," he explained.

If the farmer believes he cannot crowd more work into a twenty-four-hour day then he must turn to machinery, to chemistry and to a study of production on a more intensive scale, Mr. Ford said.

He recently returned from a visit to his plantation near Savannah, Ga. There, he said, his forces are experimenting with a series of farm products and a system of planting that will make each acre of land produce three crops a year. This, he pointed out, involves study of soil conditions, of fertilizers and of crops.

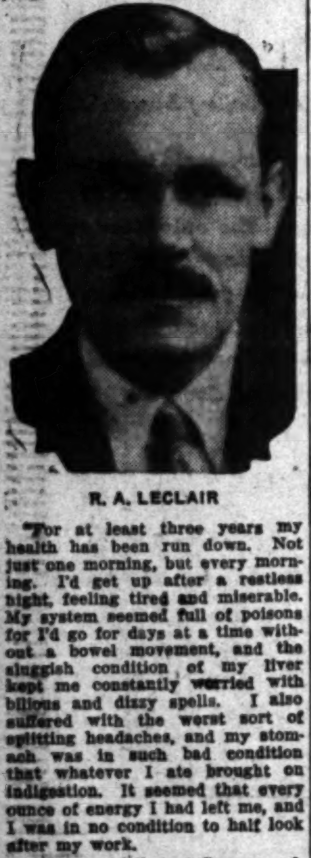
"I Can Work at Top Speed All Day Long Now"

"Sargon deserves all the praise I can possibly give it. It relieved my suffering, built me up to where I feel like a new man, and I have no further need of medicine of any kind.



R. A. LECLAIR

"For at least three years my health has been run down. Not just one morning, but every morning. I'd get up after a restless night, feeling tired and miserable. My system seemed full of poisons for I'd go for days at a time without a bowel movement, and the sluggish condition of my liver kept me constantly worried with bilious and dizzy spells. I also suffered with the worst sort of splitting headaches, and my stomach was in such bad condition that whatever I ate brought on indigestion. It seemed that every ounce of energy I had left me, and I was in no condition to half look after my work.

"But six bottles of Sargon ended all my troubles. My appetite is better than in years and I eat anything I want, without a trace of stomach trouble or indigestion. I sleep the whole night through, and instead of that tired feeling in the mornings, I am strong and full of energy. My work is a real pleasure once more, for I can go at top speed every day and feel good when night comes.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills ended my search of years for a laxative that would give me lasting relief from constipation, and since my bowels are regulated my liver is toned up in fine shape. Bilious, dizzy spells and headaches haven't bothered me any more, and I feel so different that I hardly know myself. Sargon not only did all of this for me, but my mother has taken it with wonderful results, and now both of us are glad to talk to others about this great medicine."

The above statement was made by R. A. Leclair of 3767 Hubbard St., Los Angeles, well known real estate salesman.

Go to the Owl Drug Store, 6th & Broadway, and meet the Sargon Man. He will give you the astonishing facts about this wonderful new medicine which is accomplishing such remarkable results all over the country. The astonishing record of Sargon is based on actual results accomplished; not empty promises. Sargon may also be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett's Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

They prefer Squibb's because they know they can depend on its high vitamin content. It is not only very rich in Vitamin D, which helps to build good bones and teeth, but also in Vitamin A which promotes growth and increases resistance to many infections.

DEATH ARRIVES FOR VON TIRPITZ

German Admiral Dies After Brief Illness

Father of Submarine Drive Hailed as "Odin"

Break With Kaiser Ends Long Service in Navy

EBENHAUSEN (Bavaria) March 6. (AP)—Admiral Alfred Von Tirpitz, Lord High Admiral of the German Navy during the World War and father of Germany's submarine warfare, died in a sanatorium here at 2:30 a.m. today after a brief attack of bronchitis. He would have been 81 years of age the 19th inst.

The gray-bearded warrior, who sometimes was termed a German Odin, or war god, of the seas, was in good health until early in February, when the bronchial ailment took him down. He was brought February 10, last, from his home at Feldafing, on the banks of Starnberger Lake, to this place, a suburb of Munich.

At Feldafing he had been leading the life of a retired warrior, occasionally lifting his voice in defense of the German Republic. In 1925, while a deputy in the Reichstage, he went to Hanover and persuaded Field Marshal Paul Von Hindenburg to accept candidacy for the German Presidency.

PARTY CRITICIZED

Two years ago he wearied of Parliamentary life and declined renomination for the Reichstag in a rather bitter letter to the German Nationalist party in which he declared the party was making too many compromises. The party then made him its honorary chairman, but he played no political role, merely writing articles occasionally on topics of the day.

From the time he was 20 until he broke with the Kaiser in 1916, Admiral Von Tirpitz's life was one of most intimate association with the German Navy. In 1897 he became Secretary of State for the Imperial Navy, and, holding it until his quarrel with Wilhelm, generally is given credit for instigating and organizing it to its high peak of efficiency.

He and Wilhelm were said to have come to the parting of the ways on the very submarine warfare which afterward led the United States into the war and probably contributed greatly to Germany's eventual defeat. Wilhelm was for a less vigorous submarine offensive than Von Tirpitz.

HAD HAPPY MARRIAGE

In his last years at a small villa on Starnberger Lake Admiral Von Tirpitz liked nothing better than the company of a few genial companions; his guests came from all parts of the world. He was father of two sons and two daughters, born of his happy marriage with Marie Lipke.

At the peak of his career he is said to have known the name, history and fighting capacity of every warship in the world. He was one of the best fencers and sharpshooters in the Imperial service. In his latter days he was fond of hiking.

He was rather inclined to view Germany's future pessimistically and consequently preferred never to discuss his country's political development. When the stupendous progress of Germany within the last decade was pointed out to him, he would waive all further discussion with the remark:

"Oh well, perhaps I've outlived the times."

TWO DREAMS CHERISHED

As the highest ranking official of the former imperial German navy, Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz cherished two dreams.

One of them, a gigantic naval force for the empire, became a reality; the other, the institution of a ruthless submarine campaign as a means to win the World War, failed.

While the latter played havoc with the shipping of neutrals and belligerents alike and exacted an undetermined toll of lives, it not only failed of its purpose, but was an important factor, in the opinion of many observers, in the eventual defeat of the Central Powers.

It was chiefly because of the submarine warfare that the United States entered the great struggle and it was for the same reason that many other hitherto neutral nations abandoned their "hands-off" policy and threw their influence with the Allies.

HIS WILL PREVAILS

That situation was said to have been anticipated by the former Kaiser and some of his closest advisers, yet the will of Von Tirpitz prevailed. In the end there occurred a rupture between the Kaiser and his naval chief and finally the resignation of the latter.

Alfred P. Friedrich von Tirpitz was born March 19, 1849, at Kuestrin, the son of a local lawyer. The father, unimpressed with the prospects for his son's future, placed him on a naval training ship when he was 16. From that time, 1865, until his retirement, Von Tirpitz devoted his entire active life to the navy.

At 20 he was a lieutenant and four years later a commander. His advancements continued in rapid succession. By 1890 he had become chief of staff of the Baltic station of the imperial German navy and from 1892 to 1896 he was acting chief of staff of the higher command of the navy. The next year he was given command of the cruiser division in the East Asiatic waters.

ORGANIZED NAVY

It was in 1897 that Von Tirpitz also assumed the post of Secretary of State for the Imperial Navy, serving as such until his rupture with the Kaiser in 1916, when he resigned. Although the creation of the prewar German navy generally is attributed to the former Kaiser, it really was Von Tirpitz who was the instigator and organizer of it.

In his capacity as Secretary of State for the Navy, the grand admiral acted as sponsor for the important navy bills of 1898, 1900, 1907 and 1912 providing for the enlargement of the German fleet and he successfully put them through the Reichstag. He not only conducted the important parliamentary advocacy of the bills, but also an extensive campaign of publicity and propaganda that finally succeeded in popularizing the enormous expenditures the plan entailed.

Von Tirpitz was raised to the rank of vice-admiral in 1899 and four years later was made an admiral. He was knighted in 1900 and in 1907 was decorated with the Order of the Black Eagle, the highest honor to be conferred in imperial Germany. His final honor came in 1911 when he was given the rank of grand admiral.

KILLER MUM ON MURDER IN PRISON

Slayer of Auburn Keeper Believed to Have Been Chosen by Lot

AUBURN (N. Y.) March 6. (Exclusive)—Inquiry conducted by the Auburn prison authorities today developed suspicions that Anthony Mortelito, convict slayer of Edward L. Beckwith, the third principal keeper there to meet such a death within two years' time, was chosen by lot to commit the murder in the name of a secret assassin ring organized within the prison walls.

Mortelito, already under sentence for a gang feud murder near Tarrytown, is keeping his mouth sealed tightly, in deference, it is believed, to the underworld code of silence. Maj. Philip G. Roosa, special investigator for the State commissioner of correction, has started questioning of witnesses to Wednesday's unprovoked attack on Beckwith. Some fellow-prisoners have admitted that the crime was "suggested" to Mortelito.

Mexican Mayor Reported Slain

MEXICO CITY, March 6. (AP)—Guadalajara dispatches to La Prensa say that Abraham Leon, Mayor of the Town of Jesus Maria in the State of Jalisco, was assassinated by a rebellious element which he has been trying to eliminate. The Assassins escaped.

RUSSIANS GAIN POLISH HAVEN

Warsaw Will Give Shelter to 3000 Refugees

Pope Also Will Grant Aid Regardless of Creed

Bitter Hardships Bared in Fleeing From Soviet

WARSAW, March 6. (Exclusive) More than 3000 refugees have illegally crossed the 810-mile Polish-soviet frontier this year and prefer death rather than return to soviet Russia. The Polish government officially advised Moscow today that Poland will consider them as political refugees, granting them hospitality and refuge.

In the meantime, all along the Polish-Russian frontier soviet guards have been increased four times and crack cavalry has been recruited from Central Russia. The frontiers are patrolled frequently, with searchlights illuminating every possible means of flight of the refugees. The Polish government, which is establishing concentration camps, is finding a large number of Communists among the refugees.

The papal nuncio called upon the Foreign Minister, August Zaleski, informing him that the Pope had advised him that the church in Rome will assist morally and materially all unfortunate refugees recently arrived. Upon receiving the information that the majority of the refugees belonged to the Russian Orthodox church the papal nuncio replied that it made no difference.

Added to the ruthlessness of the Red army is the bitter Arctic wind and miles of forest step which the refugees traverse. During the blizzards it is physically impossible to prevent the peasants from escaping across the line to Poland.

APPEALS COURT BACKS EDITORS

Convictions on Contempt Charge Overruled

Editorial Had Criticised Actions of Judge

Newton D. Baker Points to Jurist's "Bad Taste"

CLEVELAND, March 6. (AP)—Convictions of contempt of court against Louis B. Seltzer, editor, and Carlton K. Matson, editorial writer of the Cleveland Press, were overruled today by the Cuyahoga County Appellate Court.

The editors had been convicted about a year ago by Common Pleas Judge Walther, who sentenced them to thirty days in jail and fines of $500.

Walther's action against Seltzer and Matson was taken after an editorial appeared in the Press criticising the judge for issuing an injunction restraining Sheriff Hanratty from stopping a betting method at a race track.

Newton D. Baker, who represented the editors in the appeal, told the Appellate Court the editorial did not constitute contempt, inasmuch as it appeared when the case was no longer pending. Baker said Judge Walther used "bad taste" in acting as both trial judge and plaintiff against Seltzer and Matson.

The Appellate Court decision said: "We live in an age of pitiless publicity where the freedom of the press and freedom of speech are paramount issues, and newspapers should have the right to print what they please, always guiding themselves by the laws of libel. A free people must have a free press and a newspaper should have the right to speak freely its views."

The decision ordered that the $500 fines and the jail sentences be not paid or served.

FIEND MURDERS WIFE OF ARTIST

Mrs. Henri Marchand Found Slain in Own Home

Police Hunt Indian Woman as Suspect in Crime

Husband Internationally Known for Work

BUFFALO (N. Y.) March 6. (Exclusive) — Mrs. Clotilde Marchand, wife of Henri Marchand, internationally known artist, was found murdered in her home here today by some fiend slayer whose identity police believe they know.

Detectives were sent late tonight to an Indian village where Marchand worked from living models on a museum group. The detectives were instructed to bring to Buffalo an Indian woman who had posed frequently for Marchand and who, it is said, anoyed the artist with what he termed unwelcome attentions.

The body of Mrs. Marchand was found at the foot of a flight of stairs leading to the second floor of their one-family dwelling. Her son, Henri, Jr., 12 years of age, upon his return from school found the battered body of his mother in a crumpled heap. He sped to the Museum of Natural History, where his father and two brothers are now working. They in turn called police.

Medical Examiner Dedominicis performed an autopsy tonight and found that Mrs. Marchand had been choked, beaten over the head with some blunt instrument and that a rag soaked with chloroform had been forced down her throat. Her skull was fractured in two places. Indications were found that a woman had committed the murder.

Marchand has an international reputation as an artist, specializing in the reconstruction of fossil groups and geologic remains. One of his best known works is the "Gilboa group" in the State Educational Building at Albany, a mammoth reproduction of fossil trees.

WIDOW OF RICKARD IN SAD PLIGHT

Bank's Petition to Court Shows Income So Far Not Sufficient to Pay Taxes

MIAMI (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—Mrs. Maxine Elliott Rickard, widow of "Tex" Rickard, has not received a sufficient amount from his estate to pay taxes and insurance on the family residence in Miami Beach, according to papers filed in Probate Court here today.

The First Trust and Savings Bank, administrator, filed its petition to charge the estate with $274.20 city taxes and $120.38 insurance for 1929. Attached to the petition was an agreement signed by Mrs. Rickard that these amounts are to be deducted from her share of the proceeds, "provided the estate is found solvent at the end of the administration."

Mrs. Rickard and her small daughter are living in an apartment-house at Miami Beach this winter, while the family residence is leased.

Freedom Won by Rum Suspect of Short Duration

Because Carmen Myetta was arrested by county officers just inside the city limits on an asserted charge of violating the Wright Act, he was released yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus signed by Superior Judge Bishop. His freedom, however, was of short duration, for he immediately was taken into custody by city police.

Myetta was arrested by the county officers at 120th and Avalon streets. He was sentenced in an El Monte justice court to 180 days in jail and fined $500.

Leroy Reames of the City Engineer's office testified at the habeas corpus hearing that the corner on which Myetta was taken is in the city. Judge Bishop held the county officers had no jurisdiction and signed the writ freeing him.

Police Officer Pleads Guilty in Liquor Case

Harold P. Brown, 31 years of age, a police officer, pleaded guilty to possession of liquor before Municipal Judge Curtis yesterday and paid a $75 fine.

Brown was arrested, other officers reported, after his automobile had crashed into one driven by Paul N. Ferguson, 206 Central Building, near Sixth and Park View streets at 9 p.m. on the 4th inst. Two bottles of liquor were found on his person and another in his machine, arresting officers reported. Police Surgeon Lopizich reported Brown had been drinking, but was unable to give him a sobriety test on account of head injuries sustained in the automobile crash.

Woman Enters Insanity Plea

Mrs. Belle M. Lewis, 34 years of age, yesterday pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity to a charge of attempting to poison Henry P. Lynch in her rooming-house on January 16, last.

It is charged the woman sought to poison Lynch to gain his interest in the rooming-house, which he had but recently purchased from her.

Superior Judge Wood ordered the woman committed to the psychopathic ward of the General Hospital for observation. The matter will be brought up again in his court on the 21st inst. for decision.

SENATORIAL POWER QUIZ TERMINATED

Couzens Announces No More Evidence Will be Placed in Records

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Additional protests by power companies against testimony involving them before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee led Chairman Couzens to announce today that the committee's investigation has been completed, and that nothing more will be inserted in the record.

A letter objecting to charges that the Byllesby company included $140,000 spent for "lobby fees" in construction costs submitted to the Federal Power Commission was made public today by Elisha Hanson, attorney for the company.

Couzens, to whom the letter was addressed, recalled that another company attacked in the course of the committee's investigation of the Federal Power Commission wrote to him, at the same time making public its answer to charges against it.

Several other representatives of power companies have made efforts to have their position made clear in the record of the investigation, Couzens said.

"The committee was considering proposals for reorganization of the Federal Power Commission," Couzens explained, "and did not attempt to determine the relative merits of the power companies' and the commission's accountants' contentions. We received the testimony as evidence of need for reorganization of the commission, but we were not dealing with the relative merits of the contentions of the accountants and the companies."

Sinclair Lewis Visits Bombers in San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN PRISON (Cal.) March 6. (AP)—Sinclair Lewis, author, spent several hours in San Quentin prison today interviewing separately Thomas J. Mooney, James McNamara, and M. A. Schmidt, life-term prisoners. Mooney was convicted as a principal in the San Francisco Preparedness Day bombing in 1916 and McNamara and Schmidt were convicted in connection with the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times in 1910.

Lewis returned to his Monterey cottage after the interviews. He announced several days ago that his next book will deal with labor problems.

Deputy Police Commissioner John Stege commented:

"It's a good riddance."

His own "mob" killed Oberta, termed by the police as the "dirtiest, yellowest rat in the Chicago underworld," according to Capt. Stege. "He got just what was coming to him."

AIR HEROES' BODIES SOAR ABOVE RITES

Condition of Nome Field Prevents Landing Planes Bearing Eielson and Aide

NOME (Alaska) March 6. (AP)—While services in honor of Carl Ben Eielson, famous Arctic and Antarctic aviator-explorer, and Earl Borland were conducted aground three planes from Teller, one of them bearing the bodies of the two men, circled over this town today and then flew on to Ruby, 300 miles east, joined by a fourth plane. Windrows on the landing field here caused by a recent blizzard, prevented the planes from coming down.

A Russian and two American planes made the flight of sixty miles to here from Teller. The planes will continue tomorrow to Fairbanks, where Ole Eielson, father of Alaska's greatest air hero, and the young widow and two sons of Borland are awaiting arrival of the bodies. They will be taken by train and boat to Seattle from Fairbanks, Eielson to be buried at Hatton, N. D., and Borland at Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Soda Company President Kills Self With Gun

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (AP) George H. T. Jackson, 61 years of age, president of the Napa Soda Company and member of a prominent California family, shot and killed himself near Stow Lake in Golden Gate Park today. He had been in ill health for the last two years and had been ordered to a sanatorium recently.

The body was found by a street railway employee. Near by was a revolver with one empty chamber. A note found in a pocket said he was too old to go to a hospital and asked that his body be turned over to physicians for experimental purposes.

Jackson was the son of the late Col. John P. Jackson, former Collector of the Port of San Francisco and owner of the famous Napa Springs resort in Napa county.

IS YOUR PSYCHE IN PLACE?

Chicago Medical Writer Warns Physicians to Watch for New Disease Due to Strain of Modern City Life

CHICAGO, March 6. (Exclusive)—Physicians were warned to be on the watch for a new malady called "dislocated psyche" today by Dr. George B. Lake, editor of Clinical Medicine and Surgery, at a conference on abnormal illnesses.

The new type of ailment, the doctor declared, develops from the strain of modern business and city life and results in definite illness.

"Dislocated psyche is a gradual loss of mental or emotional balance," as Dr. Lake described it.

"Sometimes it is violent temper just short of insanity. It may afflict children as well as adults. It is notably on the increase especially in cities and is one of the most baffling problems confronting modern physicians."

EX-MINISTER OF JAPAN TO BE INDICTED

Emperor Orders Action Brought Against Kobashi on Grounds of Bribery

TOKIO, March 7. (AP) (Friday)—Emperor Hirohito today ordered the indictment of Inchita Kobashi, former Minister of Education, on charges of accepting a bribe.

Thus, the series of high scandals which hitherto have chiefly involved the Seiyukai party leaders, has touched the Minseito party since Kobashi was a member of the ministry of Prime Minister Hamaguchi, until his resignation on November 29, when charges involving him threatened to weaken the Cabinet. Kobashi then declared he was innocent, but resigned so as not to embarrass the government.

The indictment charges that Kobashi accepted funds in connection with the government purchase of a private railway in 1927, when he was a member of the lower house and of the now defunct Seiyuhonto pary.

Gen. Hanzo Yamanashi, Governor-General of Korea during the regime of former Premier Tanaka of the Seiyukai party, was indicted in December on charges of accepting bribes in connection with the granting of permission to establish a rice exchange at Fusan, Korea. Shortly before that Heikichi Ogawa, former Minister of Railways, was arrested on a bribery charge also.

CHARGES IN FRUIT PEST WAR MADE

Florida Orange Growers Tell Congress Committee Spray Damaged Trees

ORLANDO (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—Wholesale charges that Mediterranean fruit fly eradication forces caused widespread damage to citrus trees and fruit last summer through use of arsenical spray were placed before a Congressional subcommittee today by a group of growers with threats of "gun play" if the spray again is made compulsory.

Nine growers condemned use of the spray as more damaging than any pest known to man. Blame for the property loss asserted to have been incurred was laid directly on the shoulders of the State Plant Board.

Two of the witnesses were Mrs. Lula A. Arnold of Conway, an aged widow, and her middle-aged son, who told of the "outrages" to which they claimed to have been subjected at the hands of eradication forces and the threats they made to "drill a hole" through the plant board workers "if they ever come back to our place again."

Manila School Pupil Strikers Defy Governor

MANILA, March 6. (Exclusive)—Defying the requests of Gov.-Gen. Dwight F. Davis and President of the Senate Manuel Quezon, the 10,000 striking Manila High School students continued their rebellion today, recruited students from two more schools and indulged in further violence.

A young girl who was waiting for her parents to escort her home from school was mobbed on the school grounds. The girl was saved by the police. There have been no further arrests. No injuries to students who attend school in defiance of the strike leaders have been reported.

Truce Urged Over Estate of Cartoonist

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—The wife whom Clare Briggs, cartoonist, divorced and the woman who says she was his common-law mate, today were advised to protect his name by compromising their legal battle over his estate.

"It is a sad thing," said Surrogate John P. O'Brien, offering his services as mediator, "to delve into his private affairs and drag forth a grinning chimera into the spotlight of unwelcome notoriety."

Attorneys for Ruth Owen Briggs, the divorced wife, and for Marie C. Briggs, the claimant, said they will consider the suggestion.

The first suit was dismissed by the Supreme Court. Eleven thousand barrels of wine were lost on the ship, which went down in the North Sea.

OLD LADY OF LAMPS GOES BACK TO RICKETY HOME

SEATTLE, March 6. (AP)—Happy in her adopted poverty, Seattle's "old lady of the lamps," who is worth a fortune, but who has lived alone in squalor for sixteen years, went back to her ramshackle home here today.

Mrs. Frances Jackson, 83 years of age, who won her sobriquet because she insists she cannot afford electric lights in her house, went home in style from the sanatorium where she had been confined for a mental test, requested by her 61-year-old son, "Willie" B. Morley.

Mrs. Jackson took a taxicab to her home at the suggestion of Judge Smith, who yesterday declared her sane. It was the first voluntary taxicab ride she has ever had, although she has $90,000 stored away for a "rainy" day.

With the "old lady of the lamps" will live her son "Willie," whom she publicly forgave yesterday for having had her committed to the sanatorium a month ago. "Willie will starve unless I take care of him," said Mrs. Jackson.

ENCH GROUP ACK IN LONDON

Conference Delegates Ready for Old Seats

More Conciliatory, Set Forth

at Opening Today be Found Changed

, March 6. (AP)—A French returned to the London conference tonight, ready to the strenuous new drive toward agreement that is expected tomorrow with the reassembling of the five delegations in St. James's Palace for the first time in three weeks

Arthur Henderson, Foreign Secretary, and Malcolm MacDonald, son of the Prime Minister, extended the British government's welcome. After a general greeting like a home-coming party the veteran Aristide Briand led his party off to re-establish itself at the Carlton Hotel. Briand came as acting head of the delegation, since Premier Tardieu is studying the flood situation in France.

FACE NEW SITUATION

An entirely new conference situation faces the French as they return from putting their domestic political house in order.

Considerable technical work has been accomplished, but real progress concerns the larger issues, such as the Anglo-American accord—which, it is authoritatively learned today, is in sight regarding not only cruisers but all categories of warships.

The American-Japanese naval problem also has changed materially since the French left London. The conversations between Senator Reed and Ambassador Matsudaira will be enlarged next week to include Secretary Stimson and Reijiro Wakatsuki. Opinion in conference circles is that a generally satisfactory solution will be produced.

STILL FACE PROBLEM

The third new element in the conference situation is that the French delegation has returned in a—so reliable sources say—conciliatory frame of mind, eager to make concessions if that will make the conference a real success.

The only one of the larger problems which seems as far from an answer tonight as it was when the conference opened is the Franco-Italian controversy over parity. The indications are this will be left alone for a few days in the hope that time may prove as helpful in the dispute.

The only formal conference activity today was the meeting of experts considering the submarine problem. Spokesmen of the five delegations outlined their positions regarding the maximum size of submersibles which should be permitted under the treaties to be formulated at London.

AS TO SUBMARINES

The agreement announced yesterday as existing between the United States and Great Britain on submarines was officially voiced by American and British spokesmen who declared their countries are prepared to accept, as a basis of discussion 1800 tons as the maximum individual displacement for submarines. That is the figures suggested by Great Britain and the United States at the Geneva conference in 1927.

Italy is prepared to accept the same displacement, but Japan made it clear that she desires the maximum to be set at 2000 tons because her deep and stormy costal waters require large undersea craft.

France made no point either for or against these figures, stating she is ready to accept any figure which suits the other countries providing she also be permitted to keep a number of larger submarines—with displacement up to 3000 tons—to protect her lines of communication.

In the following discussion the the United States and Great Britain intimated they will accept 2000 tons as a compromise figure—on the condition that there is to be only one class of submarines and that all are to be within the figures prescribed for it. The question of the minimum size of submarines will be the subject of the next meeting of this committee.

DECISION ON OIL DRILLING REQUESTED

Webb Asked for Ruling Over Unit-Plan of Work on Seacliff Tideland

SACRAMENTO, March 6. (Exclusive)—Atty.-Gen. Webb will be asked to rule on whether the unit drilling of the General Petroleum well at Seacliff in Santa Barbara county will comply with the law requiring holders of tideland permits to begin drilling operations within six months or forfeit their rights.

This course was decided upon at at conference today between Fred G. Stevenot, State Director of Natural Resources, Lyman M. King, Director of Finance, and W. S. Kingsbury.

Nineteen tideland permit holders, Stevenot said, joined in the drilling of the General Petroleum well which brought between 400 and 500 barrels at 3000 feet and they maintain that this unit operation protects their rights under the six months' clause.

Kingsbury has been rigidly enforcing the six months' requirement in the law and voiding the permits of those who have not started drilling within that period, in the interest of conserving the southern beaches.

Stevenot, on the other hand, has been endeavoring to discourage oil-drilling operations as a State-wide conservation move and the decision to request Webb for an opinion on the legal phase of the unit drilling at Seacliff is an attempt, said Stevenot, to reconcile the beach and oil conservation policies.

Reallocation of Broadcast Facilities Proposed

Plan Will Abolish Zoning System Now Used

Efforts Made to Make State Basis of Shares

WASHINGTON, March 6. (NANA)—An entirely new scheme of allocating radio broadcast facilities to the States is being sought as the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce pursues its task of revising the Couzens communications bill in the hope of reporting it to Congress soon.

One plan for a more equitable division among the States has been submitted by Capt. Guy Hill, U.S.A., who retires in April as acting chief engineer of the Federal Radio Commission to report for military duty in the Philippines.

REPEAL ASKED

Other plans are being worked out by Commissioners Saltzman and Lafount in conformity with their promises to the Senate committee. All the proposals are predicated upon the repeal of the Davis equalization amendment, which now divides radio facilities equally among zones in proportion to population.

Repeal of the Davis amendment has already been asked in a bill introduced by Senator Nye of North Dakota. Another bill, just introduced by Representative Wallace White of Maine, seeks an elimination of the zone system of administering radio and the appointment of the radio commissioners as recommended by President Hoover in his last message to Congress.

Details of Capt. Hill's plan will not be announced for several days. Meanwhile, it has been learned that its primary object is to eliminate the wide disparity that now prevails in the amount of radio facilities allotted the States under the zone arrangement.

Under a formula recognizing State rights and taking into account State population and areas, it would make additional facilities available to most of the forty-eight States while reducing those now enjoyed by a few.

POPULATION BASIS

Besides abolishing the zone system, the Hill plan simply allows each State's quota to be determined 50 per cent on the basis of population, 25 per cent on the basis of area and 25 per cent on the basis of State's rights. By State's rights is meant that each State is initially entitled to that amount of available facilities, the variable factors of population and area to determine the rest.

That this plan will cause many changes in the present set-up is conceded, but it also means that inherent objections to the present equalization amendment will be removed. Now the first zone of States gets the same facilities as the fifth, even though the fifth zone of Rocky Mountain and Pacic Coast States represents two-fifths of the area of the United States.

One fifth-zone State alone, Montana, would embrace all the first zone and leave room to spare.

Most States would get added allotments of waves, powers and hours of operation under the Hill plan. Necessarily, these would have to be taken away from States now overpopulated with radio stations. Among the States which would thus suffer reductions are New York, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Washington and California.

CONTESTED DARGIE WILL SUSTAINED

St. Mary's College Loses Bequest as Result and Plans for Appeal

OAKLAND, March 6. (Exclusive) Superior Judge Church today held the so-called and contested second will of Mrs. Herminia Peralta Dargie, of a pioneer California family, was her true one, thus depriving St. Mary's College of a $20,000 bequest. He also struck at the opponents of her Spanish engineer protege of latter years by denying the contention that Capt. Antonio Rodriguez Martin is incompetent to act as one of the executors of her estate.

The estate consists, according to testimony previously given, of approximately $500,000, a good share of which is left to Capt. Martin, in addition to several thousands of dollars he testified he received from her as gifts during the last few years of her life.

St. Mary's will appeal the decision, it was said by Attorney A. T. Shine.

Issuance of an order admitting the second will to probate, however, was withheld until the 20th inst. to allow the presentation of findings by the numerous attorneys engaged in the case.

PROHIBITION AIDS FARMER, GRANGE HEAD TESTIFIES

society women regarded it as an unutterable nuisance and their only anxiety was as to how most effectually to free themselves and their families of it. They were eager to support President Hoover loyally in his appeal for general law observance. A favorite theme in their response was that of the expense of the custom and the disgrace of maintaining relations with bootleggers in order to keep up with the reputed styles of the day."

Miss Strawbridge vigorously criticised W. W. Atterbury, a fellow-townsman and president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for his recent statement before the committee in favor of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, asserting he was in favor of "private prohibition among his employees enforced by the threat of losing their jobs," but was against prohibition "for the personal liberty of himself and those with whom he mixes socially." She paid her compliments to Pierre S. DuPont, the Delaware capitalist and another wet witness, on the same ground.

ATTERBURY ATTACKED

"They forget," she said, "that their class of people are the fast drivers of automobiles on the public highways."

"Why," she demanded, "is Mr. Atterbury, as president of a railroad, so solicitous for the public welfare that he rigorously denies personal liberty to drink to his employees driving on protected tracks, and arrogates that liberty for himself and his social acquaintances who drive as amateurs on unprotected tracks? Surely, prohibition applied to engine drivers means today in America prohibition applied to everybody. Can Mr. Atterbury feel that he is being a respectable example when he advocates one law for employees engaged in a dangerous occupation and another law for employers likewise engaged in a dangerous occupation?

"Fortunately, the women who compose American society today are for the most part more keenly conscious of their public responsibilities and social influence. My replies have come from scores of matrons who entertain extensively, as well as from government officials. One matron whose social affairs have always been marked with the flowing cup, gave her first dry party after she received my letter. She wrote me that it was a huge success.

EXAMPLE NECESSARY

"Dry entertainments are becoming more and more fashionable. If parents make a joke of prohibition, so will their children. American mothers feel that they cannot loiter today in facing their responsibility. They must go forward with the courage of their convictions. They feel that parents can do more by education and example to support the prohibition laws and the President's efforts than even the law can do. They know that the youth of today have wonderful capabilities, and that it is up to their elders to live lives that will guide these children aright."

Patrick H. Callahan, prominent Catholic layman of Louisville, Ky., took up the defense of prohibition with a challenge to those who, he said, had attempted to inject religion into the controversy through aligning the dry movement with Protestantism alone. Recalling the frequent charge that prohibition was conceived and put through by Protestants with the idea of interfering with Catholic Church rites, he indignantly protested the untruth of such assertions and declared that for many years he has had as much influence in prohibition work in his community and State as anyone else.

He said the spreading of such propaganda was "merely another instance of the use of religious prejudice for material purposes."

MANY LIVES SAVED

Mr. Callahan, who is chairman of the central co-operative committee for prohibition enforcement, and general secretary of the Association of Catholics Favoring Prohibition, declared he wanted to call attention especially to one benefit from prohibition—the saving of lives.

"The newspapers of the country," he said, "made first-page stories of the report of an insurance company purporting to show the increased number of deaths by alcohol since prohibition and there were several editorials in leading papers calling for a repeal so that there will be a stop to the destroying of life.

"Therefore, as chairman of the central committee, I made a special study of this particular subject and am leaving with you some statistics furnished by the census bureau showing that instead of there being a greater loss of life, there has been a great reduction. For instance, the years before prohibition, as far back as we have records, show an average annual number of deaths of 3.2 per 100,000 of our population, while the eleven years of prohibition show the loss of life to be 2.8, or a reduction of nearly one-half.

"Based on a population of only 100,000,000, we have saved 2400 lives every year, and the eleven years of prohibition has saved 36,400 lives. In the case of cirrhosis of the liver, the reduction has been from 12.3 to 7.6, and a saving of life of 4.7 per 100,000 of our population, or about 40 per cent. Based on 100,000,000 population there have been saved 4700 lives a year, or in the nine years of prohibition which are the only years for which I have complete statistics, prohibition saved an additional 42,300 lives.

LESS BRIGHT'S DISEASE

"Coming to Bright's disease, about which there may be some dispute as to the degree of responsibility of liquor, there has been a reduction from 105.3 to 91.5, or a saving of life of 13.8 per 100,000 of our population, or about 13 per cent. Based on 100,000,000 population there have been 13,800 lives saved per year, and in the nine years for which I have statistics, 124,300 lives. Granted as was done at the Senate hearings in the cross-examination of Dr. Emerson of New York that 50 per cent would be a fair estimate of the deaths from Bright's disease as being due to liquor, we have this further extraordinary saving of 62,100 lives.

"Liquor is responsible for many other diseases as well as a great deal of insanity, with the undisputed statistics I have shown from merely three diseases where prohibitionists have saved more lives than were lost in action in the great war."

Callahan showed a letter from Mgr. M. F. Foley of Baltimore describing the efforts of antiprohibitionists as a revival of the whisky rebellion of 1794 "on a larger and more dangerous basis."

CHICAGO CRIME RECALLED

C. P. Connolly, attorney of East Orange, N. J., told the committee that the United States was no more lawless now than before prohibition, and submitted figures to prove the point. Chicago is much in the headlines as the center of activities of the racketeers and gunmen, but Connolly pointed out that in 1905 and 1906 that city had a reign of crime surpassing anything in its recent history. Conditions became so bad, he declared, that vigilante committees were formed and many residents talked of leaving town, so terrified had they become. "Murders by the score, shooting and stabbing affrays by the hundreds, assaults, burglaries and robberies by the thousands, was the crime record for each year," the witness said. "Notorious criminal factions, just as other factions today, killed off scores in fight after fight. There were beer wars then between brewers, just as there are beer wars now between the bootleggers."

Some of the preprohibition crime figures presented by Connolly were:

There were more than 59,000 murders in the United States in the seven years from 1912 to 1918, inclusive.

NEW YORK FIGURES GIVEN

In 1916 Chicago had twenty more murders than all of England and Wales.

In 1916, 1917 and 1918 New York City had each year six times as many homicides as London.

The losses paid by burglary insurance companies grew in the United States from $1,686,195 in 1916 to $10,189,853 in 1920, the year prohibition went into effect.

In 1915 New York City had approximately eight times as many burglaries as London and nearly twice the number reported in all of England and Wales.

In 1916 Chicago had 532 more burglaries than London and in 1919, three years later, it had 2146 more than London, showing a steady increase up to the time the Volstead Act went into effect.

Before prohibition Detroit and Cleveland generally reported several hundred more burglaries per annum than London, although London was seven or eight times larger than either of these American cities.

Burglaries in St. Louis before 1920, the year prohibition went into effect, always exceeded those in London. Washington, D. C., in 1916, had four times the number of robberies that London reported. Los Angeles in 1917 had 126 more robberies than all of England, Wales and Scotland combined.

Liverpool is about one and one-third times larger than Cleveland, or was in 1919, and Cleveland then reported thirty-one robberies for every one reported in Liverpool.

MONEY USED IN TRADE

The testimony of Taber, National Grange head, dealt almost entirely with the economic side of prohibition from the farmer's viewpoint. "Ten years' experience," he said, "has convinced the farmer that economically, socially, financially and morally, our country is much improved under prohibition. The fact that has impressed the farmer is the increased purchasing power that has come to the American citizen. Men who used to spend their money for drink, now spend it for shoes, bread, meat, and comforts of life. The millions and millions that used to be spent for drink, are now passing through the channels of trade, and agriculture is getting its share."

Taber contended that prohibition has not had a fair chance under honest enforcement, and while admitting that arrests for drunkenness had increased in some sections, declared this was because a "new definition" had been placed on the term. As for adoption of the Quebec plan of handling liquor, Taber said "the American people will never submit to their government going into the liquor business." He predicted that the next Congress would have increased dry majorities in both branches.

HEARING ADJOURNED

The grange official's statements regarding the benefits of the dry laws to farmers were supported by Representative Burtness of North Dakota who said that since prohibition his State had been more prosperous than ever before, that savings had increased, poverty had diminished, and the value of land and crops had greatly increased. Burtness presented a statement signed by many of his constituents contradicting the testimony of a North Dakotan who testified last week that prohibition had been a bad thing for the State, because of the reduction in the market for barley.

At the conclusion of today's hearing, Chairman Graham announced an adjournment to next Wednesday, when the dry forces will resume. They still have five full days in which to build up their side of the case.

D.A.R. CANDIDATES UPHOLD PROHIBITION

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive)—In response to a ruling believed to be the first of its kind in the history of California women's clubs, two candidates for the State vice-regency of the California chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution have filed statements as a condition of their candidacy on their attitude toward President Hoover's law enforcement program and the Eighteenth Amendment.

Mrs. L. P. Boyce of San Francisco and Mrs. F. F. Gundrum of Sacramento have informed Mrs. Theodore J. Hoover, State Regent, that each is completely in accord with the enforcement of the Constitution, including the Eighteenth Amendment.

The election of officers is scheduled at a convention in San Diego next week.

WOMAN FINDS DOLES'S PLANE

at about 12:30 p.m. in his open Stearman.

"I just knew that we would find the plane on the south side of Mill Creek. I had reasoned that Doles had flown into the mountains and then when he saw he was being forced down from the higher altitudes he turned to make back for the open desert.

PIECE OF WING SEEN

"We were flying along over that country when sure enough I saw a piece of a wing. I had field glasses. We dived down lower and there scattered for 100 yards down the side of the canyon, were pieces of wing. Near the bottom of the canyon was the fuselage all burned except the tail. One outboard motor was sticking on the side of the canyon. The other evidently was under the brush because I couldn't see it.

"It looked to me as if Doles had struck on the top of the ridge with one wing as he was trying to turn back and that this is the wing whose broken pieces are scattered down the side of the canyon. Another five feet and he would have cleared it."

"We descended to within 200 feet of the wreck and I could see with my glasses the crumpled bodies of the men. They looked like they had been burned."

"We first circled the higher peaks," Steele said, "and then we tried the lower ones when Mrs. Burns saw the wing piece and at the same time I saw a flash of red that I knew must be the fuselage. We flew down around the wing piece first and then moved over to what I had seen. It was about 500 feet away and it proved to be the fuselage's tail. The plane apparently fell right side up. We could see the outline of one side of the wing. Mrs. Burns saw the W.A.E. numbers on it and there then was no doubt."

COMPANY NOTIFIED

Steele and Mrs. Burns turned then to Miller's ranch, where W.A.E. has an intermediary landing field on the desert side of Cajon Pass between Summit and Victorville. They landed and Mrs. Burns announced:

"The search is over."

Steele and Mrs. Burns related their experiences to Shelton and Stagg at the ranch field and the two W.A.E. men took off at once in a Douglas plane to follow directions given them and to verify the find. They returned shortly after with similar findings with the exception that it appeared to Shelton, he said, that the plane had not burned. While at Miller's ranch, Steele telephoned to W.A.E. officials here and then he and Mrs. Burns returned to the Alhambra airport.

Company officials at once organized the automobile parties and they were on their way last night intending to go as far as possible by way of Victorville, then camp until daybreak and forge on ahead afoot. The parties carried stretchers and equipment to bring out the bodies of the ill-fated flyers before anything else is done after the scene of the tragedy is reached. Shelton will fly today in a Fokker F-10, the same kind of a plane that met with disaster, to Miller's ranch or to some dry lake bed or other possible level tract nearest to the scene and will bring the bodies back to Los Angeles. Several mechanics and field men are in the parties that left last night. They are headed by Cole.

Mrs. Burns came here a little more than a year ago from El Paso where she lived at 2609 Wheeling street. She came to look after an unmarried sister who suddenly went blind in Hollywood. She is said to have had a spectacular part in helping Federal prohibition forces clear out some of Texas's worst bootleggers. She took up flying after she came here with headquarters at 1316 Garvey Road, San Gabriel, she said.

Steele is head of Richfield Oil Company's aviation department. He has flown in search of the lost plane every day that weather permitted since the hunt began. He is an experienced flyer and prominent in aviation circles.

The flyers said that the territory in which the lost plane was found has considerable brush, but very little big timber on it.

Sheriff Shay of San Bernardino on hearing of the find communicated with a searching party stationed at Lake Arrowhead and arrangements were made last night for it to strike out across the country in an effort to find the wreck.

AREA HUNTED PREVIOUSLY

The place where the plane was found is in the same general area where J. T. Barber, a rancher in the Lake Arrowhead country, last Sunday told Sheriff Shay that he had seen a wrecked plane on a canyon side. A Sheriff's posse searched the country with Barber, but without success.

The lost flyers were returning here from Kingman, Ariz., with empty cabin when they encountered the San Bernardino mountain storm that blinded the ill-starred pilot.

Doles was 28 years of age, married and had one small son. He had been flying since 1918. Last winter he disappeared while flying from Los Angeles to Albuquerque, but later arrived safely at his destination after twenty-four hours' delay due to landing in the desert to await the passing of a storm.

Bieber was 20 years of age, and recently was married. Slaton was 35 and unmarried. He came here recently from Albuquerque.

Trace of Maurice Graham, veteran air-mail pilot, flying a W.A.E. plane, who disappeared somewhere in Utah or Nevada January 10, last, has not been found.

FOX COMPANIES IN NEW TANGLE

Legal Snarl Grows After Vote of Stockholders

Bankers' Plan Approved, But Its Legality Attacked

Suits in Both Federal and State Courts Probable

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—New legal knots have formed, in the opinion of interested attorneys, to complicate the solution of the financial troubles for the motion-picture companies whose stockholders supported William Fox in plans to avert a receivership.

The recapitalization plan to raise $60,000,000 to meet pressing claims was approved by stockholders of both the Fox Film Corporation and the Fox Theaters Corporation. The result of the voting was announced at adjourned meetings today.

While the underwriting syndicate, composed of Bancamerica-Blair, Dillon Read & Co., and Lehman Brothers, announced it will proceed with sale of securities to raise the money, trustees and creditors questioned the legality of the procedure and prepared new moves to defeat the plan.

HOW VOTE STOOD

Actions in both Federal and State courts to settle legal questions raised by opponents of the bankers' plan loomed tonight as barriers which must be hurdled to effect financial rehabilitation of the concerns.

Adjourning overnight to permit counting of the ballots, both corporations held short meetings today to hear the result, which, as predicted, gave the bankers' plan a big majority. Stockholders of the film corporation voted 564,577 Class A shares out of 820,660, and 93,745 out of 99,900 Class B for the plan. Of the 1,583,000 Class A shares of the theaters company, 987,516 favored the plan and 100,000 Class B, the total outstanding, were voted for the plan.

The legality of the proceedings was protested both by Richard Dwight, counsel for John Otterson and H. L. Stuart, trustees holding the B stock under an agreement with Mr. Fox, and Attorney Martin Conboy, representing some stockholders.

TRUST STOCK AT ISSUE

Control of Class B or voting stock of both corporations is regarded by both sides of vital importance and Fox has appealed to the Appellate Court. In the meantime Dwight contends that approval of any refinancing plan by the trustees is required and that the bankers' plan cannot be legally carried out without that consent. Fox contends the agreement no longer is in force.

Otterson and Stuart favor the alternative plan submitted by Halsey, Stuart & Co., which Mr. Stuart heads.

Inspectors of the stockholders' vote today recognized Mr. Fox's right to vote the Class B stock as the owner of record and threw out the vote of the same stock by Stuart and Otterson. Federal Judge Frank J. Coleman is expected by counsel to set a date soon for resumption of the hearing on three actions for receivership. It has been postponed pending action on the bankers' plan.

TARIFF BATTLE MORE STUBBORN

Independents Undismayed by Sugar Vote Defeat

Brace Selves to Withstand Other Assaults

Doubt Expressed Bill Will Pass This Week

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Undismayed by their defeat on the sugar tariff, leaders of the Democratic-Republican independent coalition braced themselves today in preparation for the effort to stay further possible upsets of victories already won on important levies in the tariff bill.

Despite three further secondary overturns in votes during the day on the chemicals, oil and paints schedules, the coalition chiefs believe they have a majority again to prevent the voting of rates on cement, oil and lumber, and to retain reductions they won on aluminum and pig iron.

THREATS HEARD

Reports are heard of threats to seek a reconsideration of yesterday's vote whereby the duty on sugar was increased, if the Senate reverses itself and approves a tariff on cement, but there also are expressions that not enough votes to overturn the sugar decision are available. The Senate recessed late today until tomorrow in respect to Representative James P. Glynn of Connecticut, who died today.

The Republican independents, four of whom left that group to vote for a higher sugar tariff, are regarding prospective votes on cement and other commodities as a test of whether any "trading agreements" on rates actually existed. On the other hand, Republican regulars cling to their stand that no vote-juggling is being indulged in.

DELAY EXPECTED

Of the more than 100 requests for separate votes only seven had been taken up today and the remainder embraced all the major contests. This led leaders to express doubt of passage of the bill this week.

Three of the votes were upsets for the coalition. The present rates on litharge and red lead pigments used in paints were restored, whereas the coalition had cut them.

Sodium, potassium, lithium, beryllium and caesium, which previously were restored to the free list, were given a rate of 25 per cent.

Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, attempted to give casein another boost from 5½ to 8 cents a pound as against 2½ cents in the present law and House bill but lost, 41 to 34. Casein is made from skimmed milk and is used for coating paper. Argentina is this country's chief competitor.

RATS ON MARCH IN MEXICO

Millions of Rodents Ravaging Country-side and Threatening to Overrun Guadalajara

MEXICO CITY, March 6. (Exclusive)—A horde of millions of rats in the region of Lake Chapala is advancing rapidly toward Guadalajara devasting vast areas of grain and vegetables on the way, says a Guadalajara dispatch to La Prensa. There are white rats with pink ears, roan rats white underneath, and gray rats with spots like those of wild boars, the dispatch states.

In spite of large quantities of strychnine put in their path, killing thousands daily, the rats are proceeding through haciendas toward the second largest city of the republic. Armies of boys in the infested regions are battling the rodents and are making money at a cent a head.

In two days the losses to crops have been estimated at 100,000 pesos, or about $50,000. Among the large haciendas totally devastated by the army of rats are the Cumauto, the Brisenas, the Buenavista, the La Luz and the El Molino, which are among the best known in the vicinity.

CUBAN SEES PERIL IN NEW SUGAR TARIFF

HAVANA, March 6. (AP)—Dr. Viriato Gutierrez, president of the Cooperative Exports Agency of Cuba, which was created this year by the Cuban government for the purpose of controlling marketing of Cuban sugar, today said the new sugar tariff rate approved by the United States Senate yesterday will be ruinous for Cuba if continued indefinitely.

"It is deplorable that the tariff on Cuban Sugar was raised by the United States to 2 cents per pound," Dr. Gutierrez said, "but I am no pessimist and I believe that the high tariff for the moment will be beneficial to Cuba, inasmuch as the demand will be greater under the tariff lashing. There is also a possibility of bigger prices."

STANFORD'S WOMEN EYE CUPID COYLY

Ninety Per Cent Expect to Wed, Questionnaire Shows; Lindbergh Most Admired

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 6. (Exclusive)—Ninety per cent of 225 Stanford women who replied to a questionnaire expect to marry. Forty per cent are in love, while the other 60 per cent amuse themselves teasing and pretending.

Seventy per cent do not enjoy kissing for its own sake. Twenty per cent believe in companionate marriage. Sixty per cent clamor for passion, warm and glowing. Eighty per cent believe in divorce and 30 per cent consider themselves experienced in love.

The questionnaire was sent out by Chaparral, the university comic.

Personality is the prime requisite in a husband, according to the femmes down on "the farm." Appearance comes second and wealth third.

However, the favorite motor cars are those costing well into the thousands.

Twenty per cent give their O. K. to the double-standard of morals.

College men are preferred to the self-made brand and fraternity brothers to "barbarians."

Mrs. Hoover tops the list of women most admired in the United States today. She is followed by Mrs. Coolidge, Helen Wills, Mamma and Amelia Earhart.

Lindbergh, Hoover, Edison, David Starr Jordan and Admiral Byrd is the order in which masculine heroes are listed.

DEATHAGAIN CUTS ROLLS IN CONGRESS

Representative Glynn of Connecticut Dies After Attending Hughes's Rites

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Representative James P. Glynn of Connecticut died on a Chesapeake and Ohio train early today while returning from Huntington, W. Va., where, with other members of Congress, he had attended the funeral of Representative James Anthony Hughes. Representative Glynn was 63 years of age.

Members of the party heard a noise in Mr. Glynn's berth this morning and on investigating found him dead. Apparently he had suffered an attack of heart disease during the night.

Representative Glynn, a Republican of Kinsted, Ct., was elected to the Sixty-fourth Congress in 1916 and had served in every Congress since with the exception of the Sixty-eighth.

His death was the fourteenth among the Representatives in the Seventy-first Congress.

In addition to those who have died there have been four resignations. There are now eight vacancies in the House.

GRUNDY HIRES OWN WORKERS

Staff Not in Government Pay, Senator Declares

Use of His Rooms by Tariff Lobbyists Questioned

Committee Calls Three to Tell of Activities

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Senator Grundy, Republican, Pennsylvania, told the Senate today that all the employees using his Senate office are on his pay roll, not the government's, but the Senate lobby committee called three tariff advocates for questioning tomorrow about any use by them of the Grundy rooms in the Senate Office Building.

The Pennsylvania Senator denied that any one using his office is "directly or indirectly" connected with the American Tariff League. Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, had called the Senate's attention to published reports that officials of the league are using the Grundy office as a base of operations.

MOSES SATISFIED

Senator Harrison threatened to introduce a resolution directing that officers of this league be driven from Grundy's office. He accepted the word of the Pennsylvanian and of Chairman Moses of the Senate Rules Committee, however, that all of those in Grundy's office are his own employees. Moses added that he accepts Grundy's word and considers the incident closed.

The Senate Lobby Committee, which had a long session with Grundy about his activities for tariff protection before he was named to the Senate, went ahead and summoned Arthur L. Faubel, secretary of the American Tariff League; Warren F. Boane, editor of the Manufacturer, published by the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia, and John Lerch, New York attorney, to appear tomorrow for questioning.

Chairman Caraway of the lobby committee examined Mr. Grundy in the Senate about these men and was told by the Pennsylvanian that while they visit his office they are not there "all the time."

ENTIRE PERSONAL MOVED

Senator Grundy said that he brought to the Capitol virtually all of the personnel which served with him in his former tariff headquarters here.

"The are all on by pay roll," he said. "There is no one over there on the pay roll of the American Tariff League. I have about four on the government pay roll and about six on my own pay roll working with me eighteen hours a day on this tariff. If I could find any more as good as these I have I would need them."

Grundy spoke off the floor and declined to make a formal statement. He said Dr. Faubel is "welcome" to come to his office at any time and that he does go there frequently.

PASSING OF CHINA WAR CRISIS SEEN

Rail Resumption Plans Taken to Indicate Further Strife Blocked

SHANGHAI, March 6. (Exclusive) Chinese newspapers report today that there will be an immediate resumption of through train service from Shanghai to Peiping and from Hankow to Peiping, which has been interrupted for several days. This is taken to indicate that the civil war crisis has passed, possibly enabling the country to avoid the usual spring-time war.

Credit for blocking the civil war between President Chiang Kai-shek and the Shansi leader, Yen-Shi-shan, which seemed imminent, belongs to the "young marshal," Chang Hsueh-liang, head of the Manchurian government, who sent identical telegrams to the heads of the opposing groups. The substance of these telegrams was that renewed civil war would be certain to result in fresh soviet aggression in Manchuria, possibly leading to the entire loss of the Chinese Eastern Railway.

In addition to his telegrams of warning Chang Hsueh-liang also mobilized a considerable force in the vicinity of Shanhaikwan, adjoining the Great Wall, leading to the belief that he intended to support Nanking against Yen-Shi-shan.

CALIFORNIA TO KEEP RAIL CLASSIFICATION

WASHINGTON, March 6. (Exclusive)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today denied the application of railroads to change freight classification on melons from California and other western States. The reclassification would not have raised the freight rates on melons but would have prevented a reduction.

GYPSY WOMEN USE HYPNOTISM

At Least That's What Teller In Bank Thinks As They Get $1000 From Him

EAST ORANGE (N. J.) March 6. (AP)—Howard Wyre, bank teller, believes he was hypnotized by two gypsy women. Changing twenty dimes into dollar bills for them he consented to have his future looked into. He was told to put his hand on a large sum of money. A gypsy placed a handkerchief over his hand, muttering.

Dazed, Wyre says, he later found that the gypsies and $1000 had vanished. He has caused an arrest.

FANCIED SICKNESS DRIVES HER TO DEATH

ONCE NOTED BEAUTY DIES IN PLUNGE

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Christine Norman, whose portrait was painted by Neysa McMein as one of the twelve most beautiful women in the United States, committed suicide early today by jumping from a window on the twentieth floor of the Hotel Warwick.

Miss Norman was one of the members of the original "Peg o' My Heart" company, and was the estranged wife of Enos S. Booth.

The suicide intent was evident in a note left to the hotel management requesting the manager to notify "Mrs. Frank Carstarphen, also notify my attorney, Arthur Garfield Hays, and the Equitable Trust Company." Six sealed letters, one of which was addressed to Booth, were found in the room.

Booth, who is a lawyer, told police that he had talked to her on the telephone recently and at that time she appeared to be in good spirits. He suggested that a fancied illness might have caused her to become despondent.

He said Miss Norman was born forty-three years ago in Cincinnati and came here to start her stage career. They were married ten years ago, the attorney said, but separated five years later.

LOBBY QUIZ DELAY IRKS G.O.P. HEAD

Claudius Huston Issues Statement Defending His Muscle Schoals Work

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Nettled over delay in getting a hearing before the Senate Lobby Committee, Claudius Huston, chairman of the Republican National Committee, issued a statement tonight through the National Committee's publicity bureau explaining his relationship to Muscle Shoals power legislation.

Huston said his name had been "systematically bandied around upon authority of the members of the Senate Lobby Committee" as a prospective witness. He complained that he had not been given an opportunity to be heard until next Tuesday to reply to testimony before the committee involving himself.

The Republican chairman said that as an officer of the Tennessee River Improvement Association he and the association had "vigorously supported the proposed lease to the American Cyanamid Company" of the Muscle Shoals property. He is a resident of Tennessee.

"I make no apologies," his statement said, "for representing the interests of my State, and I resent the attempts to connect the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee with a local, nonpartisan question."

Huston said that when he was elected chairman of the Republican National Committee he resigned his connections with the Tennessee association and had made it known to Senators McKellar and Brock, of Tennessee, that his activities in behalf of Muscle Shoals legislation must cease.

MEXICO CITY, March 6. The official opening of this road will be observed Sunday.

GRAIN DELIVERY TO BE ORDERED

Legge Confers With Hyde and White House

Stabilization Corporation Gambling Denied

Futures Contracts Will be Lived Up To

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—After conferring at the White House today with President Hoover and Secretary Hyde, Chairman Legge of the Farm Board revealed a decision of the board to call for delivery of actual grain on May futures contracts purchased by the Wheat Stabilization Corporation.

"The stabilization corporation is being accused of speculating in the grain market," he said. "There is no foundation in fact for such a statement. The corporation is prepared to, and expects, to take delivery on all grain purchased on futures contracts."

FUTURES BUYING INVOLVED

The contracts referred to were those involved in the recent purchase of May futures which, as a signal part of the board's effort to stabilize the wheat market, were generally credited here with halting the rapid succession of price drops that had forced cash wheat to $1 a bushel on the Chicago market.

The chairman purposely withheld announcement of the board's decision today until after the markets closed, explaining that he did not wish the statement to affect prices during the day's trading. He said the call for actual wheat put those who sold the futures in the position of having to go into the market, unless they already had grain in storage, and buy sufficient quantities to fulfill their contracts.

It was understood that much of the wheat was in storage now and that delivery would involve no more than its transfer to the stabilization corporation, which probably would take over the storage space along with the wheat and assume the carrying charges until market conditions made merchandising possible.

CONTRACTS FOR MAY

The original purchase of May futures has been variously estimated at from 3,000,000 to 6,000,000 bushels. The stabilization corporation is continuing the purchase of both spot and futures wheat in quantities unofficially estimated to average from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 bushels a day.

Futures purchases are all on contracts for May delivery, July wheat being considered a new crop for which the board has declined to announce plans ahead of harvest.

The chairman would not estimate how much more of the present crop would be removed from the market but said stabilization operations would continue to whatever extent required to keep prices from materially receding from current levels.

EARLY TRIAL PLEA MADE BY ORMSBY

Attorney Denies Charges of Graft at Oakland and Date Set for 24th Inst.

OAKLAND, March 6. (Exclusive) A plea of not guilty to collection of Alameda county graft money was made to Superior Judge Wood today by Cromwell L. Ormsby, Los Angeles attorney named to the Alameda county grand jury as the representative of lottery operators who paid for official protection and tip-offs on prospective raids on their illegal activities.

Ormsby, who surrendered after flying two-thirds of the way here from Miami, Fla., pleaded for an early trial, saying:

"I am representing the most important client I ever had."

The statement was construed as meaning he will defend himself when the case is called for trial. Judge Wood heeded his plea to the extent of setting the 24th inst. for trial.

Ormsby formerly was attorney for Aimee Semple McPherson.

Chief of Police Culver of Emeryville filed formal application for the office of Alameda County Sheriff, emphasizing reports Sheriff Becker will resign rather than face trial on sixteen counts of misconduct in office.

Siamese Twins Lose Decision

NEW YORK, March 6. (Exclusive)—Margaret and Mary Gibb, "Siamese twins," lost a decision to the White Star Line today when they attempted to book passage to Europe on the Majestic on a single ticket.

"We use only one bed, one steamer chair, one seat at the table and one bath," they chorused, "so why should we not pay only one fare?"

"That's very nice," the steamship agent ruled, "but although you're a solo in everything else at meal times you're a duet."

They finally bought two tickets.

OUTBREAK OF RABIES PERILS OREGON CATTLE

PORTLAND (Or.) March 6. (AP)—A sudden outbreak of rabies, declared by cattlemen to be the worst since 1915, when about $1,000,000 worth of cattle was lost in Oregon, was reported in Harney county by Elmer Williams, assistant predatory animal control leader of the United States Biological Survey, who returned here today from a survey of general conditions in that county. The Biological Survey immediately ordered two hunters to Harney county to start killing infected coyotes and dogs.

Walter Baily covered an old well with a wood cover and inserted a gas burner in it. Then he lighted the burner and it has been burning brightly for several days. This convinces us, more than ever, that Los Angeles homes could be lighted economically and well by gas if some enterprising citizen would sink a few wells and install pipe lines. Why should we be compelled to depend upon imported fuel for lighting?

...from Evening Express files 1880

A foolish dreamer they must have thought...a silly soul who believed that Los Angeles could be lighted by gas. And yet even he who covered an old well to prove it could be done would hardly visualize the Los Angeles of today whose great oil fields not only supply the city with fuel, but also ... the globe.

Did O. T. Barker see the future for his little store when first the firm of Barker and Mueller was started? Hardly, for even the most sanguine of merchants would not possibly imagine the strides between 1880 and 1930...neither could he picture the little two story building at 113-115 N. Spring Street growing into the great institution at Seventh Street, Flower and Figueroa.

And so for fifty years Barker Bros. have kept pace with the growth of Los Angeles...have progressed ... their desire to serve has won the confidence of residents old and new. Fifty years of service...appreciation of ...

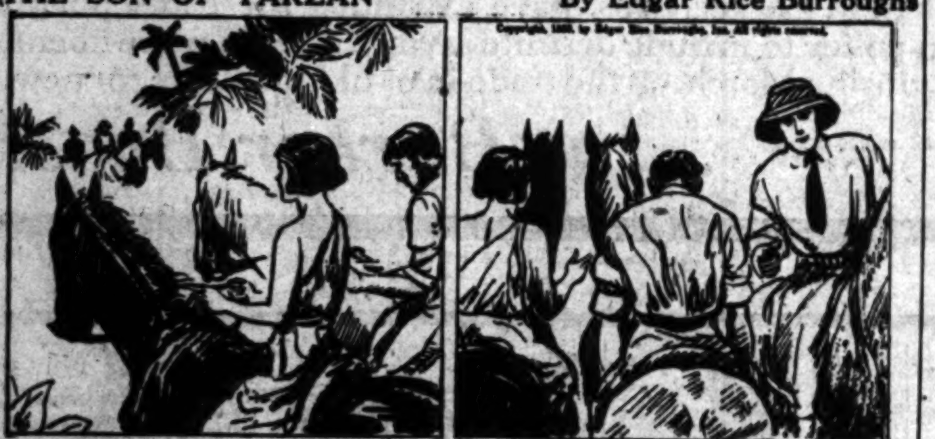
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE SON OF TARZAN

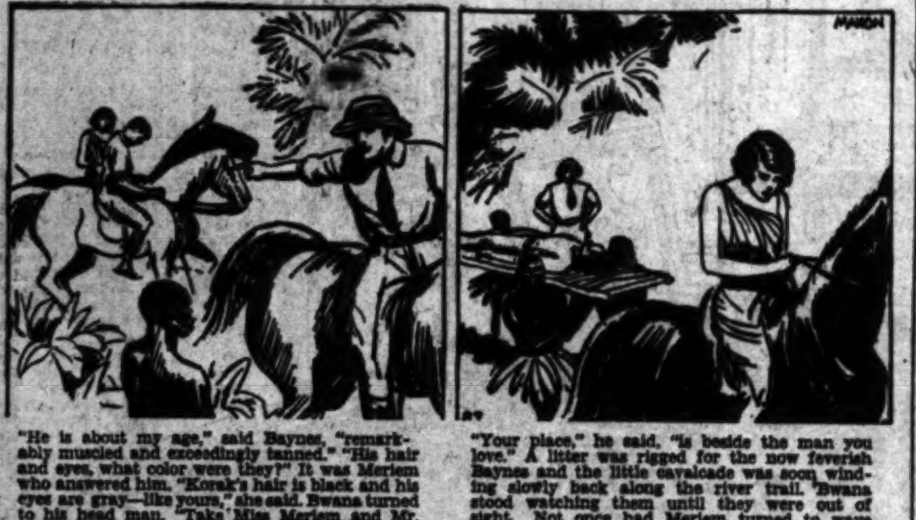
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

All that night, as Korak lay despairing because he knew the elephant could not unloose the knots that bound him, Meriem and Baynes rode north along the river. The young Englishman had been sorely wounded by one of the Arabs' shots and the two were therefore doubly anxious now to reach Bwana's home. The day was still young when they came suddenly upon a party hurrying southward. It was Bwana himself and his sleek black warriors, searching for Meriem.

At sight of Baynes the big man's brows contracted in a scowl; but he waited to hear the girl's story before giving vent to the anger long pent in his breast. But when she had finished he seemed to have forgotten Baynes. His thoughts were on another subject. "You say that you saw Korak?" he asked. "Yes," replied Meriem, "as plainly as I see you!" Still doubting, Bwana repeated his question to Baynes, asking him to describe the ape-man.



"He is about my age," said Baynes, "remarkably muscled and exceedingly tanned." "His hair and eyes, what color were they?" It was Meriem who answered him. "Korak's hair is black and his eyes are gray—like yours," she said. Bwana turned to his head man. "Take Miss Meriem and Mr. Baynes home," he said. "I am going into the jungle." "Let me go with you, Bwana," pleaded Meriem. "You are going to search for Korak—I know it." Bwana turned sadly but firmly to her.

"Your place," he said, "is beside the man you love." A litter was rigged for the now feverish Baynes and the little cavalcade was soon winding slowly back along the river trail. Bwana stood watching them until they were out of sight. Not once had Meriem turned to wave farewell. With bowed head and drooping shoulders she rode. Bwana sighed. He loved the little Arab girl as he might have loved a daughter. Slowly he turned toward a near-by tree.

HIGHEST HONOR BOY SCOUT AT FESTIVAL

Harry A. Mayeda

Through the co-operation of Frank A. Miller of the Mission Inn and the Japanese Association of Riverside, Harry A. Mayeda of Sacramento, United States' highest honor Boy Scout last year, will be the guest of the Japanese Cherry Blossom festival here on Sunday, the 30th inst. Harry will be the special guest of Miller while in Riverside. He will probably arrive at the inn on Saturday, the 29th inst., and the investiture ceremonies of the Japanese Boy Scout troop is planned for that evening in the chapel of the Mission Inn, with Harry as the speaker. Mayeda conducted his Sacramento Scouts on a good-will tour of Japan and has had an interesting career in the Boy Scout movement.

He will spend the day of the Cherry Blossom Festival as the guest of the general chairman of the festival, and if his school duties will permit, he plans to remain an extra day to speak before the Beaumont Rotary Club, together with County Scout Executive John H. Leecing, who started him in his Scouting career in Sacramento.

Miller announced that if his health will permit, he will personally attend the Beaumont festival. He is lending hearty support to the preliminary plans.

From many sources in Los Angeles there is coming support of the Cherry Blossom Festival. Chancellor Rufus B. Von KleinSmid of the University of International Relations says of the festival that "It is a fine tradition to start."

The festival is the culmination of eight months of activity of the local Rotarians in Japanese international relations, and has won national recognition here as well as in Japan. It is planned to carry this on even more extensively, but realizing that the work is too large for one club, the ten Rotary clubs of the Citrus Belt of San Bernardino and Riverside counties have been invited to participate in sponsoring and carrying on the activity and several have already responded with enthusiasm.

Then over in Germany at Old Heidelberg she saw the great celebration of the Future Carpenters' convention, a convention of 10,000 boys who are to be the "future carpenters" of Germany. They paraded and carried banners of the "reddest" sort, with inscriptions to the effect that capital will cease to rule and the workers will rule. And they sang the "Marseillaise," and when Mrs. Dentler asked why, she was told that all great revolutions have started with singing this battle hymn.

But over in England she found something to be happy about. The English people are more than ever convinced that it is absolutely essential that the United States and England, the two great English-speaking peoples, be closely united. She said England now sees the necessity of it, as in case of a war between the two countries, Canada would be neutral, without a doubt, Australia would likely be so, India would throw in with the United States, also Ireland, and perhaps Scotland, breaking up the British Empire.

NELSON CLEARED BY COURT

Former District Attorney of Orange County, Charged With Grand Theft, Held Not Guilty by Jury

SANTA ANA, March 6.—A directed verdict of not guilty, returned by a Superior Court jury here on instructions from Judge Benjamin F. Warmer of San Bernardino, today freed Alex P. Nelson, former District Attorney, of a grand theft charge. The verdict, delivered just after the court had granted a defense motion for such a verdict, came as no surprise, because Judge Warmer, in taking the motion under advisement late yesterday, indicated his belief that Nelson had, in effect, been accused of stealing from himself.

An unusual legal point raised by the court was instrumental in upsetting the prosecution and led to the decision of Judge Warmer that there was no evidence in the case to show that a criminal act had been committed. Nelson was acquitted without being required to present his defense.

Sale of property that he had assigned to the estate of Martin Epson as security to two notes that he had given to the latter formed basis of the charge that he had stolen the money, amounting to $995.

Nelson made a brief statement, declaring that he never had any doubt of the result, because he had at all times a clear conscience, but that he was immensely pleased that his exoneration had been so emphatic.

FIRE WATER GETS INDIAN IN TROUBLE

"Six Weeks' Drunk" Given by Him as Reason for Bad Check Given for Car

SANTA BARBARA, March 6.—Education has not changed the Indian much and "firewater" still gets him in trouble, thinks Police Captain David Burnam who arrested F. W. Harris, full-blooded Osage Indian oil baron from Oklahoma, for giving checks without sufficient funds in the bank to cover them.

Harris, who is now waiting trial in the County Jail, avers he receives $10,000 oil royalty every three months from the Federal government. The last check he thought he put in the bank in Los Angeles, but what bank he could not remember. Several weeks ago he came here, bought an automobile with a check and gave another check for $5000 as a down payment on a home.

He went to San Jose with his new car, where he was arrested. Questioned by Capt. Burnam, Harris declared he had been on a six-weeks' drunk, "that he did not know where his money was, that he did not know how he had taken the automobile and that when he got out of this trouble he was going to make good the payment on the Santa Barbara home and "settle down."

Theft of Device for Gas-Saving Puzzles Police

HUNTINGTON PARK, March 6. Theft of a working model of a gas-saving device, the property rights of which are valued at $100,000 by the owner, has mystified local police and an outside detective agency has been employed. The device is the property of R. J. Glasspell, and it had been kept in a safety-deposit box until yesterday when Glasspell took it home to demonstrate it to a representative of an automobile firm.

Glasspell asserted he had been offered $50,000 outright for property rights to the device, but he held out for a larger sum. It is believed the movements of Glasspell had been watched and when he and his wife left the house for an hour yesterday the thief entered with a pass key. Only the device was taken.

Charter Change Urged by Club

INGLEWOOD, March 6.—A proposed change in the form of the City Charter so that a full-time salary might be paid the Mayor was discussed at the meeting of the Inglewood Heights Development Club last night. The plan has been considered locally for some time, as the rapid growth of the city, with its attendant increase in civic activity, necessitates a change in the method of conducting the Mayorship, it is asserted locally. It was further suggested at the meeting last night that the city be divided into five wards, instead of four as at present, but no definite recommendation was made with respect to this.

Sheriff Gillett Declared Guilty

EL CENTRO, March 6.—After having the case under advisement for a week, Justice of the Peace I. Mayfield of this city decided today Sheriff Charles L. Gillett was guilty of assault as charged in a complaint signed two weeks ago by C. J. Taft of Los Angeles. Mayfield said that sentence will be announced tomorrow.

In his complaint, Taft asserted that Gillett forcibly ejected him from the Sheriff's office when the Los Angeles man went there to investigate the arrest of men accused of agitating trouble among lettuce workers in Imperial Valley.

ORDERS OF DOCTOR OBEYED, BUT NO USE

CUCAMONGA, March 6.—Richard Beckley of this city obeyed orders, but it did not do a bit of good. Richard has just recovered from scarlet fever, and his doctor warned him against participating in athletics at Chaffey Union High School until he is much stronger. But it was all right to sit on the sidelines and watch a basketball game. The ball came hurtling through the air, right straight toward Beckley. He could not resist taking a swat at it. The swat fractured a bone in his hand and again he is listed as a patient.

GAS-STATION MAN BOUND AND ROBBED

HERMOSA BEACH, March 6.—Bound hand and foot, Archie E. Smith, attendant at the Martin Service Station, 1310 Camino Real here, was robbed of $12 in money and a wrist watch last night. The bandits, both armed, were able to make their escape before Smith could free himself and notify the police.

Tricity Airport May be Planned by Committees

REDLANDS, March 6.—As a result of the conference of representatives from Redlands, San Bernardino and Colton, who met at the local Chamber of Commerce, the possibility of operating an airport to serve these cities is to be threshed out by committees of three from each of them within the near future. The tricity delegates are to meet again at the local chamber next Monday evening, in an effort to draft a definite proposition which may be submitted to the cities, to moneyed individuals and to the oil companies which may lease the property.

The conference was called by Will L. Fowler, chairman of the chamber's airport committee, and brought together earnest advocates of municipal or privately owned air fields from the three communities. Discontinuance soon of the Tricity port on Colton avenue was the prime factor in bringing about the meeting.

Redlands delegates were Luts E. Rettig, Allen Nutter, Charles G. Potter, W. L. Fowler and A. E. Isham.

Colton had G. P. McCobb, A. A. Mumbleau, M. F. Rhodes and Dr. E. E. Helsby.

Modernizing of Ross Field Will Cost $150,000

ARCADIA, March 6.—Transfer of the California National Guard aviation unit, now stationed at Griffith Park, to Ross Field, will require the expenditure of more than $100,000 to modernize the local airport, it was revealed today by Capt. D. E. McDaneld, secretary of the National Aeronautical Association.

"The National Guard unit is composed of more than 100 men, including a Regular Army instructor, two sergeants and five enlisted men on detached duty from the Regular Army," McDaneld asserted.

"The squadron of ships used by the guard includes nine training planes, one observation ship, a pursuit plane and miscellaneous equipment," he added.

Present plans stipulate that Ross Field be converted into a first-class government flying field, which, according to McDaneld, will entail an expenditure of between $100,000 and $150,000.

Authorization to call for bids for razing the barracks and other abandoned buildings has been received from Washington by Capt. Ewing, now stationed at San Pedro. New hangars will be erected, and a long landing and take-off course is to be provided for use of the Guardsmen.

EL SEGUNDO SECURES BLOCK FOR CITY PARK

EL SEGUNDO, March 6.—Purchase of a block of ground at Richmond and Main streets here, adjoining the high school, for municipal park purposes was completed yesterday. The site, acquired by the city at a sum of approximately $29,000, comprises about three acres and formerly was owned by the high school and the elementary school districts. The purchase was made from the city general fund.

TRADUCERS OF CHAFFEY TO BE MET

Mass Meeting Called for 21st Inst. to Refute All Attacks on Administration

ONTARIO, March 6.—Attacks and insinuations that have been hurled at Chaffey Union High School and Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal, by opponents of the School Board, will be met at a mass meeting in Chaffey Auditorium Friday evening, the 21st inst., by a group of citizens who have called a mass meeting in defense of the schools.

The "Progressives" met at the Hot Point clubhouse last night to organize, but so many members of the Taxpayers' League, which has been opposing the school's expansion plans, were present, that a definite organization was not effected. It is assumed the organization will be completed by the 21st inst.

Last night's meeting was called by C. Burton Thrall and H. A. Cramer, local civic leaders, as an aftermath of last week's school bond election which was defeated.

F. A. Lucas, leading opponent to Chaffey's program and to Dr. Hill, took the floor shortly after the meeting was called, and attacked Chaffey school finances. His charges were immediately denied by Assemblyman Isaac Jones, James G. Gaianis, Dr. J. H. Titus, former Mayor W. D. Ball and H. W. Staffeld. A mass of statistical data was showered upon Lucas, tending to uphold the policies of the school system.

Dr. A. L. Weber and J. C. Jones, present members of Chaffey board, will conclude their terms of office this year. The gathering last night was of the opinion Weber and Jones should succeed themselves in the election the 28th inst. Lucas and the Taxpayers' League members have advocated a "house cleaning" at Chaffey. Lucas has also advocated that Fontana withdraw from Chaffey district. The speakers last night declared it would be to Fontana's benefit for it to remain in Chaffey district.

The "Progressives" intimated that Dr. C. L. Emmons and N. H. Garrison, present members of the City Council, should succeed themselves at the April 14 election. The Taxpayers' League is understood to have three candidates in the field for the Council race.

Dr. Hill will be principal speaker at the Friday night mass meeting.

Parents Blamed for Children's Jazzy Tendency

VAN NUYS, March 6.—U. S. Atty. Samuel W. McNabb was principal speaker at the Van Nuys Rotary Club luncheon yesterday, the subject of the address being "Crime Conditions in Southern California." W. E. Westland acted as chairman of the day.

Mr. McNabb stated that the loose manner in which American parents respected the traffic and prohibition laws of the country was partly responsible for the "jazzy tendencies" of modern youth.

"In directing youth," he said, "example often is much better than precept. Unfortunately for youth, nowadays, there is neither precept nor example to go by. The present topsy-turvy system of misbehavior almost everywhere will continue just as long as mothers and fathers don't seem to have any better sense of decorum than the adolescents they are trying to raise."

Reserve Leaders Hear Lecture

LONG BEACH, March 6.—Leaders of Girl Reserve clubs of Long Beach, Santa Ana, Fullerton and San Pedro gathered at the Long Beach Y.W.C.A. last night to hear the first of a series of four lectures by Dr. Bessie A. McClenahan, associate professor of sociology at the University of Southern California, who spoke on the aims and purposes of Girl Reserve organizations.

The course has been arranged for the purpose of acquainting leaders with the various problems concerning club work and will be continued each Thursday evening during the month of March. Dr. McClenahan has appeared before the local organization on several previous occasions, having conducted a similar course here last fall. She has charge of training student leaders in community work who are registered in the school of social welfare at the Trojan institution.

Social psychology of adolescence, problems of individual girls in each club and the solution of such problems are among the various phases of Girl Reserve work that will be discussed during the three remaining lectures.

LEGION GIVEN ART DISPLAY

Nine Framed Camera Studies of National Park Views Bestowed on Pasadena Post by Mode Wineman

PASADENA, March 6.—With the presentation of nine framed camera studies by Mode Wineman, Pasadena Post, No. 13, American Legion, has the finest collection of National Park classics in the United States outside museum exhibits.

"These studies, which look more like etchings than photographs, represent the finest work of the nationally known camera-artist's career," asserted Adjt. Robert M. McCurdy, in announcing Wineman's gift at the Legion's meeting last night.

"Mr. Wineman's work is entirely nonmercenary and we feel that a great distinction has been conferred on our organization in view of the fact that we now have the choicest collection of Wineman studies that exists outside the White House and museums," McCurdy added.

The donor declined personally to attend the unveiling of the pictures at last night's meeting. He supervised the hanging of the studies which now cover the north wall of the Legion's hall at 131 North Marengo avenue.

"Mr. Wineman told me," said Adjt. McCurdy, "that he wished to do something to show his appreciation for the work the Legion is doing for disabled veterans."

The local Legion extends an invitation to the public to inspect its prized Wineman collection at any time.

TIGER CUB'S CLAWS GROWING

It won't be long now before Mrs. Belle J. Benchley of San Diego will have to stop being so friendly with this young tiger cub. He's 3 months of age now, and Mrs. Benchley has discovered that his teeth and claws rapidly are getting into shape for efficient use. Mrs. Benchley is an executive of the Zo-ological Society of San Diego.

Town of Roscoe in Valley Area Renamed Boeing

ROSCOE, March 6.—Mrs. Gertrude Leavens, postmistress here, today is in receipt of a telegram from the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C., stating that the name of this station has been changed to Boeing.

Residents here are planning to celebrate the change. For some time they have wanted the name Roscoe discontinued because it has long been associated with gravel pits and rock-crushing plants in the community.

Six Candidates Out for Council

HUNTINGTON PARK, March 6. Six candidates are now in the race for the City Council, seeking to fill the three vacancies which will occur in April, the latest candidates to make announcements being W. H. Guest, R. W. Ward and Grover G. Dunford. They have the support of the Citizens' League. Guest is a druggist of this district and president of the Rotary Club; Ward is auditor and director of the Madsen Iron Works and a member of the Kiwanis Club and Dunford is president of the Inland Manufacturing Company, located in the Central Manufacturing District, and is also a member of the Kiwanis Club.

Councilman John C. Flick, Earl Byers and Charles Hedgecock have recently announced their names as candidates, having the support of the City Club.

Dr. Wilson Dies on Eve of Trip

PASADENA, March 6.—Three days before he was scheduled to start for this city to visit relatives, Dr. Andrew W. Wilson, president and founder of the Kiskiminetas School, Saltsburg, Pa., contracted an illness which caused his death Monday, it was learned today.

Dr. Wilson, a former Princeton University athlete, planned to visit his two sisters, Mrs. George R. Stewart and Mrs. Stacy H. Smith, both of this city, and his brother, J. Dick Wilson of Santa Ana. He was an uncle of Andrew W. Stewart, head of Andrew W. Stewart & Co., local brokerage firm.

Kiskiminetas School was founded by Dr. Wilson in 1888 and numbers more than 500 Southern Californians among its alumni.

TRUCK GROWERS SEEK BETTER TRADE STATUS

RESEDA, March 6.—Truck growers from all parts of San Fernando Valley met in convention here in the Reseda Elementary School to discuss the outlook of the valley's crops for the coming year.

S. O. Houghton, one of the largest asparagus growers in California presided. Earl McHarg, executive secretary of the County Farm Bureau, talked on the present method of marketing vegetables, touched on the Commission Merchants' Product Act, and suggested a number of plans for the improvement of marketing conditions. F. H. Ernst, a county farm adviser, explained the use of the best fertilizers for various sorts of soil.

Amateur Play Actors to Form Van Nuys Club

VAN NUYS, March 6.—Following the success of the Community Sing Organization here, plans are afoot to organize in conjunction a Community Players' Association similar to the one which for several years has met with such success at Pasadena.

The best of histrionic talent is being invited to join the players as charter members. John Corrigan and Alan Post, professionals with stage experience, have been engaged to complete the organization and direct the first three-act play. Corrigan for a number of years served as a stage director in Portland and San Francisco.

Valley Bridge Contract Let

VAN NUYS, March 6.—The contract for the long-delayed Kester-avenue bridge over Los Angeles River, which will link up the north and south paved ends of the thoroughfare, was awarded yesterday by the Board of Public Works to E. S. Johnson, and work will start in about two weeks.

The bridge will be a 100-foot steel span twenty-four feet wide, with a four-foot sidewalk on one side. Completion of the bridge will open up a new major north and south highway in the Van Nuys district. Kester avenue has been paved for some time. Lack of the bridge has kept it from being used as a through traffic artery.

AIR RACE SCHEDULED AT VAN NUYS SUNDAY

VAN NUYS, March 6.—There will be a series of airplane races at the Metropolitan Airport northwest of here on Sunday, it is announced today by Waldo D. Waterman, general manager of the airport. The principal event will be an invitational race. Contestants will fly six times around a new ten-kilometer triangular course. Among the participants will be Lieut. Howard F. Murchie in a Great Lakes machine; J. B. Alexander, in a Fairchild; H. L. Burkhard, in a Great Lakes; Roy T. Minor, in a Fleet, and Lee Brusse in a Fleet. Four or five more aviators are expected to take part. The contest, it is stated, will be between Alexander and Murchie, each claiming to have the fastest ship. Races at the airport usually bring out crowds of several thousands.

INJUNCTION ON DRILLING GIVEN

Superior Court Temporarily Enjoins Montecito Well

Third Legal Attempt Made to Halt Operations

Oil Company, Others Made Defendants in New Suit

SANTA BARBARA, March 6.—A temporary injunction was granted by Judge S. E. Crow to halt drilling operations on the Meyer No. 1 well within the exclusive residential district of Montecito, Santa Barbara's millionaire colony, pending a hearing on the suit brought by the county to declare the well a nuisance and fire hazard. The suit was set for hearing Thursday, the 13th inst. at 2 p.m. in Superior Court.

This is the third legal attempt to stop drilling of Meyer No. 1, the first two being criminal cases charging violation of the Montecito zoning ordinance and the special ordinance prohibiting drilling in Montecito which the county lost.

The Lincoln Drilling Company, Mrs. Elena Meyer and W. D. Inskeep, asserted holder of the oil lease, are made defendants in the new suit. The basis for the new action is the recently enacted ordinance requiring oil operators to apply for a drilling permit before a well is started within 1500 feet of a building structure. It is asserted in the new suit that the well is within 800 feet of a frame dwelling and that within 1500 feet of the Meyer No. 1 there are six fine residences. It is said that the fine homes, the Santa Barbara National Forest and the immediately surrounding wooded country is endangered from fire by the oil well.

An oil well in the community, in addition to being a fire hazard, destroys the peace and quiet of the community and creates odors and debris which will destroy the attractions of the district, it is contended.

Practically all of the homes in the district are occupied the year around by residents desiring to enjoy the peace and calm and quiet and comfort for which the territory has for more than fifty years been known the world over, the complaint sets forth.

It is further pointed out in the complaint for a permanent injunction that the well is located near the beach, fine hotels, the polo grounds and golf and country club, all valuable attractions of Montecito.

Huge Production of Lettuce in Imperial Valley

BRAWLEY, March 6.—Lettuce shipments from Imperial Valley for the season passed the 10,000-car mark yesterday and with the end of the harvest still a month away, predictions were being made today that the total output would exceed 15,000 carloads.

The Clearinghouse Association, operated by voluntary agreement among the shippers, has been attempting to keep the output down to 250 cars a day with no shipments on Saturdays and Sundays. Actual consignments, however, range from 250 to 270 cars, the excess output being due to the fact that not all growers are in the association.

In spite of the curtailment the shippers state that the current market price of $1.10 a crate at the sheds here is below the cost of production.

El Centro Fire Causes Loss of $15,000 There

EL CENTRO, March 6.—Fire which started from a gasoline stove in the H. C. Diller Hardware store at 609 Main street at 9 a.m. today caused a loss estimated at $15,000 to the Diller and Valley Auto Supply stores.

Fanned by a high wind the flames became so menacing that an emergency call was sent to the Calexico Fire Department for help. The border city truck responded but by the time it had covered the twelve miles between the two communities the flames were under control.

Only the presence of a heavy fire wall prevented the flames from spreading to the Bank of Italy Building which adjoins the burned structures.

BANKER TAKEN TO PRISON

SAN DIEGO, March 6.—In custody of Deputy United States Marshal J. Keno Wilson, Herbert E. Anthony, former Bank of Italy official here, left here early today to start serving a three-year sentence at the McNeill Island Penitentiary. Anthony was sentenced a week ago Friday by Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick, after pleading guilty to two counts of embezzlement of bank funds, Judge McCormick also giving the ex-banker a five-year sentence in the penitentiary on four counts of misapplication of funds, this sentence being suspended for a period of five years on condition that Anthony make restitution in an amount approximating $100,000.

After making a report indicating a shortage of $24,000 in the W. W. Whitney estate funds, Anthony yesterday was formally removed as co-trustee of the estate. Judge Spencer M. Marsh, acting upon suggestion of counsel, set the 24th inst., as the date for a continuation of the hearing and for the settlement of the estate and the discharge of Anthony.

Judge Marsh ruled that on that date George Burnham, other trustee of the estate, must make a supplemental account, supplementing an account he has prepared up to December 31.

It was brought out at yesterday's hearing that the Bank of Italy had replaced the $24,000. In a signed statement, prepared by Anthony's attorney, Clarence Hardin, Anthony was declared to be entirely responsible for the shortage, Hardin declaring in the statement that Anthony makes no assertion whatsoever of any misconduct on the part of Burnham.

FINANCIAL

UNITED STATES RUBBER GAINING

Loss Shown in 1928 Report $10,781,000

Postal Telegraph and Cable Earnings Up

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—The United States Rubber Company, which has suffered severely from the disturbances in the crude rubber market in recent years, shows a deficit for 1929 of $3,378,412, in its annual report today, contrasted with a net loss of $10,781,000 in 1928.

Losses of inventories during the year were but a fraction of those of the previous year, but the company experienced extraordinary expenditures incident to the internal reorganization instituted during the year when control passed to the Du Pont interests. The loss on inventories was only $2,721,326 compared with an inventory adjustment of $15,038,304 in 1928.

PLANTS CLOSED

Six factories were closed during the year and plans are under way to continue the concentration of the manufacturing and distributing operations. All projected improvements have not been completed, and unusual expense incident to them will continue in 1930, the report states. These extraordinary expenses in 1929 amounted to $2,464,000.

Net sales for the year were $192,962,040, as slightly reduced from $193,480,121 in the previous year. Sales of tires were larger in volume but less in dollar value, owing to lower prices, while sale of other products increased in both volume and value. Cash on hand December 31 was $16,799,826, as increased from $14,422,032 a year previously.

The consolidated 1929 net income of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Corporation, controlled by the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, amounted to $2,972,671, equal to $9.73 a share on the preferred stock. These earnings compare with $2,232,163, or $7.88 a preferred share, in 1928.

R.-K.-O. REPORTS

The report of the Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation, organized in November, 1928, for the calendar year of 1929 shows net profit of $1,114,529. This contrasts with net loss of $1,180,570 for the constituent companies in 1928. Profits from sale of capital assets are not included in either year. Without considering this item, which last year amounted to $525,035, the corporation's earnings on the Class A stock amounted to about 61 cents a share.

Yellow Truck and Coach Manufacturing Company had 1929 net profit from operations of $1,177,799 after depreciation and income taxes. Addition of surplus adjustments of $750,167 applicable to prior years to 1929 income gave a total of $1,927,966, the amount carried to surplus. The company lost $1,104,411 in 1928.

February Ford Car Output Up

PROFITS OF MAJOR OIL UNIT JUMP

CHICAGO, March 6. (Exclusive) Net profits in 1929 of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana amounted to $78,499,754 after all charges including taxes, equal to $5.37 a share on the average number of shares outstanding during the year, or $4.65 a share on the 16,850,587 shares outstanding December 31, last, Edward G. Seubert, president, announced today.

These earnings compare with net profits of $77,337,166 reported for 1928, which included an extra cash dividend of $21,821,870 from the Midwest Refining Company, and represent an increase of more than $1,160,000. In 1929 the company received an extra cash dividend from the Midwest Refining of only $3,118,065.

Earnings per share of $5.37 compare with $8.33 a share on 8,294,668 shares outstanding December 31, 1928, which was before the 50 per cent stock dividend. After paying $47,482,855 cash and $116,232,119 in stock dividends and allowing for $80,575 surplus adjustment debit, profit and loss surplus was decreased $85,295,795 to $71,181,153.

In regard to the purchase of Pan American Petroleum & Transport Company shares, the balance sheet reveals that 81 per cent of the outstanding Pan American stock was owned by Standard at the close of the year. Capital surplus was increased from $72,862,644 during the year to $156,144,598. Current assets totaled $191,828,981, of which $122,692,246 was cash or the equivalent. Current liabilities totaled $48,444,029.

REFINERY PLAN APPLAUDED

New Interest in Oil Shares Generated by News of Program to Curtail Gasoline Production

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Alignment of the petroleum industry behind the principle of curtailment as applied to the operation of refineries was warmly applauded yesterday by many large holders of oil shares. Speculators in oils also were disposed to take a new interest in this group, and predictions were heard that the ground has been laid for a spirited demonstration to reflect the anticipated improvement in the status of the industry.

Substantial progress already has been made in the shutting back of crude-oil production, particularly in California. With refiners agreeing to reduce the production of gasoline to conform to the current demand, there is nothing more ahead of the industry but to hew to the line. Stabilization at last is in prospect for the crude-oil and gasoline markets. Two months ago the possibility was remote.

BASIS EXISTS

As soon as the stock market is convinced the industry is sincere in its effort to adjust the supplies of crude oil and gasoline to demand, it is not unlikely that the long dormant bull market in oils will materialize. This prophecy has been made before in many quarters, but this time a genuine basis exists. It remains for the industry to make good on its promises.

If refiners throughout the country go on a six-day basis of operation or reduce production by one-seventh, the next few months should disclose material decreases in gasoline stocks. Adjustment of daily runs to refineries in accordance with the current demand for gasoline will prevent further diversion to storage, and permit refiners to draw on storage for bulk shipments or other new business.

California storage of gasoline at the end of January totaled 17,799,026 barrels, an increase of 5,741,700 barrels over the previous year. The increase over December, 1929, was 1,367,000 barrels in one month's time. These increasing stocks have weighed heavily on the gasoline market and have been productive of much of the price-cutting and unethical practices in the marketing of the product.

STABILIZATION KEY

Successful operation of a stabilization program is the sure road to building up consistent earnings. The oil business has been one of feast or famine, mostly the latter in the past few years. Fluctuating earnings have gradually discouraged both investment and speculative interest and today the oil shares are the dogs of the stock market.

Never before has the industry even approached a simultaneous regulation of its production of crude-oil and gasoline. Intermittent regulation of crude-oil output or a brief respite between the decline of one flush field and the bringing in of a new one, have inaugurated brief periods of prosperity and rising stock prices. But these intervals have been altogether too short-lived in the last several years.

Most of the major refiners in California and elsewhere throughout the country have indicated their intention of complying with the curtailment schedule. This willingness to co-operate is virtual assurance of success, since the smaller refiners are not so much of a factor as the smaller producers of crude oil.

Net Earnings of Milnor, Inc., Point Higher

Net profits of Milnor, Inc., for the first nine months of its fiscal year covering the period from June 1 to February 28, last, amounted to $152,118 after all charges except Federal taxes, against $128,750 for the corresponding period last year, an increase of $23,368, or 18.1 per cent, N. F. Milnor, president, announced yesterday.

Mr. Milnor pointed out that the company will show earnings for its full fiscal year equivalent to more than $2 a share on its 100,000 shares outstanding, provided the company's earnings continue at the same rate as for the last three months, ended February 28.

Volume of business for the last three months ended February 28, last, he said, was the largest in the history of the company for any similar three months' period. This was accomplished without resort to special sales or price-cutting tactics and is more significant, he said, when this period was generally conceded to be the poorest of any similar period in the past six years.

The Union Oil Company of California announced yesterday a reduction of crude oil runs to stills of one-seventh the present runs. In instituting this curtailment, according to the company's announcement, the refineries will conform, in results achieved, with the suggestion made by the Federal Oil Conservation Board by operating on a reduced throughput basis until such time as the present stocks of gasoline have been reduced to the requirements of the industry.

BRAKE MERGER DEAL CARRIED

Bendix to Acquire Control of Hydraulic Company

Stockholders Favor Offer on Exchange Basis

Transfer Involves Six-for-Five-Share Deposit

Stockholders of the Hydraulic Brake Associates, Ltd., meeting yesterday morning, and of the Hydraulic Brake Company, meeting in the afternoon, unanimously accepted a proposal from the Bendix Aviation Corporation to exchange their shares for the Bendix stock on the basis of six Hydraulic for five Bendix.

W. E. Bintliff, vice-president and secretary of the Hydraulic Brake Company, who made the announcement, stated that more than two-thirds of the outstanding stock of the associates was represented at the meeting in the morning and that 66 2-3 per cent of the Hydraulic Brake Company stock was represented at the afternoon meeting.

DEPOSIT REQUIRED

The merger proposal, which is between the stockholders of the Hydraulic companies themselves and not the corporation as a separate entity, requires that two-thirds of the stock of the brake company shall be deposited in escrow with the Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles on or before the 20th inst.

Hydraulic Brake Company is the operating company owning the patents to the Lockheed hydraulic brake for automobiles, while Hydraulic Brake Associated, Ltd., is an association of stockholders of the brake company reputed to hold approximately 60 per cent of the stock of the operating company.

REGULAR DECLARED

Directors of the Hydraulic Brake Company and directors of the Associates company met after the stockholders' meetings and each declared the regular quarterly dividends of $1 a share payable April 1 to stock of record the 13th inst.

It was pointed out at the meetings that stockholders who deposit their shares under the agreement will not only be eligible for the Hydraulic dividends just declared, but will also receive the regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share payable on the Bendix stock April 1. This dividend is payable to stockholders of record the 10th inst.

It is understood the annual report of the Hydraulic Brake Company, expected to be released within the next few days, will show earnings equivalent to slightly more than the $7.09 a share reported last year, even though a larger number of shares is now outstanding. A 20 per cent stock dividend was declared last September.

Lockheed hydraulic brakes are part of the equipment used by 113 automotive vehicle manufacturers in the United States. A subsidiary of the Bendix Aviation Corporation manufactures a mechanical automotive brake used largely by General Motors Corporation, which is a large stockholder in the Bendix Aviation Corporation. The brake division of Bendix also recently formed a new brake company jointly with the Westinghouse Air Brake Company.

Bendix Aviation Corporation is a $150,000,000 corporation comprising some twelve subsidiaries engaged in the manufacture of aviation parts and instruments, motors, magnetos, starters, brakes, carburetors, etc.

RIFT IN FOX RANKS SERIOUS

Break of Film Magnate With Group of Old Associates in Financial Tangle Viewed as Ominous

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

NEW YORK, March 6.—This is the unfortunate part of the Fox Film Corporation dispute. No matter how the financial tangle is met, Mr. Fox and his former associates are at loggerheads today. William Fox advocates a certain plan which his associates of former days violently oppose. The plan offered by the Bancamerica-Blair Corporation is opposed by four of Fox's vice-presidents—Winfield R. Sheehan, Saul E. Rogers, C. P. Sheehan and John Zanft, as well as by James R. Granger, general sales manager.

These men hold that the plan submitted by Halsey, Stuart & Co. is more advantageous by $31,850,000 in cash. Mr. Fox disputes this.

Naturally feeling has been aroused. The old spirit that has built the organization to what it is—a leader in its field—has gone. Mr. Fox or his former close associates must give way. It is doubtful if they can ever work together again in friendly business co-operation.

Money is very important to Mr. Fox now, but not any more important than men. This is the sad part of the present struggle in Wall street for the control of this vast enterprise.

The Federation of British Industries wants an imperial trade conference, including all the dominions as well as the British Isles, called immediately.

British industry sees the growing power of the United States exports, coupled with the fact that the dominions are now securing a large part of the export trade which the British Isles formerly had.

"At present the United States exports only 8 per cent of her total production," says the federation's report to British business men. "If she were to increase this by only 1 per cent., this would represent an increased export of $330,000,000—equivalent approximately to 10 per cent of the total British exports, which would mean additional heavy competition for British industry in the world markets."

While the federation looks at Lord Beaverbrook's empire free-trade campaign as an ideal to look forward to, the federation thinks it cannot for many years be more than a vision.

"But the next ten years will see a much closer business unification of the British Empire than the last fifty," says a British business man sojourning in the United States at the present time.

J. C. Penney, successful merchandiser, attributes his success almost entirely to the leadership set-up within his own organization. He says:

"To develop a successful organization three factors in the personnel must always be included: First, every manager must have a pleasing personality. I can tell when I meet a person whether that person is the type, for without it we can do nothing. But if one has it, then the second thing is to give that person responsibility. Most corporations stop here. I think a third element, however, must be added to maintain and strengthen an organization. That third factor is to allow the individual to share liberally in the profits which he himself helps to create."

This policy has enabled J. C. Penney in twenty-eight years to build up one of the largest institutions of its kind in the history of business. It is known as an organization full of aggressive leaders each particularly loyal to the group. For good will in business personnel is indispensable to success.

Investor Trust of Los Angeles in New Control

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (Exclusive)—Pacific Associates has purchased the Investors Associates, Inc., a $200,000 Los Angeles investment trust company, De Lancey Lewis, president, announced today.

The assets of the southern investment company, consisting of a diversified list of seasoned stocks, were acquired through cash payment, purchase price being based on the market value of securities. While full details of the transaction are not known, it is declared to be a highly advantageous move for the San Francisco company. In addition to building up its portfolio, Pacific Associates also materially increases its list of stockholders.

Stockholders in Investors Associates favored the deal, it was said, because they felt the $3,248,000 San Francisco organization offered greater possibilities for profitable investment of its funds.

Investors Associates, like Pacific Associates, followed an investment policy of placing a portion of its funds in New York Stock Exchange securities and a part in western issues. Like Pacific Associates, the Los Angeles company is known to have its principal western investments in the Pacific Mutual group of issues, which includes Pacific Finance, Pacific Mutual Life, Gladding McBean and others.

While Pacific Associates has not issued a report on its operations during the first two months of 1930, President Lewis declared they were highly satisfactory and that substantial profits were made. It is known the company has been accumulating American Telephone and Telegraph and Waialua Agricultural and now has a large investment in both companies.

National Grain Corporation to Support Market

CHICAGO, March 6. (AP) — The Farmers' National Grain Corporation and its ally, the grain Stabilization Corporation, are supporting both the cash and futures wheat markets, W. G. Kellogg, general manager of the grain corporation, made known today in outlining the policy of the two Federally controlled grain agencies.

Kellogg, replying to an inquiry from a Minneapolis miller regarding the policy of the grain corporation, said: "It is our intention to support both the cash and futures wheat markets. Mills can continue to sell flour as safely as they did in the past."

The grain corporation now is buying at the market price rather than paying the loan value fixed by the Farm Board, which policy was abrogated last week.

Banks Cut Rates on Acceptances

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—As a further step in the cheapening of credit, which began with crash of the stock market last November, leading bankers and acceptance dealers today reduced their rates one-eighth of 1 per cent, the third such reduction in three days.

The new rates for thirty to 120-day bills are 3 3-8 per cent asked, and 3½ per cent for 150 to 180 days. The decline in acceptance rates, together with the cutting of the Bank of England rate from 4½ to 4 per cent today, leads Wall street to look for a reduction of the New York Federal Reserve Bank rediscount rate from 4 to 3 3-4 or 3½ per cent, either this week or next.

COPPER BOOKINGS UP IN FEBRUARY

Bookings of copper mills during February were unexpectedly good showing that the wire mills, the largest users of the metal, booked orders for 85 per cent of their averages for all of last year, which was one of the best in the history of the business, according to a report issued yesterday by Anderson & Fox, members of the New York and San Francisco stock exchanges. Brass mill bookings were slightly less. Demand for immediate delivery of the metal indicates that consumers are without stocks, according to the report.

SIMMONS COMPANY SALES POINT UP

NEW YORK, March 6. (Exclusive)—Simmons Company and subsidiaries today reported February sales of $3,775,872 as against $3,483,452 in February last year, an increase of 8.39 per cent. Sales for the first two months of this year were $6,823,603 as against $6,287,706 in the 1929 period, up 8.52 per cent.

PAY ROLL INCREASES

TOLEDO, March 6. (Exclusive)—More than 1000 workers are to be added this spring by Spicer Manufacturing Company, it was announced today by R. E. Carpenter, general manager, who said that the local plant is now employing 1300.

NEW BANK DIRECTORS

NEW YORK, March 6. (Exclusive) Bank of America, N.A., today announced the election of Robert Law and William Dewey Loucks to the board of directors.

YOUR INCOME TAX

NO. 27

The cost of capital assets, such as building and machinery, less depreciation and salvage, may be deducted from gross income if their use in business suddenly is terminated.

Usually such assets must be sold or otherwise disposed of, in order to claim a loss. However, there is an exception. If, for example, property has been discarded by reason of some unforeseen cause, such as change in the manufacture of a product to which machinery is especially devoted, or where new legislation makes the continued profitable use of the property impossible, the taxpayer need not have parted permanently with the property in order to claim a loss. But if use of property was abandoned because of depreciation or obsolescence, the taxpayer must have parted permanently with it if a loss is claimed.

Loss due to the voluntary removal or demolition of old buildings, the scrapping of old machinery, equipment, etc., due to renewals or replacements, is deductible. But if a taxpayer buys, as the site of a new building, land upon which an old building is located, demolition of the old building is not considered a loss and therefore is not deductible. The value of the real estate, exclusive of the old improvements, is presumed to be equal to the purchase price of the land and building, plus the cost of removing the useless building.

INSURANCE OFFICER TO ADDRESS CLASS

Edward M. McMahon, life insurance trust officer of the Equitable Trust Company, will next Monday afternoon address the second of a series of classes conducted by the California Trust Company for life underwriters and trust executives. He will speak on the "Equitable Plan." A group of California life underwriters is participating with the California Trust Company in its lecture series.

CURTISS-WRIGHT GETS NAVY ENGINE ORDER

NEW YORK, March 6. (Exclusive) Wright Aeronautical Corporation, subsidiary of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, has been awarded a contract by the Navy for seventy-two Cyclone engines and spare parts. Total value of the order is approximately $600,000. The engine is a new series nine-cylinder 575-horsepower Cyclone.

YOU CAN OBTAIN
Wholly Tax-Exempt

MANY investors are still under the impression that to secure complete exemption from Federal Income Tax and Personal Property Tax, one must accept a yield of 4% to 4½%. Such, however, is not the case. Assignments of Ownership in California municipal improvement bonds executed by the District Bond Company offer a full 6% income, completely tax-free in the opinion of counsel, with the convenience of serial maturities and even $100, $500 and $1,000 denominations.

These Assignments convey actual title to an equal amount of selected California municipal improvement bonds which are deposited with a Trustee. Bonds are direct liens ranking prior to all present or future mortgages on specific properties valued at many times the amount of the bond. Furthermore, payment of principal and interest on the deposited bonds is unconditionally guaranteed by the District Bond Company.

The investor with an income of $25,000 per year from these Assignments is receiving the equivalent of over 6.80% on taxable bonds. With an income of over $100,000 he is receiving the equivalent of approximately 8%. In the case of the corporation paying a flat tax rate of 11% per annum, these Certificates would yield the equivalent of 6.74%.

The many interesting features of these Assignments are explained in detail in our booklet, "6 advantages," which will be gladly sent to you. Phone FAber 3211 or use the coupon below.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Security Prices Again React After Early Strength, and Close in Mixed Fashion

While the petroleum issues continued to hold the dominant interest on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday the list closed in an irregular fashion after bounding up earlier in line with the stand taken by the California companies favorable to the six-day refining program. The balance of the market also fluctuated in an uneven manner with closing price changes fractional for the most part.

Claude Neon Electrical Products, on a revival of speculative activity, led the turnover with sales of 4400 shares, under which the stock was run up 1½ points to a high and close for the day at 43½. Hydraulic Drake, following announcement in the morning that more than two-thirds of the Hydraulic Brake Associates stockholders had unanimously voted to accept the Bendix offer, sold up 2½ points to 38 and closed at 37.

Richfield was the most active oil issue and on a turnover of 3500 shares shot up to a high at 25 5-8, only to react to a close at 24½, off 3-8 net. Rio Grande, after reaching 19 3-4, ended at 19½, off 1-8, and Standard of California closed up 1-4 net to 60, after touching 61 earlier. Union, after selling at 43½, dropped back to 42½, off 1-4 net, and Union Associates ended at 41½, off ½ net after reaching 42 1-4. Pacific Western eased 1-4 to 13 3-4. Signal Oil and Gas spurted 2 points to 30.

Transamerica Corporation, after early strength, closed off 1-8 net to 44 7-8, while Security-First National Bank advanced a point to 117 3-4. Southern California Edison, on relatively light sales, yielded 3-8 to 60 3-8, and the rights dipped 5 cents to 3.45.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—A renewal of liquidation and more or less general selling which appeared to be partly for southern account sent futures prices crashing approximately $2 per bale in the cotton market today. May contracts broke to 14.36, or 39 points net lower and 182 points below the high level touched on the mid-February advance, but offerings tapered off at this figure, while the market seemed to be attracting considerable trade demand and covering.

Trading later was less active, but the tone was steadier, and buying for a rally was probably promoted by the better turn in wheat. More than half the early losses were recovered with the midafternoon market comparatively quiet at net declines of 12 to 19 points.

Excellent Record of Progress

THE Kinner Airplane and Motor Corporation continues to show substantial progress, with excellent prospects for future development. The company now ranks third in the United States as an airplane engine manufacturer, and is the largest producer in the country of 100 h. p. engines.

A new Kinner development offering great possibilities is a 190 h. p. engine... the only five cylinder engine made in the United States developing this horsepower. Production on this unit is now underway. Announcement is also expected soon of another new Kinner engine, on which factory tests have already been completed.

METAL MARKET

CLEVELAND, March 6. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Structural shape lettings have fallen off and while demand still is dull, some mills are in need of additional tonnage. Small tonnages of concrete reinforcing bars are being placed, but the aggregate tonnage is not imposing. March sales, however, are expected to top those in February.

Efforts to stabilize the unsettled situation in the warehouse market at various points is resulting in some revision of prices at New York, for instance, blue annealed sheets have been cut while at Chicago new differentials have been adopted.

New pig iron business continues in small lots and signs of a buoying movement still are lacking. Consumers show no tendency to order beyond current requirements and recent business has been made up almost entirely of small lots.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—An unusual easing in money rates was accompanied by a substantial buying movement in high-grade bonds today. So far as seasoned investment issues were concerned, it was the most active market session of the year and the volume of nearly $14,000,000 has been exceeded only once since January 1, that exception was accounted for by heavy trading in a single convertible.

The Bank of England reduced its discount rate to 4 per cent. The New York Federal Reserve announced the buying rate on acceptances had been set at 3½ per cent. Leading dealers made a further reduction, the third in as many days, in acceptances. Ninety-day time money dropped to 4¼ to 4½ per cent, and quotations of 4 per cent were obtained on the 30-day maturity, call money, after renewing at 4 per cent, eased off to 3½, the lowest since January, 1928.

Seven United States government issues touched new highs for the year or longer and nearly a score of first-grade rails did likewise. Investment utilities climbed more slowly, but made a good average gain. At the close, the composite price of thirty representative bonds stood at 99, compared with the 1930 high of 99.1 and 98.4 the low.

Numerous gilt-edge rails moved up a point or more. Burlington 4s, Pennsylvania 4¾s and Southern Pacific refunding 4s advanced from 1 to nearly 2 points, some attaining new highs on the move. Peak prices were also made by Kansas City Southern 5s and First 3s and Rock Island 4½s.

American Telephone debenture 5s of 1965 went to 102, a new high. Brooklyn Manhattan Transit 6s and International Telephone 5s also broke their previous maximums.

In the industrials Anglo-Chile Nitrate 7s closed at the 1930 peak of 93 for a 1⅛-point gain. Lorillard debenture 5½s rose ¾ to a top price of 91½. Sinclair Crude Oil 5½s were very active, but moved narrowly.

Convertibles were relatively quiet. American Telephone 4½s gained ½ net. Chicago and Northwestern 4¾s and Texas Corporation 5s were active and firm. International Telephone 4½s advanced 2. Treasury 4¼s led the governments with a rise of 25-32 to 112.25. Advances of about ½ a point were made by the other Treasuries. Liberty 3½s touched par. Berlin City Electric 6½s and Milan City 6½s made new 1930 maximums.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low and both low and close when same as high.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Trading on the curb exchange showed a sharp falling off in volume from yesterday's record-breaking session, but the main price tendency was again upward with easier money rates and favorable dividend announcements as the principal bullish factors. Sale of a curb membership was arranged at $185,000, a new high price for the year, and an increase of $10,000 above the previous sale.

Cities Service, which furnished a substantial portion of yesterday's volume, quieted down considerably, closing fractionally higher at 38½, after fluctuating within a range of 1 point. Electric Bond and Share also recorded a fractional gain, closing about a point below the day's high level. American and Foreign Power warrants, American Gas and Electric, Engineers' Public Service warrants and Hydro-Electric Service closed 1 to 2½ points higher.

Oils made further response to the widespread efforts being made to curtail production. Humble ran up more than 3 points to a new high at 93½, but lost all but about a point of its gain. Gulf closed slightly more than 2 points higher. Standard Oil of Kansas was heavy. Standard of Indiana improved fractionally, the annual report showing earnings of $4.66 a share on 16,850,367 shares in 1929, against $8.33 on 9,284,668 shares in 1928.

Mead Johnson ran up 3 points to a new 1930 top at 61. Niles-Bement-Pond showed a moderate gain on the announcement the stock had been placed on a $2 annual dividend basis. Fajardo Sugar soared nearly 30 points on buying influenced by the Senate's increase in the sugar tariff, but lost nearly a third of its gain. Newmont Mining ran up more than 6 points to 132¾, the best price this year.

Blue Ridge and Shenandoah common stocks established new highs for the year.

Deere & Co. (old stock) broke 10 points. Pie Bakeries preferred dropped 9¾ to a new low at 75, and Aluminum Company of America dropped 6½. A better demand was noted for the radio shares, Arcturus rallying 4½ points to a new top at 22, while Hazeltine advanced 1⅝. Loew's debenture warrants also sold at a new 1930 high.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (AP)—Trading quieted down to a state of monotony on the stock exchange today. Sales were only 28,119 shares, with cash turnover $1,124,565, along with 3775 rights at $76,631, and $6000 bonds. The general average for the list was a shade under yesterday's closing sales.

Utilities made slight progress, Pacific Gas working up ⅛ of a point, with a following in the more active stocks. Pacific Public Service dipped slightly. Most of the preferred power stocks slipped and closed on a par with their final quotations of the previous session. Possible new alignments of public service corporations continued to hold speculative attention, no developments being reported, however.

Oils suffered an afternoon setback, losing all of their gains of the morning, and closing lower for the majority. Tidewater preferred slumped 3 points.

Financial shares were steady, on the average. Fireman's Fund and Transamerica were fractionally off, while West Coast Bancorporation was slightly higher, and Crocker First National held even.

Outside of a jump of 10 points by Sherman Clay prior preferred, all industrial gains were of minor character. Calaveras Cement lost 1½, hitting a new low, as did Lyons Magnus and Calamba preferred. Most industrials were fractionally down.

No New Showings

The General Petroleum Corporation has not encountered new oil sand showings in Ferguson No. 2, a tideland permit at Seacliff, but is drilling below 2901 feet in gray sand. This project was completed two weeks ago for 300 barrels of oil per day at 2560 feet after penetrating fifteen feet of excellent oil sand. It came in during a water shut-off test and was later killed to deepen.

Bailing for Test

The Union Oil Company's Sansinena No. 1 wildcat, searching for deep production on the south flank of the Puente Hills, is bailing for a water shut-off with bottom of the hole at 2100 feet. Shallow oil sand showings were penetrated in this test considerably higher than in other projects that have been drilled in that vicinity.

Continues to Flow

The Pacific Western Oil Company's Espee-Willett No. 1 on the south flank of the Ventura-avenue field continues to yield approximately 150 barrels of oil per day from a depth of 7279 feet. The flow is slowly cleaning up.

PRODUCE MARKET

(United States Bureau of Markets)

Fruit and produce moved slowly on yesterday's market, with moderate buying demand. Receipts of vegetables were moderate, but movement was slow and most dealers were unable to clean up. Prices were generally steady to lower, except in a few lines where light receipts brought about higher prices. Apples unchanged. Artichokes and asparagus weaker under increasing receipts and slow demand. Broccoli stronger. Practically no Brussels sprouts or bananas available. Bunched vegetables dull and unchanged. Cabbage in light supply and stronger. Cauliflower about steady. Grapefruit stronger. Lettuce steady. Oranges stronger. Peas steady, with rather slow movement. New potatoes slower, with weaker prices. Squash weaker. Tomatoes weak.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Light receipts included three loads of medium to good intermountain steers, balance of offerings being mainly common to medium she stock of intermountain and California origin. Trade was moderately active with the steers selling steady to strong and other classes mostly unchanged. There is a good demand for steers in decent flesh and it seems that larger supplies would be readily absorbed.

A load of 974-pound steers made 11.85, with two loads of 881-pound weights at 11.50. A load of 702-pound Mexicans from a near-by feed lot scored 10.10. Odd head of plain heifers sold up to 9.00. Odd head of cows, mostly of dairy type, brought 8.40@8.75, with bulk of common to low medium kinds going at 7.00@8.25. Low cutters and cutters were fairly numerous at 4.00@6.75, with very thin shelly cows down to 3.00. A few head of bulls ranged from 7.50@8.50.

CALVES—Light receipts of vealers included only a few odd head of good kinds at 15.00@16.00, with scattered sales, including weights up to 270 pounds at 11.50@14.00. Common calves ranging from 167 to 379 pounds scaled at 8.50@11.00.

HOGS—Fresh receipts consisting of four loads of good Nebraska butchers were increased by three loads of Californias that arrived too late for Wednesday's market. Trade was fairly active early, with sales mostly 10@15c higher. Two loads of 191 to 201-pound Nebraskas topped at 12.30 and two loads of the consignment carrying more weight were unsold. Three loads of 169 to 173-pound California butchers cashed at 12.15. Some 277-pound local feds made 10.25, with 106 to 142-pound kinds going to feeders and killers at 10.75. A few odd head of packing sows sold up to 9.50, with stags at 6.50@7.00.

SHEEP—An active and fully steady market prevailed with eight decks of 98-pound Utah lambs selling at 11.00, sorted 20 per cent at 10.00. Two decks of medium to good 131-pound California ewes brought 6.25, with five out at 5.25.

DRY DOCKING BIGGEST SHIP IN THE WORLD

At Southampton recently a modern miracle was performed. By the mere twisting of a couple of knobs, 56,621 tons of dead weight was raised out of the sea.

As the gray mists of dawn lifted from Southampton water, a stir of activity around the giant White Star liner Majestic, the world's largest liner, lying in the ocean dock, heralded the commencement of what can only be described as a triumphant achievement, writes our representative.

In the control of some seven powerful tugs, the Majestic was pulled across the basin until her bow pointed straight at the entrance to the floating dock, and slowly, yard by yard, her great bulk moved forward.

The dock-master strolled slowly up and down, and, occasionally placing a megaphone to his lips, issued an instruction in quiet, conversational tones. No one seemed flurried. A shower of ropes' ends descended from the liner and gangs of men made them fast.

A chalk line on the vessel's hull coming in line with a marker on the dock signified that the vessel was in position fore and aft, and a wooden bar running in a measured rule, placed against the ship's side, indicatetd that she was over the center of the dock.

Great steel shores held the vessel in place and a faint hum of electric motors was the only indication that the giant dock had commenced to rise slowly out of the water.

A touch of comedy was supplied by the appearance of a couple of men paddling a pontoon by means of a coal shovel and a broom!

In four hours the powerful pumps raised the dock with the ship in it, seventy-two feet, in the course of which 80,000 tons of water were discharged from the tanks.

I was cheerfully informed by a bright gentleman with a mathematical turn of mind that what the pumps discharged in four hours would take a man with a two-gallon bucket working eight hours per day, thirty-one years! I did not doubt him.—[Ocean Ferry.

Three Killed in Boston Blaze

BOSTON, March 6. (AP) — Three persons are dead and the names of nine are on the danger list at the City Hospital as the result of fire which swept a five-story apartment-house in the South End section today. More than fifty persons lived in the house.

WORLD USES LOT OF WOOD

Each year the world cuts about 56,000,000,000 cubic feet of wood, says the American Tree Association. Of this a little less than half is of the size and quality that make it suitable for sawing lumber—the lumber used for building and for general construction. The rest—more than half—is small, inferior material cut chiefly for firewood. North America produces half of the wood cut in the world, and the conifers or softwoods supply about three-fourths of the sawing timber. It is the conifers whose perpetuation is essential so that the world may continue to be kept in timber.

Muere Von Tirpitz

EBENHAUSEN (Baviera), Marzo 6.—El almirante Alfredo von Tirpitz, que mandaba en jefe la armada alemana en la guerra mundial, y fue el inspirador de la campaña submarina de su país, ha fallecido hoy en un sanatorio de aquí a las 2:30 de la madrugada, tras ataque de bronquitis.

El guerrero de barba cana, a quien solía llamarse el Odín alemán, o sea el dios de la guerra marítima, estuvo en cabal salud hasta primeros de Febrero, época en que le atacó la dolencia bronquial. El 10 de Febrero le trasladaron de su casa en Feldafing, a orillas del lago de Starnberger, hasta este lugar, suburbano de Munich.

Guam Rinde Tributo a Magallanes

GUAM, Marzo 6.—Guam ha celebrado el día de Magallanes, el 409 aniversario de su descubrimiento por Fernando Magallanes, al hacer éste la primera circunnavegación del globo. Hubo suntuosa ceremonia en la escuela norteamericana recién edificada en Umatac, donde desembarcó Magallanes, y la escuela fue bautizada con el nombre del glorioso navegante portugués.

La Política de Hoover Altamente Encomiada

WASHINGTON, Marzo 6.—El diputado Eaton, republicano de Nueva Jersey, hizo hoy firme defensa en la cámara del presidente Hoover y de su programa administrativo. Aseguró el diputado de Nueva Jersey que el partido republicano tiene ahora en pleno funcionamiento una política práctica y constructiva, encaminada a ayudar al pueblo yanqui a resolver los problemas hacendarios que el país tiene frente a sí, y suplicó que se estudiaran éstos con espíritu de estadistas y no con prejuicios de miembros de facción.

Es esta la segunda vez que, en el curso de su carrera parlamentaria, ha acudido Eaton a la defensa de la administración. Cuatro años há; es decir, uno después de la toma de posesión de Coolidge, defendió a la administración contra las censuras de ambas cámaras.

Mujer que Fue Hermosísima Muere por su Propia Mano

NUEVA YORK, Marzo 6.—Christine Norman, cuyo retrato pintó Neysa McMein, declarándola una de las doce más bellas mujeres de los Estados Unidos, se suicidó esta mañana temprano saltando desde una ventana del alto vigésimo del Hotel Warwick. Fue la señorita Norman en un tiempo miembro de la compañía original de "Peg o' My Heart", y era la esposa separada de Enos S. Booth.

Confesó lo del suicidio en un papel que dirigió a la gerencia del hotel, rogándole avisara a la señora Frank Carstarphen, y también a su abogado Arthur Garfield Hays y la Equitable Trust Company. Fueron halladas en su cuarto seis cartas cerradas, una de las cuales estaba dirigida a Booth.

Booth, que es abogado, dijo a la policía que había hablado por teléfono últimamente con Christine, y que le pareció se hallaba en buen estado de ánimo. Se le ocurre al señor Booth que sea tal vez una enfermedad imaginaria la que haya entristecido a la suicida y empujádola a su acto fatal.

Agregó que la señorita Norman había nacido hace cuarenta y tres años en Cincinnati, y venido aquí para dedicarse a las tablas. Se casó con ella hace diez años y se separaron cinco años há.

Dejan a un Asesinado en un Solar Desocupado

Con el cuello rebanado, fue hallado el cadáver de Francisco Pacheco, de 33 años de edad, obrero maderero, en un solar vacío cercano al cruce del bulevar de Anaheim y la avenida de Blinn, en Wilmington. Fue hecho el fúnebre hallazgo ayer temprano por jornaleros que se dirigían a su trabajo. Creen los detectives del puerto que haya sido asesinado como a media noche por un individuo con quien había reñido hace una quincena, y que, según se dice, desapareció en un automóvil a la hora, más o menos, en que debe de haberse perpetrado el crimen.

El cuerpo de Pacheco fue llevado a la funeraria de Cleveland y Barker, en Wilmington, mientras se procede a la encuesta. Deja una viuda y cinco hijos, que viven en el 1010 de la calle "L" Este, en Wilmington.

A Tombstone Blurb

Booth Tarkington, who is always modest, complained in Indianapolis one day about publishers' blurbs.

"If I allowed blurbs on the rackets of my books," he said, "I'd feel that I was a bigger fool than the young widow.

"A young widow put a small tombstone over her late husband with this inscription on it in very large letters:

"'Sacred to the memory of George Jones, who departed this life in the sixtieth year of his age, bitterly regretting that he must leave the best and most beautiful of wives.'"

LABORER INJURED IN ACCIDENT SUCCUMBS

SANTA BARBARA, March 6.—Ray Douglas, 30 years of age, laborer, who was injured last Saturday, when a pile driver slipped from a tideland oil pier near here, died in a local hospital today. W. Fire Attacks Mountain Town

TAOS (N. M.) March 6. (AP)—Fire destroyed a corner of the Taos business district today.

Almost the entire population of 800 persons turned out to swing buckets down the long lines from wells to the fire. Taos has no fire department, no city water hydrants and the water supply is meager.

The fire started when a gasoline stove exploded in a restaurant. The postoffice, next door, and the Forest Service office were burned.

BIRD TRIAL DATE FIXED BY HARDY

Superior Judge Wood yesterday ordered Maj. Owen R. Bird, Los Angeles sportsman, to go to trial on the 26th inst., in Superior Judge Hardy's court on a charge of murdering his best friend, Percival Watson.

At the time the indictment was read, Maj. Bird stood between his attorney, Lou Guernsey, and his wife, Laura Bird.

Bird is charged with shooting Watson to death in the Bird home during a fit of jealous frenzy. When arrested, however, Bird declared that he fired at Watson believing that the revolver was loaded with blank cartridges.

Originally Bird was charged with manslaughter, but a new complaint was filed later by George Penney, deputy District Attorney, charging murder. Penney asserted at that time that in view of the evidence, no other charge could be prosecuted.

CEMENT PLANT POLL ASSURED

Attorney for Defense Group Makes Announcement

Petitions Declared to Have Sufficient Signatures

Meeting Set for Tonight to Lay Campaign Plans

Sufficient names have been obtained on petitions to assure the referendum on the Bell cement quarry permit ordinances, it was announced yesterday by Thorwald Siegfried, attorney for the Home Zone Defense Association. He states that the petitions will be filed with City Clerk Dominguez on Monday.

"We will have more than enough to make the election a foregone conclusion and then we will have a week in which to get names which will make an election mandatory," he said. "A meeting has been called for tonight, at which time the city-wide campaign plans will be mapped out—that is how optimistic we feel about the matter."

SIGNERS APLENTY

In all more than 28,000 names have been obtained thus far. This is exclusive of 10,000 names gathered in apparent good faith from another source, which so far have not been turned in, Mr. Siegfried declared. Twenty-five thousand eight hundred are needed.

"Despite efforts of the Bell interests to muddy the situation by passing petitions which have no standing in law, we will go so far over the necessary number," he added, "that it is more than probable we will be able to get the 37,000 names necessary to make the election mandatory. As it is we hope that the City Council will set the election for May 20, next, when the water bonds will be voted upon. This will save the taxpayers a lot of money and will decide the issue quickly."

CHECKERS AT WORK

Checkers are working day and night at headquarters of the Home Zone Defense precincting names and checking for duplications and mistakes. City Clerk Dominguez has stated that as soon as the petitions are filed he will immediately put a force of clerks at work verifying the registration of the signers.

He believes that he can accomplish his work within five days. Then, if the petition is insufficient, the petitioners will have ten days to file supplementary names.

The meeting of the Home Zone Defense Association is scheduled for tonight at 8 o'clock at 130 South Broadway.

Contest Over Venice Woman's Will Settled

When the contest over the $20,000 estate of Lillian L. Mignon of Venice was called for trial yesterday in the court of Superior Judge Archbald the action was dismissed on the statement of attorneys that a settlement has been effected out of court.

Under the provisions of the will, Mrs. Mignon left $10 to a sister, Mrs. Helen B. Morian of Santa Monica, and the balance of her property to Vincenso Mignon, her widower.

Mrs. Morian contested the will on the grounds her sister was of unsound mind at the time she drew it.

The nature of the settlement between the relatives was not revealed in court.

Light-Company Official Happy Over Prospects

Expectations that general business will maintain a steady upward trend were expressed yesterday by William T. P. Hollingsworth, president of Claude Neon Lights, Inc., of New York, who is vacationing at the Ambassador.

Hollingsworth reported that indications are his company will do 50 per cent more business than in 1929. He said that a number of new inventions in the electric display field are to be introduced shortly.

MORE TRAFFIC AIDES ASKED

Committee of 100 Urges Addition of Fifty Men to City's Motorcycle Patrol Squad

Seeking to stem the rising tide of deaths and injuries resulting from automobile accidents in Los Angeles, members of the executive committee of the Committee of 100 on Street and Highway Safety for Los Angeles, a unit of the California State Chamber of Commerce, yesterday adopted a resolution favoring the addition of fifty officers to the city's motorcycle squad. The committee met in the Alexandria.

Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish, vice-chairman, declared that citizens of Los Angeles are mobilizing in justified outrage against the increasing accident toll. She said that the resolution, stating that an outstanding feature in cutting down the number of crashes would be an adequate number of motorcycle officers, was to be sent to the City Council.

E. L. Bruck of the California Highway Patrol, emphasized the difficulties of enforcing speed and other traffic laws in Los Angeles county, reporting that San Diego county, with 87,000 automobiles, has one-half the number of motorcycle police of Los Angeles county with 800,000 machines.

Ralph Dorsey, City Traffic Engineer, said that the present force of officers was remarkably efficient, declaring that after a survey of cities throughout the country he felt that Los Angeles has set a national standard in traffic police efficiency.

Orra Monnette, representing the Los Angeles Traffic Commission, stated that nothing is so shocking in modern civilization as the lists of death and injuries in American cities as a result of automobile accidents.

"We do not need to hurry as much as we think we have to," he commented. "It is not absolutely vital that we be in our offices at a certain moment in the morning or that we arrive at home at night at a special moment."

Daniel Beecher gave it as his opinion that cases of drunken driving should be classed as misdemeanors to permit of judges' imposing

NASH VISITOR IN LOS ANGELES

Gravity of Used-Car Problem Cited

Auto Executive Here for Brief Stay
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nash, Hascall Bliss, their grandson, and Robert S. Breyer.

THE used-car problem is the greatest one in the automobile business today and auto manufacturers have only themselves to blame for it, in the opinion of C. W. Nash, head of the automobile company bearing his name.

"Too many of the manufacturers," he said, "force their cars on their dealers and thereby force sales. Well, they'll just have to give up pushing out so many new cars now. We might as well settle down to the fact that people can use their cars a little longer.

"Nash never did that. We never made a car that we did not have an order for and we never tried to get our dealers to handle more cars than they could profitably."

Mr. Nash said there are no radical innovations in sight in motordom—"just better and more comfortable cars."

He and Mrs. Nash, with their 9-year-old grandson, Hascall Bliss, arrived here yesterday from Kenosha, Wis.

"Mrs. Nash has not been very well for a year," Mr. Nash said, "and we'll stay here a couple of weeks at least and maybe longer if she gets to feeling better."

NEW VIEWS OF EUROPE DISCUSSED

German Editor Declares Geneva Meeting Will See No Tariff Truce Made

Reiterating the conviction voiced by the late Dr. Stresemann that "Europe of tomorrow must and will be part of a world-wide economic organization," Wolf Von Dewall, foreign editor of the Frankfurter Zeitung, in an address at the University Club yesterday, declared the foundation of the new Europe was laid at Locarno, which established peace on the Rhine, eliminating the worst war danger on the continent.

"By the evacuation of the Rhineland, the last obstacle to good understanding between Germany and France will be removed," said Mr. Dewall. "With many others in Germany, I believe that the present Geneva meeting will be the funeral of the tariff truce idea. Others speak about the possibility of the European countries concluding collective commercial treaties with other economic units, but that would presuppose a European tariff union which still remains a distant goal. I am sure that some European solution will be found, but it will not be an artificial construction. It will grow out of conditions as they are."

After stating that a great deal has been accomplished between Germany and France in the way of economic co-operation, he said that between Germany and Poland much remains to be done.

PRICE WAR ON GASOLINE FLARING UP

Lessees of Standard's Stations Quote Drop of 2 1-2 Cents Per Gallon

The first flare-up of what threatens to develop into another gasoline price war was observed yesterday when various individuals and companies operating service stations leased from the Standard Oil Company of California displayed signs offering gasoline for 16½ cents instead of 19 cents, tax paid.

While Standard officials last night denied that any price change has taken place, it appeared evident that the dealers, purchasing at wholesale from Standard, have been relieved from the asserted moral obligation to not sell gasoline for less than 19 cents a gallon.

The fact that Standard gasoline can now be had in the Los Angeles district for 16½ cents would seem to call upon other marketing companies to meet the price or cut below it today or tomorrow.

TIME LIMIT NEARING ON INCOME TAX

Only Eight Days Left in Which Returns for 1929 Can be Filed

Eight days more remain in which income-tax returns can be made, it was pointed out yesterday by Internal Revenue Collector Welch.

Because of the complications that arise out of the making of the returns, the government has posted deputies in various towns in Southern California to aid taxpayers. The deputies in Los Angeles are stationed in the Federal Building.

The last day for filing the 1929 income-tax return is the 15th inst. The sooner a return the less chance there is for later complications, it was stated.

Anniversary of State Societies to Be Observed

The twenty-first anniversary of the Federation of State Societies will be celebrated on the evening of the 19th inst. with a reception, banquet and program in the Chamber of Commerce dining-room. The reception will be from 6 to 7 p.m., dinner and program following.

Each State will have its separate table or section. The call includes Canada, Hawaii, the Philippines and the Panama Canal Zone. Dr. M. R. Parmelee, president of the federation, has been selected as toastmaster. Community singing will be led by H. J. Brubaker, president of the Illinoisans.

COUNTY BOARD TO GIVE VOICE AMPLIFIER TESTS

Loud voices will resound through the august room of the Board of Supervisors when that body has its next meeting Monday.

Yesterday the board voted to give an elaborate loud speaker a trial as a means of competing with the noises that filter into the room from Broadway traffic.

The board members agreed to give the amplifier a chance to demonstrate its merits after Supervisor Wright told them the Western Electric Company has offered the county a free trial of the device.

The board meeting room is considered one of the noisiest in the Hall of Records because of its fronting on Broadway. As a result, spectators and others attending board meetings have had difficulty in hearing the debate over questions brought before the board for disposal. Even the Supervisors themselves sometimes have difficulty in hearing the remarks of each other.

If the voice-amplifying system proves satisfactory, the board may vote to install it permanently. Its cost would be approximately $500, according to Supervisor Wright.

EARL DEPARTS FOR BAY CITY

Rosslyn Expects to Set Sail from Golden Gate Today

Confident That Immigration Tangle Will be Cleared

Declares He Had Jolly Time During Hollywood Stay

After "two jolly good days in Hollywood," the Earl of Rosslyn left last night on the Lark for San Francisco, confident that his red-tape tangle under the immigration laws will have been sufficiently unwound by this afternoon to enable him to embark on the liner President Van Buren for Honolulu.

Failure to have his visa signed by the American Consul at Colon, Panama, had caused complications for the Earl when he arrived here on Wednesday on the freighter Penrith Castle, traveling officially as a member of the crew because the ship was not licensed to carry passengers. Under the circumstances the Earl, who is reputed to be very wealthy, might have been barred from landing here and been forced to continue on to Manila on the Penrith Castle as a crew member, had not C. G. Gately, inspector-in-chief of immigration at the harbor, issued special permission for him to go ashore. This was given after Gately had been assured of the distinguished traveler's identity by British Consul Fisher.

WIRE TO WASHINGTON

Meanwhile a wire was dispatched to Washington asking for permission to issue a special transit visa to the Earl. In answer to his wire, Gately yesterday received telegraphic request for "additional information" in a message that stated the British ambassador had interested himself in the case and intercede din the nobleman's behalf. The immigration inspector here promptly wired complete details to Washington, adding the request that the necessary permission, providing it is granted, be telegraphed to San Francisco authorities.

CONDITIONAL LEAVE

Rosslyn was given conditional leave to depart for the Bay City last night, in order that he may not miss his boat in event Washington extends the concession. Gately put the peer on his honor to return here at once if permission to sail should be refused.

Before leaving last night the Earl said the results of the tangle have been more pleasant than otherwise, as it forced him to remain two days in this city, and he spent most of that time in Hollywood, visiting the studios, being entertained by screen celebrities, and altogether having a "jolly good time."

Border Closing Fails to Keep Woman Away

Although the Mexican border was closed for the night, Mrs. Harmon S. Allen, widow of Robert M. Allen, managed to get to Los Angeles yesterday in time to win a $4000 judgment in a lawsuit heard before Superior Judge Henderson. The judgment was against Lester L. Bryant, husband and business manager of Edna Hibbard, actress, on a Chicago theater lease.

"I didn't remember I had to appear in court until after the border was closed for the night. However, I got through," Mrs. Allen declared.

Mrs. Allen asserted in court that Bryant bought a lease for the Playhouse Theater in Chicago from her in 1925, but failed to pay her $4000. She was represented by Attorney Russell H. Pray.

Warner Oland and John Dillon Pay Tax Fines

Two more members of the motion-picture colony yesterday paid fines in United States District Judge James's court for failure to pay the full amount of their income tax. John Francis Dillon, motion-picture director, paid an additional tax of $3843.79 for 1926 and a penalty of $1921.90. He was fined $250, which also was paid.

Warner Oland, actor of Chinese character parts, paid an additional tax of $1504.04 and a penalty of $752 for 1927. He was fined $250, which was paid. He admitted to the court that his gross income for 1927 was $55,016.87.

ACTRESS SUES OVER SINKING OF VESSEL

Pauline Wagner

Pauline Wagner, motion-picture actress, was the center of attraction yesterday in the court of Superior Judge Archbald before whom she appeared as the plaintiff in a suit, over a private yacht, brought against the Yacht and Motor Sales Corporation. The boat involved in the action is the yawl Iris.

Miss Wagner is asking $1500 damages, asserting that after she had placed the yawl in the hands of the company to sell it was moored in an unsafe place and sank. She is represented in court by Attorney P. F. Kirby.

The corporation asserts the yawl sank because of the natural elements over which they had no control.

CENSUS AID TO BE GIVEN BY UTILITIES

Los Angeles Companies Will Assist Chamber's Educational Campaign

Public utility companies in Los Angeles yesterday volunteered to assist the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce county-wide educational campaign to assist in the Federal census, which gets under way on April 2, next.

According to Guy E. Marion, research and statistical manager for the chamber, the Southern California Telephone Company, the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company, Municipal Bureau of Power and Light, the Edison company and the Southern California Gas and Electric Company have each volunteered to inclose census information with monthly statements to be mailed to their subscribers in a few days.

Special folders are now being prepared for this purpose and will contain full details for the benefit of housewives or those with whom the enumerators will come in contact. Marion also stated yesterday that his department at the chamber will furnish any information on the census requested by anyone in the city or county.

Burned Woman Likely to Die

Mrs. George E. Allen, 29 years of age, was burned probably fatally yesterday when her dress caught fire from an open gas heater in her home at 1007 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street.

Neighbors heard her screams and smothered the flames, but surgeons at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital report she has only a slim chance of recovery.

GIRNAU'S ANNUAL RAPPED

Mayor and Chief Steckel Deny Sanctioning Project and Merchants Shy at Costly Advertising

It appeared unlikely yesterday that Fred H. Girnau, politician and publisher, will get out his version of a "1930 Police Annual," despite the fact that Girnau's solicitors have been busy among downtown merchants for some days soliciting advertising.

Attention was drawn to the proposed annual when advertising managers of large downtown stores declared they had been approached by men hired by Girnau and asked to subscribe for advertising that ran as high as $300 per page.

SOLICITORS HAD CARDS

Those approached declared that it was represented to them that the "annual" was authorized by Mayor Porter and the Police Commission, and that the proceeds were to go to the Police Relief Association. It was asserted that the solicitors carried cards bearing the heading, "Authorized by John C. Porter, Mayor."

Mayor Porter denied that he had given Girnau any authorization. He said that the politician had called on him and outlined some features of the proposition and that he had referred Girnau to Chief of Police Steckel and the Police Commission.

"I don't know a thing about it," said Willard Thorpe, president of the Police Commission, yesterday when asked about the matter. "But I'm going to find out right away," he added, and called in Chief Steckel.

Steckel disclosed that Girnau had been to see him and also had talked to Commissioner Drake. The Chief declared that he had given Girnau no permission to proceed with the annual and had understood that Drake was unfavorable also. Drake later put himself on record as strongly opposed to the scheme.

Despite the denials of the officials, however, Girnau asserted that he had received official encouragement when he launched his plans for the annual and still hoped to put the proposition over. He expressed surprise that the Mayor and Chief Steckel had expressed themselves as opposed, and declared that SPORTS reporters are still discussing with acrimony the case of Phil Scott, who, on being thumped lustily by Mr. Sharkey, proceeded to sit down and declare he was fouled.

I string with Mr. Scott. He was a "set-up" put in there to provide a little easy money for Sharkey. If I were a set-up, I would sit down at the earliest possible moment.

Take them as a whole, prize-fight people own all championships for stupidity. They wail when the laws forbid their sport; but as soon as the bars are let down, they always proceed to swindle the public with bad shows until public opinion forces another antiprize-fight law. No champion will fight any one who is able to get into a ring unassisted by the police ambulance.

THE CANCER CURE

The death of Mrs. Gertrude Edwine, after taking the cancer cure administered by Drs. Coffey and Humber, will be seized upon with glee by critics.

At no time have these two discoverers pretended to be miracle workers. Their treatment would be worth while if it only saved a single week of pain.

MISS RUSSELL'S DAUGHTER

Lillian Russell's daughter threatens legal proceedings because she got only $1000 from the will of her stepfather—ex-Ambassador Moore, who died recently in California. She says, if he gave $100,000 to the Queen of Spain, she is anyhow entitled to her mother's dishes.

One heritage she does not seem to have collected from her mother's estate is dignity and pride.

RELIGION AND THE STAGE

Years ago when I was a young reporter I was sent to interview Lillian Russell. What she told me I have never forgotten.

She said: "No girl is safe on the stage without some kind of religion. It doesn't matter what it is—whether she is a Christian, a Buddhist, a Taoist or what. But she must believe something and believe it hard if she expects to go on the stage and come through as nice a girl as when she went on."

WIDE FILMS

The new wide film over which motion-picture producers have worked themselves into such a lather of excitement strikes me as being wider than film which is not so wide. Otherwise there does not seem to be a great deal of justification for the uproar.

THUGS

It is to be hoped that the killing of a San Pedro fisherman on San Nicolas Island is made a Federal affair.

These channel islands have become a hang-out and rendezvous for bootleggers. Many instances have been reported where peaceful fishing parties have been warned from landing on government property by thugs with guns.

The United States government has quite a good supply of guns of its own and it would seem to be a good time to decide whether or not the bootleggers and gangsters are going to take possession of this Coast.

The government ought to send a cutter over there and it ought to go in shooting.

WIFE WILL FACE SHOOTING TRIAL

Hearing Held at Bedside of Wounded Husband

Glendale Woman in Jail in Default of Bail

Accused of Firing on Spouse During Argument

Bound over at a preliminary hearing before Judge Howe in Glendale Police Court, Mrs. Margaret Switzer, Glendale housewife, yesterday was returned to County Jail in default of $10,000 bail to await trial in Superior Court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill her husband, P. E. Switzer, laboratory assistant at Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital.

During the hearing Judge Lowe moved court to the wounded husband's bedside; and from his cot Switzer reiterated the statement made to police February 26, last, that his wife shot him with a .25 caliber rifle during the course of a quarrel in their home, 1220 South Central avenue, on the night of February 24. He appeared reluctant, however, to discuss details of the shooting.

Mrs. Switzer was represented at the hearing by Attorneys A. J. Thedieck and Lucas F. Smith and the State by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Russell M. Broker.

After the shooting, Mrs. Switzer insisted the gun had been discharged accidentally while she was demonstrating to her husband that the trigger needed oiling. For two days Switzer corroborated his wife's explanation. Then, under grilling by Police Chief Fraser of Glendale, the husband charged Mrs. Switzer had fired at him deliberately during an argument.

Children Today to Honor Birds

Observing the double significance today of Luther Burbank's birthday and California Bird and Tree Day, children of the municipal playgrounds will take part in a series of tree-plantings, playlets, story hours, and impromptu dramatizations of the occasion this afternoon, according to Mrs. Emelie Hollington, dramatics supervisor in the Playground and Recreation Department.

"Birds' Lunch Counters," will be set up this afternoon at several playfields. Several programs are also scheduled for next week.

Sherman Sets Wedding Date

Helene Costello and Lowell Sherman, film players, are to be married on the 15th inst. at 7:30 p.m., according to announcement made yesterday. The ceremony is to take place in the Venetian Room of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, in the presence of a group of their friends.

The engagement of Miss Costello and Sherman, following a romance of a year, was announced exclusively in The Times recently. Miss Costello is to be attended by her sister, Dolores Costello, in private life Mrs. John Barrymore, while Barrymore will be best man. The couple plan a dinner-dance following the wedding.

CENT-A-POUND HOPS PLANNED

Curtiss-Wright Service Makes Special Offer

Miss Theta Stevens (in scale seat) and Miss Florence Allen (right) ready to try out "penny-a-pound" air trips at Grand Central Terminal, Glendale.

New penalties for avoirdupois will be exacted in a novel airplane passenger-carrying experiment to be tried out this weekend at Grand Central Air Terminal, Glendale.

"Penny-a-pound—You pay what you weigh."

That's the program planned by Curtiss-Wright Flying Service as a test introductory offer to get people into the air.

"One ride and the most dyed-in-the-wool landlubber is converted to this coming method of transportation," explains Maj. C. C. Moseley, vice-president and general manager of the company's activities in the West.

With standard "joy hops" costing $5, even the circus fat lady may save money under the plan to be tried out.

Those weighed and found shy of 100 pounds will have to pay the 100-pound rate.

Blond Lipstick Smears Bliss of Brunette Wife

It takes a clever woman to distinguish among the shades of lipstick on sale in the various drugstores of the city, but Mrs. Mildred J. Arnold testified yesterday in her divorce suit before Superior Judge McComb that she knew the shades of lipstick, like a musician knows the notes of the scale.

"Two months after we were married I found a blond lipstick on my dresser," said Mrs. Arnold, who is a brunette. "This made me suspicious and I found other evidence that forced my husband to admit he had been entertaining a girl friend in my boudoir during my absence."

Mrs. Arnold also asserted her husband, John Edgar Arnold, beat her frequently and went to dances alone. She obtained a decree.

"RAMSHACKLE WIFE" GETS DIVORCE DECREE

Testimony that her husband called her "a ramshackle wife" won Mrs. Eleanor Stratton Dewey a divorce from Edward Dewey yesterday in the court of Superior Judge Collier. "He criticised my clothing severely," the wife declared. "I couldn't dress any better on the amount of money he gave me." Besides being granted a divorce, the wife was also given the custody of two minor children.

SECRETARY SUES FUCHS FOR BALM

Chicago Millionaire and Philanthropist Named in Breach of Promise Action

Just why Albert Fuchs, Chicago millionaire and philanthropist, refused to marry her is a great mystery to Miss Martha M. Gulickson, 34 years of age, who yesterday filed suit for $500,000 against him.

Miss Gulickson, who states in her suit that she served as secretary for Fuchs in Chicago for the last two years, at a salary of $300 a year, declares the 65-year-old millionaire had often expressed "great admiration" for her, "despite the disparity of their ages," and on February 14, last, asked her to come out to Santa Monica and marry him. She was told, she says that the defendant would make provision for her family.

Two weeks later she arrived in Los Angeles, and was met at the train, and later taken to the Courthouse, where intention to take out a marriage license was recorded. A photostatic copy of the intention is attached to Miss Gulickson's petition.

The next day, the plaintiff asserts, she was told that Fuchs had no intention to make her his wife, and directed her to apply to his attorneys for a settlement. Meanwhile she had been taken to two social functions and introduced as Mr. Fuchs's fiancee, she continues, and at least two German-language papers printed announcements of the engagement.

GIRNAU ANNUAL RECEIVES BLOW

it was his understanding that he had their sanction.

Girnau admitted that he had had some solicitors working for him, but declared that he had "called them off" until the matter is settled. Just how many merchants had been approached could not be learned. It was ascertained that clients of the California Intelligence Service Bureau, specializing in this form of investigation for numerous business firms, had been asked to report on the proposition.

The police department gets out only one official annual publication, which takes the form of a statistical report to the Police Commission. It contains no advertising.

HE SUPPORTED PORTER

Girnau is well known about the City Hall. His first bid for attention was when he appeared as publisher of the Coast Reporter, a flamboyant political paper that appeared frequently, attacking by innuendo and through other means various political figures during the last two years, although it supported Mayor Porter during the last mayoralty campaign. An article appearing in the paper directed against former Councilman Hall, then a candidate for City Attorney, caused Hall to swear to a complaint charging Girnau with criminal libel. The prosecution was never pushed, however.

RAILWAY COMPANY WINS DAMAGE SUIT

Proof of contributory negligence won a verdict for the Los Angeles Railway Company in the court of Superior Judge Archbald yesterday when a jury refused to give Larry B. White and his brother, Ernest F. White, damages totaling $75,000 for injuries they asserted they received in an automobile-street car collision. Ernest was driving the automobile when it hit the street car. He asked $25,000 and his brother Larry sued for $50,000.

MORE DOGS POISONED; MORE PERSONS BITTEN

Every dog has his day, perhaps, but the Los Angeles dog seems to be out of luck. Last month police were searching for a so-called professional dog-poisoner who was believed to have caused the deaths of nearly a score of highly prized Hollywood canines. Most of the reports at that time came from that district. Recently similar reports have been received in all divisions of the city, indicating, police say, that the character of a "professional dog-poisoner" is a myth, and that this supposed campaign of annihilation is due to neighborhood dissension augmented by residents being bitten by other people's dogs.

Yesterday three cases of dog poisoning were reported. Ramsey Wayland of 234 West Sixty-sixth street stated he found his dog in convulsions from eating bologna saturated with strychnine. Mrs. H. B. Ainsworth of 2003 Vista Del Mar avenue declared her son found that someone had been feeding her police dog biscuits. The biscuits are being analyzed by a police chemist. Ellsworth Pexcon of 9725 Regent street reported an old man in overalls had feed his valuable St. Bernard poison and slashed one of its feet.

On the other hand, police received reports that dogs have bitten Miss Delia Gasdelum of 1572 East Fortieth street, the son of Bennett Zukerman of 1021 South Hayworth avenue, and the son of Mrs. C. V. Wood of 1132 McKenzie avenue.

GRAND JURY FAILS TO GET POISON EVIDENCE

Reports that City Prosecutor Nix will present evidence to the county grand jury against the mysterious dog-poisoner who has been operating in West Los Angeles for the last month failed to develop yesterday when the grand jury devoted its entire time to consideration of routine extradition matters.

The grand jury also declined to open the investigation into conditions at the General Hospital until all routine matters are disposed of, according to Percy Hammon, deputy District Attorney in charge of grand jury matters.

OIL CONSERVING WORK PRAISED

rect the situation would not stop and thus we approached the end of the year with production and consumption approximately in balance over the last two months. Figures indicate a saving in 1929 to producers of the United States of hundreds of millions of dollars as a result of the co-operative movements to curtail production.

"It is unfortunate that so many of those who received the greatest benefit are the ones who need to be coaxed. It is easy to criticise and point a finger at the other fellow. Less than a year has passed since the beginning of the first general movement to correct our troubles. I am optimistic enough to believe that we are on the eve of better times."

INDEPENDENT DRILLING

"Domestic production in 1927 reached the staggering total of 1,005,598,000—a daily average of 2,755,100 barrels. This was a daily average of 292,000 barrels greater than in 1928. If the program adopted at Houston had been carried out a withdrawal from stocks of about 121,500 barrels per day would have resulted.

"All the oil produced in the United States from the discovery of the Drake well in 1859 to the end of 1900 did not quite equal the domestic production of 1929. I believe that we are nearing the day when we will be working in the interest of our stockholders instead of the wild scramble to dispose of our products at the present unremunerative prices.

"A statement frequently heard is that if the major companies really desire to correct the overproduction problem they should reduce their drilling operations. I do not desire to criticise the individual or small-company operators—they have been extremely helpful—but a survey of all that major and the larger independent company representing approximately 80 per cent of the production of the United States were drilling only 34 per cent, whereas individuals and small companies with 20 per cent of the production were engaged in drilling 66 per cent of the wells.

GREAT PROGRESS MADE

"In the Mid-Continent fields, great progress is being made in the utilization program. It is probable that greater opportunities are offered in the Middle West than in California. The plan has great merit and should be studied and carefully considered. The Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association has made it a special subject.

The American Petroleum Institute has approved the unit operation plan in principle and appointed committees to work on it. Perhaps you can not adopt all of the features in California, but it is quite flexible and the principle is the same everywhere. The benefits obtained will be in proportion to the extent of its adoption.

"There is another matter of vital concern and that is the gasoline tax. This tax, last year, reached a new high of approximately $450,000,000. Not only was this 47 per cent more than the tax of 1928, but it was probably more than the net income of the entire petroleum industry.

"California contributed $38,000,000—an increase of $6,000,000. In fact you were the largest gasoline taxpayers in the Union. You were outstanding in another way, with the exception of Missouri, where the tax is fixed by law for a decade, California appears to be the only State that is satisfied with present revenues from this source. You State officials have publicly declared that your gasoline tax is sufficient to meet all highway needs. The situation is not so satisfactory in other States."

Lawyer Delays Shooting Trial of Mrs. Andrade

Trial of Mrs. Helen Lois Andrade, accused of attempting to shoot Albert F. Andrade, was continued until the 14th inst. yesterday by Superior Judge Wilson because the defendant's attorney, Jud Rush, is ill.

Mrs. Andrade was arrested last December upon the complaint of Andrade who asserted she fired five shots at him in front of his home at 206 North Palm avenue, Beverly Hills.

After her arrest, Mrs. Andrade asserted she fired the shots only to frighten him.

Music of Russia to Be Featured

A program in which the music of Russia and Germany is featured will be given by Dr. B. G. Kingsley at Bullock's tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

Beginning with Mendelssohn's overture to "Fingal's Cave," descriptive of a rocky seashore with the playful waves surging up on the Scottish beach, the program continues with a series of Tschaikowsky numbers, all favorites to concert audiences; the Polonaise from the grand opera "Eugene Onegin," the Marche Slav and the tragic Pathetique Symphony.

jail sentences. He pointed out that juries are inclined to impose fines rather than jail terms.

It was pointed out by Washington L. Connelly, of the State chamber, that the Los Angeles safety group is a unit of a State-wide safety organization.

Problems arising from use of trucks for delivery purposes during the busy hours were discussed. It was suggested that as much delivery work as possible be carried out during the night. It was determined, however, to make a survey before taking any action.

The committee of 100 will meet on the 27th inst. at the Alexandria for further discussion of safety problems.

Auto Official's Sedan Stolen

Being secretary of the Automobile Club of Southern California does not render Stanley S. Mitchell immune to the activities of automobile thieves, it was established yesterday when Mitchell reported the theft of his car.

The car, a sedan, was stolen from St. James Park Place, where he had parked it, Mitchell said.

Union Leader's Trial Delayed

Trial of Frank Carothers, veteran union labor leader, on charges of striking his stenographer with a telephone was continued yesterday by Municipal Judge MacCoy until the 18th inst. on account of a crowded calendar. Carothers is at liberty on bail.

Mrs. Louise Palmer, 1075 North St. Andrews Place, reported on December 18, last, that Carothers struck her over the head with a telephone. The asserted assault occurred in his office at 6370 Hollywood Boulevard, where he handles union labor interests in motion pictures. Police Officer Darnell, summoned by Mrs. Palmer's screams, placed Carothers under arrest.

CLUB HONORS PARK SPONSOR

Mrs. Martha Nelson McCan Paid High Tribute

Mission Bench Dedicated to Her in Memory Garden

Loved Civic Worker Leaves Sick Bed to Attend

BY MYRA NYE

Mrs. Martha Nelson McCan was present yesterday at the services dedicating a mission bench to commemorate her work when, as president of the Park Commission of Los Angeles, she planned and built beautiful Memory Garden in San Fernando Valley.

Since for many months she has been in ill health, unable to leave her room, Mrs. McCan surprised by her attendance her many friends from the Friday Morning Club, of which she was the ninth president. This civic body had erected the bench and had carried to fruition the plans for commemoration. Mrs. McCan's presence made more deeply significant the marking, by a mission bench of concrete and wrought iron, the historic spot in front of the old mission of San Fernando.

Surrounded by pepper trees whose seedlings were from trees brought from old Spain by the padres to San Luis Rey, Mrs. McCan's civic work was extolled.

SHE OUTLINES PLANS

Mrs. McCan, unable for many weeks before to stand on her feet, refusing the help of her sister and a friend, stood for ten minutes in the sunshine. To the accompaniment of the falling water of the fountain designed as a replica of one in Cordova, Spain, a design of her own suggestion, she spoke at some length of her plans to carry on in Memory Garden.

"I did not have time to finish the work," she said, "nor to complete the plans. I wanted that old Spanish house," and she pointed to the old adobe of Andres Pico, "made available for community entertainments of such a character as to instill into the minds of youth a love for the old historic places of California and make them want to treasure them. I hope someone will do this even now." She closed with a tribute to the men who actually made the garden, who stood in their gardeners' clothes at the edge of the group.

The idea which resulted in the ceremony of yesterday originated with Mrs. Frank Gibson and was carried out by a committee of the club, including Mrs. Edmund Lazard, chairman, who presided; Mrs. Sarah Bixby Smith, president; Mrs. Joseph F. Sartori, Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes and Mrs. Florence Dodson Schoeneman. In addition to these, Mrs. Florence Kreider and Mrs. Andrew S. Lobingier, past presidents of the club, and some 200 or more of Mrs. McCan's friends were present.

OTHER SPEAKERS

Other speakers were Mrs. Lazard, who made the dedicatory speech; George H. Barnes, representing the Board of Park Commissioners, and W. M. Bowen, who extolled Mrs. McCann as a fellow-worker on the Park Commission at the time Memory Garden was made. Present also were Frank Shearer, who had co-operated with Mrs. McCan and who had actually designed and built the memorial, and Father A. Jalbert, priest, of San Fernando Mission, representing his parish.

Among Mrs. McCan's many civic and patriotic accomplishments are the presidency of the Friday Morning Club, the Southern California Women's Press Club, the Democratic Women's League and chairmanship of the Conservation Commission of California. She was among the first women from California to go overseas in 1917 for war work.

LONG NAME PUT THROUGH MILL

And When Oudermeulen Gets Back Again It's Just Plain "Mills"

In a wholesale name-changing fiesta in Superior Judge McComb's court yesterday nine members of the Oudermeulen family converted their patronymic to just plain Mills.

The parent changers, Mr. and Mrs. Jacon Oudermeulen, natives of Holland, led the procession. They were closely followed by Wilbur, Henry, Neal, Edward, Thomas, Juanita and Martin. They all stated their former surname was "too long for convenience" and that Mills is the English equivalent of the Dutch "meulen."

LAND-SHOW ATTENDANCE TO BE LARGE

Everything to be Spick and Span by Opening Time Tomorrow Evening

Ten thousand was the minimum estimate set yesterday as the probable attendance at the opening of the California Land Show tomorrow evening at Hill and Washington streets.

W. H. Harrison, chairman of the exploitation committee, said requests for tickets and letters at committee headquarters fully justify this prediction.

Late yesterday the show was "75 per cent complete," according to General Manager Edwin H. Brown, who added that nothing will remain to be done when Mayor Porter opens the exhibit at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Gov. Young, who is to speak Monday at 8:30 p.m., will be entertained by a large committee from the various organizations interested in the land show. The Los Angeles Playground Band of sixty pieces will appear in honor of the chief executive.

DISMISSAL WON AFTER TWO TRIALS

Court Frees Van Cleve, Accused by Woman of Robbing Apartment

After being tried twice on burglary charges, Dallas Van Cleve yesterday was released from custody when Superior Judge Wood dismissed the case.

Daniel Beecher, chief of Dist.-Atty. Fitts's trial department, moved for the dismissal in the interests of justice.

The complaint charged Van Cleve with entering the apartment of Josephine Hill and taking $140 in cash and $4000 worth of jewels. Mrs. Hill stated during the last trial that she gave her keys to Van Cleve so that he could use her automobile to go in search of her pet dog, which had strayed. He returned with the dog an hour later, but Mrs. Hill charged that he robbed her apartment in the meantime.

Van Cleve, however, introduced testimony of witnesses to prove that he spent the entire time searching for the dog.

Supreme Court Justices Guests at Shrine Fete

Chief Justice Waste and Associate Justices Sewell, Shenck, Curtis and Langdon of the California Supreme Court, and Joe Nolan, sergeant-at-arms of the State Senate, were guests of Potentate Wadley and Noble Everett W. Mattoon, orator of Al Malaikah Temple, at the weekly Shrine luncheon at the Biltmore yesterday.

An augmented entertainment program was given by Noble Roy McCray for M. M. Marshall, vice-president, and Harry E. Wray, secretary of the Marshall Corporation, who sponsored the affair. Next Thursday the entertainment program will be sponsored by Noble Paul Howse, president of the Electrical Products Corporation.

Following the meeting Potentate Wadley and several members of his divan left to visit a number of Shrine clubs north of Los Angeles, to arrange for entertainments by Al Malaikah Temple for their members.

Today's Bible Text

Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?—Romans vi, 16.

SUBTLE DIPLOMACY

"FILL 'ER UP"

Residents of Portland, Or., are reported to be indifferent to the gasoline gauge since stations are selling fuel at 14½ cents per gallon.

DISCRIMINATING

"Life is a heterogeneous collection of irreconcilable phenomena," says a scientist. Hollywood directors are likely sympathetic with the definition. And is there any wonder why some leave home?

USEFUL INVENTIONS

Man has patented a device for slicing a tomato evenly and without squirting the juice. But the fellow who can devise a way of slicing onions without bringing the tear drops will get the gold medal.

NOT ONLY IN MOVIES

The Toledo guard who killed a robber and wounded another after he, himself, had been mortally wounded proves that the scenarist need only clip newspapers to get the most thrilling material he needs for crime stories.

MAKING A SQUEAL

Union musicians, who raised the price of their wares so high that the talkies came as a relief to theater managers, now seek to can the canned music from the air. Their action at least shows that they are squirming.

A GENTLE HINT

Now that the movie stars are shelling out to Uncle Sam so generously, the man who is making up his income tax report will think twice before purposely forgetting certain items that conveniently slipped his memory in recent years.

BOSTON BEANS

Sixty-eight books are now on the blacklist of Boston censors. This is the intellectual hub's way of exciting everybody to read them. If somebody would censor geography and history, our schoolboys might take more readily to them.

AND WHY NOT?

Senator Smoot suggests that the Colorado River dam be named for President Hoover. It would not only follow precedent but untangle the confusion caused by moving the site from Boulder to Black Canyon and still referring to it as the Boulder project.

INTERNATIONAL CRISIS

Coffee prices are getting so low it may be possible that boarding-houses will use the real stuff for the morning brew, says a Washington news digest. Suppose tea should "come tumbling after" and Sir Thomas Lipton couldn't afford to build a challenger?

OH, YEAH!

Lexicographers, planning up-to-date editions, are trying to keep step with the new talkie language. If precedent holds in drafting slang words and expressions into the dictionaries we may soon hear the school-teacher exclaim, "Sez you!" and the bright scholar reply, "Sez I."

MANY WILLING EARS

The fellows who are touting New Mexico's "bottomless pit" learned their stuff from the carriers of tales about wrecks that float below the surface of the ocean because the water is so dense and that other one about the bottom of the ocean never having been found in some places.

ENFORCEMENT TRIBULATIONS

According to a Federal Court decision, bootleggers may do business over private telephones and the enforcement officers are barred from learning the numbers. Also the government, which has enacted the liquor laws, collects income taxes from the profits of illicit booze and its rulings prevent the names of the bootleggers from reaching the prosecutor's office. The left hand not knowing what the right hand does, as it were.

AN IMPRESSIVE SHOWING

Evidence in support of prohibition is now being presented before the House Judiciary Committee and, judging by the first day's testimony, the friends of the Eighteenth Amendment have nothing to fear. The dry forces have already offset the opinions of the strongest wet witnesses—Pierre S. Du Pont and W. W. Atterbury—with Thomas A. Edison and Henry Ford, who are certainly entitled to at least equal credibility and standing; and they have produced, instead of an obscure magazine writer who retailed the gossip of a score of States, a nationally-known author who gave detailed facts gathered from genuinely reliable sources, with names, dates, places and figures to back up his assertion that only the disappearance of the legalized liquor traffic accounts for a surplus of national well-being that the figures show has accumulated during the decade now closing.

The data gathered to indicate that drinking among youth is not so prevalent as the wets would have the country believe, are significant. It is impossible exactly to compare the situation with that of former years, since there is no statistical evidence from preprohibition times with which it may be compared. So far as they go, the declarations of the witnesses that drinking among youth has decreased and is decreasing are entitled to considerable weight. But, because they are largely individual opinions, they are less important and impressive than the industrial and economic statistics which Samuel Crowther marshaled before the committee.

Of 129 industrial and business leaders whom Mr. Crowther interviewed, only one asserted that workingmen are spending as much money for intoxicants as formerly, while the majority declared their employees are spending "practically nothing" for drink. From everyone he drew evidence of improved home conditions, of higher standards of living, of wives freed from household burdens, of children attending school longer, of better food, more and better clothing. The factory statistics proved increased production and better workmanship. There was a clear gain that could not otherwise be accounted for, of 15 per cent. The realized national income leaped from $63,000,000,000 in 1921 to $89,000,000,000 in 1928—a gain out of all proportion to that recorded in any preceding comparable period.

"Every figure of wealth that we know has steadily climbed," said Mr. Crowther. "The index value of sales in department stores has gone from 87 in 1921 to 108 in 1928, and in mail-order houses from 67 to 137. In 1919 we had only 2000 electric refrigerators and in 1928 nearly 1,250,000 . . ."

And so on, Mr. Crowther driving his argument home to the hilt with an astounding array of figures, of which not the least startling was the increase in number of savings-bank depositors from 18,000,000 to 53,000,000 and of life-insurance policy holders from 13,000,000 to 27,000,000.

Even allowing a yearly expenditure of $1,000,000,000 for intoxicants at the present time, there is a large saving, said Mr. Crowther, since at the prewar average the present expenditure would be $3,000,000,000.

Another witness who presented concrete facts hard for wets to explain away was Henry M. Johnson of Louisville, Ky., which was formerly the nation's center for whisky distilling and which would normally be expected to suffer from the destruction of its principal industry. Instead, Louisville has had a gain of 40 per cent in population, its factory output has doubled, building permits multiplied several times and savings two and three-quarter times.

Mr. Johnson's evidence applied only to Louisville, while Mr. Crowther's was drawn from a much wider area. Unless their testimony is controverted—and everybody knows it is incontrovertible—it alone ought to be enough to settle the question.

ARTHUR TWINING HADLEY

A young sophomore who, without previous preparation, could get up on a box and make a creditable address upon any subject assigned to him by his fellow-classmen, might reasonably be expected to develop future forensic and other intellectual ability in a high degree and to win an elevated position in life. Such a man was Arthur Twining Hadley and that was precisely what he did, for after taking prizes for oratory and for proficiency in Greek and Latin he became a successful teacher at Yale and in his forty-second year was elected to the presidency of that great educational institution.

Dr. Hadley, whose death in Japan is announced by the cables, was a student all his life. It has been said of him that his knowledge covered a wider range of subjects than that of almost any other university official in the country. He spoke all the European languages, had a thorough training in economics and it was said of him that there was hardly a subject in the Yale curriculum that he could not teach. He developed a fine capacity for carrying on different lines of educational work at the same time.

The practical nature of Dr. Hadley was shown by his ability in financing a university. He doubled the Yale endowments, raised the standard of its professorship and greatly increased the prestige of the institution. At the age of 65 he retired from the presidency, but as president-emeritus continued to work for Yale and to add to achievements. His death at 73 removes one of the greatest of our educators, but his moral and intellectual influence long will remain.

THE BRIGHTEST

The brightest student in San Bernardino Junior High is a 14-year-old Japanese girl born in this country. Her principal says that her grades are as near perfect as any pupil ever achieves.

Kirata Masako has studied twelve subjects since enrolling in the Junior High in 1928 and she has never failed to get a grade of one, or one plus, in any class. She shines in algebra and foreign languages.

She studies three or four hours every night. Nor can she take her problems home to her parents; for they have meager education. When she finishes her school life, she expects to go to Japan to teach English. Even if she has to wash dishes to do it, she says she is going to college.

In these days of race frictions, it may be well for us to stop and meditate. The youth of other colors are acquiring knowledge. Tremendous forces are being released and stored in their lives. Japan is said to have the lowest illiteracy of any nation under the sun.

Our own youngsters are obtaining a healthful regard for those of foreign extraction. Youth is instinctively just. It can see through false standards and harsh ideals. The coming generations may fight some of the wrongs of today.

For a girl with no culture in her ancestry to outdistance our own stock in study should inspire the heredity specialists to sit up and rub their eyes.

The race is not going to the bowwows. The world is just awaking. We might as well know that it is morning everywhere. A great admiration and sympathy should possess us for all peoples.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

CHEER up, fellers. This is going to be a good colyum. Instead of writing it ourself we're just going to quote our contributors.

AH! THE CHARM OF IT'S SIMPLICITY!

C. S. calls our attention to the sign on Colorado street, Pasadena, near Marengo which reads:

OLD ANTIQUES
From Norway, Sweden, France, Etc.

Well, we've seen lots of antiques which weren't very old.

Another Pasadena sign which interests C. B. is on West Washington. It suggests the achievement of a lifetime ambition—especially when one observes an elderly lady puttering around the flowers. The sign reads:

"ATLASTAHOME."

Stings From Mrs. Asp

Leeside: Why don't you say something about the pests who annoy a contented housewife over the telephone?

The electric washer is humming away. The hose is running water into the machine. The phone rings. I shut off the motor, but forgot to turn off the water. I dry my hands on my apron and grab the receiver. "Mrs. Asp speaking."

Voice: Mrs. Asp, this is Mrs. Willoughby Connors speaking. I wonder if you won't be so kind as to be one of a little motor party we're making up to go to Vista View?

"Who the dickens," I ask myself, "is Mrs. Willoughby Connors? Wasn't that the name of that charming little lady I met at the club last Wednesday?" Then, aloud: "Oh, that's awfully nice of you, Mrs. Connors. When is it to be?"

"Right now, if that suits you. Or this afternoon. Or maybe Sunday."

That seems a little too accommodating. Fear and suspicion seize me. "And where is it you say you are going?"

"To Vista View, that beautiful new subdivision—"

BUT I'M A BUSY WOMAN!

"Oh, thank you ever so much, Mrs. Connors. But I really haven't time."

"Then wouldn't your husband like to take the trip. It's really a most unusual opportunity—"

"No, I'm sure he wouldn't." That sweet feminine voice sounds awfully young and good looking, somehow. "You know, he's a very busy man."

By that time I hear the water running over. By the time I get the flood swept up I'll be half an hour late with my washing.

I take time out to set my pie in the oven for the meringue to brown. The phone rings again.

"No, I haven't anything to send to the cleaners. No, my husband hasn't either." "Don't the curtains need laundering?" I gasp and wonder if some kind friend has suggested that. I am staggered for a minute, while I steal a glance at the curtains. No, they are quite respectable. But my momentary weakness has given the person at the other end of the wire time to think up some more suggestions.

I remember my pie and impolitely hang up. But too late!

I do hope they hurry up with television, so that soon we may run to the phone, see who is ringing us without answering and then not answer at all if we don't want to.—Mrs. Beulah Asp (plus L. S.)

Explaining Above Signature

We took some liberties with Mrs. Asp's letter and so, being exceedingly conscientious (as the boss so often remarks) we plead guilty to anything in it not up to her high standards. We are impelled to do this by another letter, from our faithful contrib, Isadore Moidel, which raises the question, Is it fair for a colyum conductor to alter prose or verse submitted by a contrib? "How a contrib can see his brain child in print distorted or improved by a columnist without doing him great bodily injury passes human understanding," asserts Isadore.

'SNAPPER, ISADORE!

The thought makes us tremble. What a lot of folks there must be in Los Angeles who yearn to do us great bodily injury.

More Names

Leeside: At the corner of Wilshire and La Brea you see the signs of Dr. Lynx and Dr. Freese. Suggests the fur trade up north, eh?

A block west of that one sees the sign of C. Moore. Any relation to Seymour Seitz?

DR. TRICK
DR. BAER
DR. STOPPER

The Way of the World

Flush, and the world will greet you!
Broke, and you herd alone!
For you cut no ice when you haven't the price,
And no good friend you can "bone."
Wealthy, and how they'll love you
As long as you've got a cent!
They'll paster your soul when you flash a roll,
And kick you out when it's spent!

Spend, and the world comes flocking,
To follow where'er you lead.
Borrow a sou, and they'll glare at you,
And ask who you're trying to bleed!
Win, and they'll "take one on you,"
Lose, and you'll be the goat!
You are up a peg—till they've pulled your leg,
And then they'll set you afloat!

Smoke, and you pay for the stogies!
If you want one, nobody buys!
'Twas ever that way since Adam's day,
For people are worldly wise!

There's room for you in their auto
If you'll pay as they eat and dance,
But you bet your skates they will make no dates
When there's fringe on your Sunday pants!

E. A. BRININSTOOL.

THE MANATEE

By James J. Montague

The dullest creature in the sea,
They tell me, is the manatee.

Although it grows to be as large
And sometimes larger than a barge,

And must, with so much beam and length,
Possess a great amount of strength,

It never fights, it never bites,
But feeds on oceanic mites.

It hides away in bayous dark
Because it fears the blustering shark,

And flees afar, with craven cries
From fishes of inferior size.

It could, should it elect to, be
A very bully of the sea,

And feed, whenever it might wish,
On any sort or kind of fish,

Instead of which, its whole career
Is one of cowardice and fear.

Yet strange survivals, now and then,
Are found in manatees and men,

And how our universe is planned
Is something we can't understand.

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

PRECEDENCE BY LOT

[Chicago Tribune]

When Thomas Jefferson was President the social rules were what might have been expected of the great Democrat. So far as he could he had destroyed the Norman influence in Anglo-Saxon civilization. In his philosophy American rights were the rights of Saxons and he had torn down the Norman superstructure of feudalism, of aristocratic land tenure, titles, privilege and distinction. When there was a party at the White House there was employed what he called the pelemele system. Things happened as they happened. The folk found chairs and table places as they found them.

The restoration of the Jeffersonian manner for social Washington has an undeniable attractiveness, but there is an apparent reluctance to return to the simple ways. Even in his time there were objections to it because the person of the greatest aristocratic pretension was not always the fleetest of foot or the best line bucker. Albie Booth or Bronco Nagurski might be halfway through their meal before the attendants got the rest of the jam out of the doorway. Mr. Merry, the British Minister, was deeply pained by his failure to maintain the prestige of that proud empire. Nevertheless, it was democratic and a pleasing spectacle to anyone of sporting instincts.

THE BEST JOKE OF ALL

[Baltimore Sun]

The latest subversive movement against Fascism in Italy takes the form of supposedly humorous anecdotes and jokes, which are circulated from mouth to mouth, or posted on heroic statuary in the dead of night, after the manner of the medieval Pasquinades. This undermining anecdotage is to be rooted out remorselessly by the government. "You must absolutely uproot this disloyal, malign campaign," were the very words of Signor Turati in his instructions to federal secretaries throughout Italy. The press has taken up the quip problem in a serious way, suggesting that wise crackers be transported to appropriate colonies, the reason for their exile being published in the newspapers.

Only of Mussolini could such a report be believed. Hardly another man in all history would have taken himself so seriously as to risk the flood of jokes and jibes which must result when newspapers print columns of names headed by the introduction, "The following have been sent to penal colonies for telling funny stories about Fascism." Once those lists begin to appear it would seem that all necessity for other humor in Italy will disappear. Surely no anecdote beginning "It seems there was a couple of Black Shirts stopped at an inn" could be any more upsetting than publication of a list of Italians sent to the mines for imitating Will Rogers.

BE SPECIFIC

A banker writing in the American Magazine says "a college education sets a man back three or four years." Why speak vaguely of "a man"? Why not come out frankly and say "Father"?

LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

"To What Base Uses . . ."

LOS ANGELES, March 3.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have never owned a radio, because whenever I went to a friend's house, my ears were assailed by the most terrible noises that could not be endured by even a wild Hottentot. I attributed it, hastily and ungenerously, to the weird taste of my friends.

Last week I bought a radio for a specific purpose, and incidentally have tried to get an uninterrupted series of good music. It is utterly impossible. Even if the horrible jazz was tolerable, the intervening raucous announcer-advertiser is vile beyond words. It seems sad that science in America should have brought this invention to such a pitch of perfection only to be abused by false announcements of worthless articles and service, among other things, by voices that would degrade an anthropoid ape, interspersed with sickly moanings and fearsome shouts. Art in this country has so lagged behind science that it is not even infantile; it is just imbecilic.

CECIL E. REYNOLDS.

Found Inspectors Courteous

LONG BEACH, March 3.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read the article in your last Sunday's issue concerning "The Motor War at the State Border" with interest and amazement.

I entered California from Arizona last Sunday week at Yuma and naturally I was stopped for the inspection and I want to say that I found the inspectors courteous, considerate and obliging. They made their inspection with as little delay and trouble as possible. There was not a single thing that anyone could find fault with and those who did have trouble must have invited it and got all that was coming to them. There are a lot of people in this world who think they are above all laws and regulation and they are the ones who do most of the kicking.

Since I left Knoxville, Tenn., last November I have had my baggage inspected three times in Florida, once in Alabama, twice in Arizona and once in California and in every instance I have found the officers courteous and anxious to make as little trouble as possible.

The Horrible Example?

LOS ANGELES, March 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A suggestion to curb, if not cure, reckless driving: Compel those convicted to equip their cars with license plates larger than standard. Results:

Except in accidents causing death or serious injury, judges and juries need not deprive the offender of possible means of making a living by loss of license or imprisonment.

Distinctive sign would be warning to pedestrians and other drivers—"Clear the track! Here comes a reckless driver."

Larger figures would be discernible at greater distance in hit-and-run cases.

R. W. GRINTON.

Street-Car Companies Do It

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] There are very few street-car accidents. The street-car companies boast of the hundreds of millions of passengers they carry without a casualty. You never heard of a drunken motorman running amuck and killing a lot of people. Why? Because the electric railway officials take great care whom they hire to run their cars. Applicants for positions as motormen are required to take a very thorough physical examination and very careful inquiry is made as to the applicant's character and past record and especially as to his drinking habits.

But any drunkard or cripple, or degenerate or lunatic can get a driver's license from the State of California and be permitted to turn our highways into slaughter pens. If the State will exercise the same care in issuing drivers' licenses as the electric railway companies exercise in hiring motormen, automobile accidents may be made as infrequent as street-car accidents.

A SONG OF THE SOUL

I am the glad chameleon of life;
Transparent spirit of all time am I;
Mine is the joy and freedom of all worlds;
I am the darling of Eternity.

All light and color through my body shine—
Yet I am more than color, more than light.
To me belongs the russet-tinted dawn,
The saffron sunset and the dark blue night.

Appearing green upon the emerald lea,
Upon the iris purple I appear;
Mine are the gold and brown of autumn leaves,
Mine are all colors of the changing year.

Though I may seem to change, I am the same
Through all the changes wrought in time and space;
Clear as a dewdrop on a dawn-born rose,
I rest forever in my Holy Place.

EXPENSIVE VERBOSITY

BY ALMA WHITAKER

The cost of club speakers goes upper and upper. The larger women's clubs nowadays usually have several programs a year for which they pay the speakers anywhere from $500 to $1000 apiece.

Now it's all very well, but anyone who gets paid that amount of money for an hour's talk ought to be good. He should be exceptional, not alone in the subject matter, but in the delivery thereof.

Count Keyserling got $1000 for his speech at the Friday Morning Club, but, as the club charged for the tickets they did not lose on it. Nevertheless, the Count spoke very poor English, was too excited to make his points well and really said very little that the clubs themselves did not already know all about. The result was highly profitable for the Count however, because we had played him up so well in Los Angeles, that he was swamped with contracts to write for magazines galore afterward. Under the circumstances the Friday Morning Club should really have received a commission.

Edna Vincent Millay received $600 for her recent talk here. She was half an hour late, for apparently no good reason, and felt that no apology was necessary "because audiences have often kept me waiting." Then she was worried about the hooks on her dress and fastened them several times right there on the platform. She read her own poems for three-quarters of an hour, very badly, so that all the value of the finer passages was lost. Now I ask you, was that worth $600?

One can think of a dozen local women who would have read those poems far more dramatically and interestinly for about $35 . . . Even Loretta Vallely, Lillian Burkhart Goldsmith or Aileen Greenwood would not have charged more than $75. Dorothea Moore would have done it sumptuously for nothing.

Or take Bertrand Russell, heralded as something frightfully special, and expected to be as shocking and provocative as his books. He traced the history of civilization for us, via ox wagons to airplanes and got in telephones, radio et al, which Rabbi Magnin would have made infinitely more interesting in return for lunch and the right to get a good word in for the Community Chest, which was raging at the time. But Bertrand was a most expensive luxury. Both he and Edna doubtless boosted the sale of their books, so here again the club should really have received a commission.

At the same time, most of our best local speakers are expected to be good children and give free performances and are lucky if the lunch or the dinner is fit to eat. They are considered most ungracious if they decline and disgustingly mercenary if they ask for $25 or $50. Dear old John McGroarty is one of the arch-victims of the "free speech" oppression.

Of course the men's clubs and organizations are much cleverer. The women's clubs get the speakers out here and pay them the fancy fees, the men's clubs graciously entertain them later—for nothing. The Breakfast Club never pays for speakers, but gets the world's celebrities the moment they show up, in exchange for ham-and-eggs.

The Southern California Woman's Press Club does rather well, too, because, with a title like that the celebrities always think they will be addressing newspaper women, who, although they don't pay, can probably be counted upon for some useful publicity. But it so happens that there are no really active newspaper women in that club, since they are mostly magazine and fiction writers.

I once jumped on the clubs for not paying their speakers. Now the situation is even more aggravating, because they pay a few of them enormous fees and the rest of them as little as they dare, or not at all if they can get away with it. And anyone who provides a program that the club wants to listen to is worth paying.

The situation is quite ironical. The army of darlings who are making free speeches galore naturally hear about those $600 and $1000 fees a bit cynically. And probably chuckle with malicious delight when they are punk. Plenty of chuckles lately.

HEIRS FORBIDDEN TO USE EITHER TOBACCO OR RUM

Heirs to the $100,000 estate of the late Francis J. Struck must refrain from the use of tobacco and liquor, according to the terms of Struck's will.

One of the clauses of the will reads as follows: "If any of my heirs become drunkards or marry drunkards they will be cut off, and their share divided among the sober ones. I also will that none of my heirs use any tobacco and liquor and be good law-abiding Catholic American people."

One-third of the estate was ordered divided among the Little Sisters of the Poor, Catholic Orphans' Home and the Roman Catholic schools in Los Angeles. Two-thirds was bequeathed to Mary J. Bibo, sister, and her five children, who live in Pekin and Delavan, Ill.

and eggs at the Breakfast Club," pursued the attorney, "did you pay for that?"

"That was a gift to my wife from the managers of the club," replied Westmore, a trifle stiffly.

SENTENCE TO STAND

Further questioning revealed that Westmore married his first wife December 24, 1921, and separated on June 21, 1926. They have one child, Merrill, 4 years of age. Their divorce decree was granted October 13, 1927.

So Judge Guerin ordered Westmore to pay his first wife $125 a month, and ordered him to make up at the rate of $25 a month $1600 back alimony, which was ordered for the support of his child by Superior Judge Schauer at a former hearing. A suspended sentence of five days in jail imposed by Judge Schauer will remain in force, Judge Guerin ordered, as long as the alimony order stands.

Man Slips Away as Slipper Slips

If R. C. Maxwell of 1215 South Serrano street had not stopped to pick up his slipper a suspected Peeping Tom might have been captured.

Maxwell told police that when his wife screamed at a man's face peering in through her bedroom window he grabbed a revolver, his bathrobe and slippers, and ran out. He cried out to the prowler to stop or he would shoot, but the man continued on. Maxwell fired two shots. At the second shot Maxwell said he saw the man stagger. Then Maxwell lost one of his slippers. He stopped to retrieve it and when he had done so the man had vanished.

Two Women and Two Men Held for Operating Their Cars While Drunk

Two women and two men were held for trial by Superior Court on drunk-driving charges and a third man was bound over on hit-and-run driving charges following preliminary hearings in Municipal Court.

Mrs. Jessie Ward, 32 years of age, waitress, residing at 1702 South Grand avenue, was held on drunk-driving charges by Municipal Judge Turney after witnesses testified that she collided with S. R. Williams, messenger boy, at Grand avenue and Ninth street, knocking him off his bicycle.

Municipal Judge Russill ordered Mrs. Gertrude M. Whyler, 34, of 807 North Orange Drive, bound over for trial on similar charges. Police officers testified they arrested her at Beverly Boulevard and Normandie avenue after complaints that she was driving unsteadily.

Judge Russill also held John J. Mathew, 29, negro bootblack, residing at 1365 East One Hundred and Eighth street, on hit-and-run driving charges. Witnesses declared Mathews's automobile mounted the curb at One Hundred and Third and Beach streets, knocking down William Stewart of 1306 Forest street, Pasadena, who was on the sidewalk and breaking his ankle.

APPETITES MUST BE AROUSED

Essential Foods "Go Begging" When Lacking in Flavor

Foods rich in vitamins, minerals and roughage often become tiresome to the taste. This may be due to incorrect cooking or the fact that the food itself is lacking in flavor.

Vegetables are outstanding in the class of foods that "go begging." Spinach is rejected because its flavor is too mild. Tomatoes are often "turned down" because their flavor is too sharp. Carrots and peas, when too old, or cooked too long, become tasteless.

By using sugar to season these vegetables as they cook, their flavor will be noticeably improved. A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt is a good rule to follow. It is surprising how this combination will heighten, for example, the mild flavor of spinach and pleasantly soften the sharp taste of tomatoes.

Doctors and dietitians are heartily in favor of this use of sugar in making essential foods more pleasant to the taste—not only of adults but of children. They also approve the serving of wholesome desserts as a means to introduce variety as well as nourishment in the diet. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

WHITEFOOT ENJOYS THE JOKE

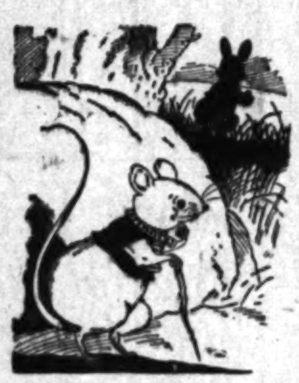
The most retiring sort of folk
Will sometimes have their little joke.
—Whitefoot the Wood Mouse.

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse is one of the most timid of all the little people in the Green Forest. He has every reason to be timid. No one has more hungry folk looking for him than does Whitefoot. Wherever he may be—on the ground or in a tree—he must always be watching for an enemy. Hooty the Owl, all the members of the Hawk family, Reddy Fox, Old Man Coyote, Yowler the Bobcat, Shadow the Weasel, Buster Bear when he is awake, even Butcher the Shrike are always looking for Whitefoot. Do you wonder that he is timid.

Now Whitefoot enjoys a joke. He knew all about the hunt for his home that Peter Rabbit was conducting. As a matter of fact, he more than once has sat in his doorway and watched Peter poking his wabbly little nose into this place and into that place; and as he watched he chuckled. He took care to make it a silent chuckle, however. He knew when Chatterer the Red Squirrel and Sammy Jay became curious and began hunting for his home. He heard them talk and he chuckled more than ever. He chuckled until his sides shook.

"I knew when I picked out this place for a home that it would be the safest place anywhere about," said Whitefoot to himself. "No one will ever think of looking here for my home. As long as I do not let any one see me entering it or leaving it, I can live here with the certainty that there will be nothing to fear while I am in it. I have had some good homes before, but never one quite like this one."

Meanwhile, Sammy Jay and Chatterer the Red Squirrel and Peter Rabbit were searching high and low. Sammy and Chatterer would have given up had it not been that two or three times they had had glimpses of Whitefoot. Before they could get near enough to him to ask him any questions, he had mysteriously disappeared. The very fact that he had disappeared so mysteriously had led those two clever little folk to suspect that it was true that Whitefoot had a home somewhere near—a home of which they knew nothing.



He knew all about the hunt for his home that Peter Rabbit was conducting

So Chatterer once more went over every stump and log and every tree that had a hole in it anywhere. And Sammy Jay once more went peering here and peering there. But it was quite all in vain. If only it were not so near spring, and there would come a nice, light fall of snow that would take the tracks of little feet, the finding of that hidden home would not be so difficult. Anyway, that is what Peter Rabbit thought. But there was no snow and so there were no dainty little footprints to follow.

"I don't see what Whitefoot wants to be so fussy for," said Peter as he scratched a long ear with a long hind foot.

"Don't you?" said a squeaky little voice. "If you were as little as I, and had so many people looking for you, you would never let any one know where your home is." It was Whitefoot himself. He sat on the end of an old log and daintily washed his face with his little white hands.

"You're enough to drive any one crazy," declared Peter. "You know very well that I wouldn't hurt you. All I want is just to know where your home is."

"A great many other people want to know the same thing," squeaked Whitefoot.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

TUNA SOUFFLE WITH GREEN PEAS

One medium-sized can of tuna, two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, one-half a cupful of fine bread crumbs, three eggs, one cupful of cooked green peas; flake the tuna, after draining it, and season with paprika, heat one-half cupful of milk and add the bread crumbs to it and allow to cook for five minutes, remove from the fire and add the well-beaten yolks of the three eggs, mix the lemon juice with the tuna and combine the two mixtures, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the three eggs, lastly adding the green peas. Place in a baking dish, or individual dishes, set in a pan of hot water and bake until set in a medium oven.

BAKED HONEY CUSTARD

Beat two eggs and two egg yolks, just enough to break them up, add a fourth of a teaspoonful of salt and one-third of a cupful of strained honey and beat again, add two cupfuls of cold milk and mix well. Place the mixture in custard cups, set in a pan. Place two or three folds of paper underneath the cups and then add sufficient water to come up two-thirds of the height, place in the oven and bake slowly until firm.

CHEESE PUDDING

Line a well-buttered baking dish with thin slices of buttered bread, grate over this a layer of cheese, over the top of this place a layer of chopped ripe olives and on top of this a layer of thinly sliced green peppers and pimientos, sprinkle this again with grated cheese, adding a seasoning of salt and paprika and a few drops of onion juice. Cover with slices of buttered bread, then take two cups of tomato soup, tomato puree or milk and add to it two well-beaten eggs, pour this liquid over the top of the pudding and allow it to soak into the bread, and if necessary add more liquid, according to the amount that has been used. The liquid should stand above the top of the bread. Place the baking dish in a pan of hot water, in a moderate oven until the pudding is firm in the center and lightly browned.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

WINDOWS SOUND NOTE OF DESERT

Coulter's Depicts Comfort Now Obtainable in Death Valley Resorts

BY OLIVE GRAY

Windows on the Seventh-street side at the Coulter Dry Goods Company are attracting interested crowds, both by reason of artistry and the subjects treated therein.

The desert, theme of continuously growing fascination, is presented in a setting redolent of the vast spaces—cacti, Death Valley holly and other growths, interspersed with such rocks as rear their heads in the silent places; while an age-worn neckyoke, remindful of the days of '49, a frying pan, bellows and other implements of the prospector, carry the thought to those quiet retreats ever the mecca of the old-time desert rat.

In vivid contrast, the sumptuous merchandise designed to furnish the quarters of the newest resorts in this once-shunned and now much-sought region is displayed in those windows—a romantic thought, the difference between the travel discomfort of early days in that desert, and the metropolitan luxuries of today.

Because of a reputation for fine bedding Coulter's was the choice of the newly extended hotels, in that fabled valley, and the section wherein are housed the glorious creations—St. Mary's blankets, the Kenwoods and other famous makes in blankets, together with bed linens of highest class—those sections which contributed to the window display, formed an interesting center, where the colors and qualities were under selection. Colors, soft as the clouds at evening time, fabrics fine as down, were among those chosen, by the manager of those hotels, W. T. Moreau, to furnish, in the midst of nature's austerities, the gracious comforts of the city. Romance and history join hands in that region where now are found three hotels equaling those of any metropolis. Far is the cry from the earliest days of the "Twenty-Mule Borax Teams," replica'd in the windows of Coulter's—an ingenious reproduction of those desert trains, done in borax—to the easy travel of now. As far a cry as that from the burro pack-train of early days to the Pullman and airplane of now, with Furnace Creek Inn, the Amargosa Hotel, and Death Valley View Hotel, as the present-day mecca, each caravansary possessed of its swimming pool, fed by fresh-water springs, by its golf course, and all the conveniences of the great resorts, in leading cities.

County Will Test Plan to Grow Deodars

One pound of deodar tree seeds from India will play the principal role in an experiment to be conducted by County Forester Turner to determine if nonresinous trees can be raised in Los Angeles county forest areas as a means of lessening the fire hazard.

The seeds were received yesterday by the county forester's office and, according to Chief Assistant Forester Davis, will be planted in the county forest demonstration tract on Henninger Flats near Mt. Wilson.

The seedlings will be transplanted next year in various parts of the county. The Indian deodar, according to Davis, is nonresinous, and will lessen the forest fire menace if it can be successfully grown here.

The post's personnel is composed of World War veterans who are now peace officers.

PARENTS SHOULD SELDOM INTERFERE WITH CHILDREN'S FIGHTS

If children never fought, if they never bit and hit, snatched each other's playthings, teased or chased each other, we could be certain they weren't really human. Long before they reach the age when they smile while preferring to growl, and give up when they would rather hang on, they go through the perfectly natural period of trying to get all they can without scruple as to methods.

Parents are seemingly confused about how to deal with this battling stage, not only in their own family but when complicated by neighbors. The following experiences are illuminating and interesting:

"I have boys of 4 and 2 years," writes Mrs. F. D. "We have a frequent visitor of 3 years who evidently has never been refused anything he wanted, whether good for him or not. The older children in his own family have no rights at all.

"He does not fight when he comes over here, but when he wants a toy he says, 'I'll go home if you don't give it to me.' The children want him to stay and so give him what he wants.

"Recently I listened in, and when I heard him say this I insisted that he go home. That was two weeks ago, and I notice that he no longer makes that threat. I made it plain that each is to have his turn, and though it takes endless repetition, it really works after a time. I find them settling their disputes by saying, 'Let's each have a chance.' As for what the neighbor thinks when her child comes home sulking, I am not concerned. I don't want my children to grow up spineless and afraid to stand up for their rights."

NEIGHBORHOOD BULLY PUT IN PLACE

Another interesting experience is related by Mrs. A. L. O.: "We had a little neighbor girl who bullied everyone. If she didn't get what she wanted, some one was hurt. Every day the children ran in screaming because she had hit them, or was about to. I got tired of this, so one day I grabbed the pursued child and held her until the chaser arrived. Then I told my child to go to it,

WYMAN'S ANSWERS

APPLE ICE BOX CAKE

Glendale, Cal.: One level of gelatine, the yolks one teaspoonful of rind, two tablespoon- juice, two-thirds of a crushed pineapple, one- cupful of cold water, one- of cream, whites of one-half a cupful of su- a few grains of salt; beat the yolks of the eggs slightly, add the grated lemon rind, lemon juice, sugar and salt. Place in a double boiler, stir and cook until thick; remove from the fire and add the gelatine, which has been soaked in the cold water, and the crushed pineapple. When the mixture begins to thicken, cool, add the cream beaten until stiff, to which has been added the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, turn into a wet mold and chill. The sides of the mold can be lined with lady fingers or slices of stale sponge cake. Remove from the mold, garnish with slices of pineapple and cherries.

MEAT LOAF

Mix one pound of ground round steak with one pound of ground veal, season with salt, pepper and two tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, add one canful of chopped mushrooms to the meat mixture, one tablespoonful of poultry seasoning, one-half of a clove of chopped garlic and one teaspoonful of dry mustard; mix thoroughly and add just enough bread crumbs to make the consistency of soft dough. Make into a roll, wrap in oiled paper, folding it so as to keep in all of the juices, place in a baking dish in a rather hot oven for fifteen minutes, then reduce the heat and bake slowly for thirty minutes longer.

ENGLISH DOUGH CAKE

E. W. M., Los Angeles, Cal.: Hope this is what you want, but, never having remembered a grandmother, I am unable to give you as old a recipe as that, although this one is supposed to be 200 years of age. This is a rather large recipe, but you can cut it down to fit your needs:

Six cupfuls of flour, four cupfuls of sugar, two and one-half cupfuls of shortening, one quart of milk, three eggs, two teaspoonfuls of nutmeg, two teaspoonfuls of mace, one pound of raisins, one-fourth of a pound of citron, one cake of yeast, one-half teaspoonful of salt; dissolve the yeast cake in one cupful of lukewarm milk. Heat the remainder of the milk almost to a scalding point, sift the flour and chop the shortening into it until thoroughly blended and add the milk as hot as can be handled, beat well, then add the yeast. Place in a bowl that has been oiled and keep in a warm place until double in size or in bulk. Warm the sugar and beat into it the eggs and spices and work this all into the dough; let rise a second time, then work in the raisins and chopped citron. Place it in pans and let rise again; when light place in a hot oven for twenty minutes and reduce the heat and continue the baking.

GEFUELLTE FISH

A. L., Duarte, Cal.: There are three or four different ways of making gefuellte fish, but this is one of the best:

Take four pounds of two different kinds of fish, halibut and rock cod go nicely together, or carp and strip bass. Clean and wash the fish, cut it in small pieces, sprinkle lightly with salt and let stand for one hour, skin the fish and remove all the bones, then chop it as fine as possible, chop two medium-sized onions, two small carrots and one tablespoonful of parsley chopped, mix with the fish, add one-half a cupful of stale bread crumbs, three whole eggs and a seasoning of white pepper, then chop or grind all the ingredients together; make regular fish balls; place in a saucepan four cupfuls of water, add to it one sliced carrot, one-half of a sliced onion, three stalks of celery and one branch of parsley, and the skin and bones from the fish; add the fish balls to this mixture and let simmer slowly for two hours, remove the fish balls to a hot platter, strain the gravy and add to it the well-beaten yolks of three eggs; let simmer for five minutes and pour over the fish balls.

BAKED FISH

You ask what can be used in the place of salt or pepper for seasoning baked fish. Nothing at all, unless you would use the Japanese Soyu sauce.

It is altogether according to the size or, rather, weight, of your chicken how long it would take to broil, but averages fifteen minutes to the pound.

PICKLED RED CABBAGE

Santa Monica, Cal.: Select a medium-sized head of hard red cabbage, remove the outer leaves and stalk, then cut the cabbage in quarters; shred fine and allow cold water to run through it for about five minutes. Place the layers of cabbage in an enamel dish, over each layer place two or three thin slices of red onions and sprinkle with four generous tablespoonfuls of salt. Repeat this until all has been used, making the last layer of salt, pour over two cupfuls of cold water and cover with a plate and a heavy weight on it. Stand in a cold place overnight. Next morning pour into a colander and allow the cold water to run through it again for five minutes, place in a saucepan two cupfuls of cider vinegar, one-third of a cupful of tarragon vinegar, one cupful of water, two cupfuls of sugar, four bay leaves, a level tablespoonful of allspice, a teaspoonful of pepper corns and three ounces of stick cinnamon, allow to boil for one minute, pour over the cabbage, cover.

Let stand for twenty-four hours. Drain off the vinegar, heat until it just comes to a boil, cover the cabbage with it, will be ready for use in two weeks.

WATER BOND DRIVE WILL BE STARTED

Headquarters Opened by Citizens' Committee With Moreland in Charge

Water bond campaign headquarters were officially opened yesterday at the Alexandria. Activities of the Citizens' Committee are to be centered at these offices.

An educational program is to be carried on until election day, May 20. A statement from Mayor Porter is to be issued within the next few days, and the members of the committee will outline the policy of the Water Board and of the city officials with regard to the expenditure of this money when the bonds are voted.

Watt L. Moreland, general chairman of the Citizens' Committee, returned from the East yesterday after an important conference. He is president of the Moreland Motor Truck Company, and will be in active charge of operations of the committee.

An executive session was held yesterday with Mr. Moreland presiding. The need for these bonds was particularly stressed. It was the sentiment of the committee that this campaign is to be a voluntary one, in which every part of the city will be covered by those who feel it is incumbent upon them to acquaint the voters of the facts involved in this $38,800,000 bond issue.

Baby Departs by Plane for Visit in East

As one of the youngest airplane passengers on record to take off from Los Angeles, Lynda Squier, 18 months of age, boarded a plane with her mother, Mrs. Carl B. Squier, at the United Airport yesterday bound for Detroit. The ship was piloted by Lieut. Herbert Fahy, who also was accompanied by his wife.

Baby Lynda is the daughter of Carl B. Squier, general manager of the Lockheed plant in Los Angeles. Mrs. Squier will visit her relatives and old home in Detroit. The length of their stay is indefinite and it is probable Squier will fly to Detroit to bring his family back when they get ready to return.

Fahy and his wife will return immediately to Los Angeles to complete their plans for an around-the-world flight that is being fostered by the Detroit Aircraft Corporation, owners of the Lockheed company. Fahy's trip will be eastward.

DIVERSIFIED PROGRAM FOR COOKING SCHOOL

The program for the Los Angeles Times' cooking school today is so diversified that it should interest every woman. It ranges from a three-layer pumpkin pie, made with custard and meringue, to stewed tripe Creole and includes such unusual dishes as Russian stuffed apples, which are baked apples stuffed with mincemeat and served with whipped cream and grated cheese, "rollies" filled with grapelade, and a pineapple sponge filling for cake. In addition there will be a demonstration of that often-requested dessert, ice box cake. This will be made by Mary Ellen Page of the Guasti Company, who will serve samples to those attending the class. The Times invites everyone to attend these free classes, which are held every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock in the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

Flyer to Try Again for Altitude Mark

Joe Nikrent of N.A.A.A. and Marshall Headle

A TEMPERATURE of 20 deg. below zero yesterday balked the attempt of Lieut. Marshall Headle, chief Lockheed test pilot, to set a new altitude record. He had attained a height of approximately 25,000 feet, according to officials, when intense cold compelled him to abandon the undertaking. The plane is a specially designed craft. Headle plans to make another try as soon as he receives an electrically heated pilot's suit. This is expected to arrive within the next day or two.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS

Flower-Street Improving and Hollywood Cemetery Cases Submitted Last Day of Session Here

With the submission of two important civil cases involving the proposed Flower-street improvement project and the Hollywood Cemetery Association litigation over the sale of property to satisfy bonds issued for improvement purposes, the State Supreme Court adjourned late yesterday after a three-day session here.

In the Flower-street improvement project, two cases were before the court in which the reassessment ordered by Superior Court was attacked. These were contested by the Zoberlein Corporation and William Brill, both property owners in the area affected by the proposed opening and widening of Flower street between Washington street and Exposition Boulevard, and the opening of a new street from Exposition Boulevard to Thirty-eighth street.

It was contended by appellants that Superior Court lacked jurisdiction to order reassessment. In its decision the lower court upheld the legality of condemnation proceedings begun by the city, and declared void the assessment originally made, and ordered reassessment.

In the appeal of the Hollywood Cemetery Association the validity of a Superior Court judgment ordering the sale of property covered by bonds for the improvement of Van Ness avenue, is questioned. The cemetery association rested its case in the contention that no right existed to sell cemetery property which is exempt from assessment for improvement purposes.

Chief Justice Waste ordered the cause submitted with the filing of additional briefs and authorities on disputed points of law and fact.

FARM HOME AWARDS MADE

Winners in Contest Will be Announced Sunday in "Times" Farm and Garden Magazine

Winners in the first annual small farm home contest, sponsored by The Sunday Times and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, will be announced in a special number of the Farm and Garden Magazine next Sunday, according to Ross H. Gast, contest manager.

The objective of the contest, its sponsors declare, was to develop experience information on small farm home life in Southern California so that basic facts on this type of property may be given newcomers seeking to establish rural and suburban homes in Southern California.

As one condition of entry, contestants prepared a letter giving in detail their experiences and these letters, together with a sketch of their property, will be a regular feature of the Farm and Garden Magazine for several weeks. This information will guide the policy of the agricultural department of the Chamber of Commerce in locating people on this type of property.

The first annual small farm home contest was started last fall. Competition was opened to all small farm home owners in the ten southern counties. Three classifications—half-acre, acre and acre to two-and-a-half-acre properties — were made and three prizes were offered in each class. Nearly every county in the area responded and judges traveled more than 2000 miles in making the awards.

For the purpose of the contest, the small farm home was defined as a home, and not as a sustaining unit. The contest sponsors recognized that under certain conditions smaller places are self-sustaining, but the contest effort was mainly to determine just what part the small farm plays in the economic development of Southern California as a place of abode for those on sustaining employment elsewhere, or on retirement on income.

Letters received in the contest form an interesting and valuable human document, according to the contest manager, and are a commentary on the fact that Southern California is a place "where dreams come true."

HOSPITAL RITE DUE TODAY

With City Manager A. E. Stockberger officiating, the corner-stone of Los Angeles county's new health center at Alhambra will be laid at 10:30 a.m. today. The ceremonies will be attended by Supervisors Wright and Shaw and Dr. George H. Roth, in charge of laboratories of the county health department, and Dr. S. J. Stewart, Alhambra district medical director.

The new center will be erected at Sixth and Shorb streets, Alhambra, at a cost of $150,000, and will be sixth in a chain originated in 1925 by Dr. John L. Pomeroy, county health officer. It will be equipped with complete emergency hospital facilities calculated to serve the needs of the estimated 100,000 population in the San Gabriel Valley district.

Among the items to be sealed within the corner-stone today is a bound volume of editions of the Los Angeles County Health News, official organ of the health department.

AUSTRALIAN DISCUSSES RED PERIL

Melbourne Broker, Here on Visit, Tells of Trouble With Communists at Home

Communism is a thorn in the side of government in Australia, according to Charles S. Pinkus, Melbourne stock broker, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday for a visit preliminary to conducting a survey of business conditions in this country. Although the Labor Party is in power, Prime Minister Scullin having replaced Stanley Bruce at the last election, that fact has not tended to prevent strikes, widespread unemployment and frequent economic depressions, Pinkus declared.

"The commonwealth at present is in a rather poor way both financially and politically," the Australian stated, "but everyone is confident the situation will right itself in time. Crime has been on the increase since Reds started trickling into the country and most of it has been placed at their door by the authorities. However, our chief source of concern right now is the fact that the price of wool—our staple product—is down."

The visitor has been commissioned to investigate conditions here by Reuben Brasch, head of a large Melbourne mail-order house.

THIRD NETWORK AGAIN IN OFFING

New Nationwide Radio Chain Aim of New Yorkers

Federal Commission Now Considering Proposal

Varied Array of Melody in Programs for Today

The Times Forum, KHJ, 1:30 p.m.: Dr. Philip M. Lovell, in charge of the "Care of the Body" department of The Times magazine. World-wide news, 12:30, 4:45 and 10 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Establishment of a third broadcast network that eventually will cover the entire country is planned by New York interests, according to information just laid before the Federal Radio Commission at Washington. The key station of the new chain would be WGBS, New York, and the proposal is to extend the network first into New England, then the South and finally through the Middle West to the Pacific Coast.

While the two established networks have approximately seventy stations each, regularly affiliated with them, there are among the 500 or more additional stations a large number of broadcasters who would welcome the establishment of a new chain through which they could augment their own programs. Many of the stations which are said to have indicated a willingness to cooperate are of considerable power, but, as a matter of fact, high power is not a requsite for chain affiliation. Both of the present networks have small stations on their lists. WLAP, Louisville, Ky., of the Columbia Broadcasting System, is only a thirty-watt station.

BACKERS CONFIDENT

Efforts have been made in the past to maintain a third network, but have failed because of inadequate financing. Backers of the proposed chain, however, assert that they will be able to finance the project and can put it through if the Radio Commission will give Station WGBS, the key station, the frequency for which it has applied, 600 kilocycles (500 meters.)

A definite benefit could result from the competition of a third network, if it would result in a greater variety of offerings, particularly along education lines. Music, both popular and classical, is pretty well covered under the present situation. In fact, music dominates the field with a continuation of too much duplication.

DIAL LOG FOR TODAY

KHJ at 5 p.m. will bring Wesley Tourtellotte and Elvia Allman in a program of organ music and ballads. At 6 p.m. Clare Van Nostrand, contralto, and the Sunset Ensemble, directed by Christian Sprotte, will entertain with thirty minutes of melody-laden classics and semipopular ballads. At 7 o'clock tonight the Ballad Crooners will offer a program of vocal and instrumental novelty ensembles well worth listening to. At 9 Mary and Bob, in the True Story Hour, have chosen Pensacola, Fla., as the locale of a story dealing with two sisters and how they won glory out of adversity.

KFI at 7 o'clock tonight will feature "The White Dove" from "The Rogue Song" on the Armstrong Quaker Hour over the NBC. Victor Arden is to swing the baton in a program including "In a Persian Market" and the Drinking Song from "The Student Prince." At 8 tonight the University of Southern California vs. the University of Washington basketball game will be broadcast by remote control from the Olympic Auditorium. The team winning two out of three games will claim the championship of the Pacific Coast. At 9:15 tonight the KFI organ ensemble will have as its guest artist Evelyn Snow, soprano, in a featured recital.

BALANCED PROGRAM

KECA has an evenly balanced program throughout the evening. At 8 p.m. "The Hamilton Brown Sketch Book" will seek the answer to the question, "What would you do if you were in her shoes?" in a radio sketch. Amos 'n Andy are to be heard at 8:30, followed by John and Ned and the NBC Literary Digest Prohibition poll and news flashes.

KNX at noon is to present a program that should be well worth dialing. Tom Wallace, baritone, and Marie Golden and Ethel Kay, the piano twins, will feature the "Song of the Vagabonds," "The Rogue Song" and others. At 6:30 p.m. the KNX Little Symphony is to play selections from the "Merry Widow," "Happy Days" and "Valse Celebre," by Moskowsyi. At 9:45 tonight the main event from the Hollywood Legion Stadium will feature Joe Bitto and Ernie Owens, heavyweights.

KFWB at 9 o'clock tonight will have Mark Kelly, interviewing Wilson Mizner, one-time manager of Stanley Ketchel, on sport topics. Golfers at 12 noon will harken to Cecil and Sally—for Cecil is going to try to teach Sally golf.

Architect's Wife Sues Him Again

A second divorce complaint which was filed against McNeal Swasey, prominent Los Angeles architect, yesterday by his estranged wife, Mrs. Kathryn Gardner Swasey, asks a decree on grounds of asserted mental cruelty.

The first action, filed May 16, 1929, contained sensational charges, involving a society woman, who was named by Mrs. Swasey as co-respondent. Evidence on which this suit was based was gathered, according her attorneys, by means of a raid in which the architect and the other woman were reported to have been found together in an apartment at 427 South Normandie avenue. This action subsequently was withdrawn by the wife.

The present complaint states that Mrs. Swasey was deserted by her architect-husband in 1928 since which time they have been living apart. She is represented by Wier Casady, attorney.

PAVING ORDER ASKED

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE ASKS $6000 MONTHLY ALIMONY

Mrs. Margaret P. Whitaker, wife of Francis Whitaker, millionaire, who moved from Philadelphia to Beverly Hills, made one of the largest alimony demands on record in Superior Judge Guerin's court yesterday, when she told the court she simply has to have $6000 a month to keep herself up to the style to which she is accustomed.

Whitaker countered with a sworn statement that $800 a month is all that his wife ever had spent. He said his wife has an income of $1500 a month and a separate fortune of $167,000. Mrs. Whitaker then stated that she has just bought a home for which she has obligated herself to pay $300,000, and if she doesn't get a lot of alimony she will lose money on the deal.

To this statement, Whitaker replied that the place is worth only $220,000, which amount he said he has been offered, but she would not permit him to sell. On cross-examination Whitaker admitted he has an income of $75,000 a year.

After argument by Attorneys Roger Marchetti for the plaintiff, and W. I. Gilbert and George Bouchard for the defendant, Judge Guerin took the matter of alimony under advisement.

Mrs. Whitaker sued for separate maintenance, asserting her husband deserted her. Whitaker, four hours later, replied with a suit for divorce, in which he asserted that when he was in a hospital with a broken leg Mrs. Whitaker had gone with her cousin, who bears the name of Cleon Plato, on a hunting trip to Arizona.

CHAMNESS TO RUN FOR SUPERVISOR

Mayor of Whittier Seeks Seat in First District Now Filled by Beaty

Mayor Albert N. Chamness of Whittier, a prominent figure in East Side development, yesterday announced his candidacy for the office of County Supervisor from the First District, now represented by Fred Beaty, who has announced that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself.

ALBERT N. CHAMNESS

"Continued industrial and agricultural expansion of our district and of the county as a whole is dependent upon the proper solution of ever-present problems of taxation and water conservation and the unceasing development of water resources," said Mr. Chamness. "It has been my work and my pleasure to devote years of study to the problems of our district. I believe that through virtue of close association with the development of agricultural, horticultural and water resources of this territory I am equipped to serve the people intelligently and competently on the Board of Supervisors."

Mr. Chamness is also secretary-treasurer of Whittier College. Since 1917 he has been identified with that institution, for several years serving as chairman of the board of directors.

He is a member of the executive committee of the East Side Organization, past president of the North Whittier Citrus Association and is a member of the La Puente Walnut Growers' Association.

Mr. Whitehead is a graduate of Purdue University in electrical engineering.

FOREIGN MINISTER WILL ARRIVE TODAY

Dr. Leonidas Pitamic

JUGO-SLAVS WILL GREET THEIR ENVOY

Dr. Pitamic to Arrive Today for Inspection on Pleas for Consul

Dr. Leonidas Pitamic, Jugo-Slavian Minister to Washington, will arrive at the Southern Pacific station at 7:45 p.m. today and will be here until Monday to investigate conditions among his people who have requested that a consular office for Jugo-Slavia be established in this city. Dr. Pitamic will be a guest at the Ambassador.

Plans for his entertainment are being made by Los Angeles city officials, the Chamber of Commerce and prominent Jugo-Slavs who will greet him on his arrival.

Dr. Pitamic was professor of international law at the State University at Lubiana before his appointment to Washington. His book, "The State," is widely known.

"We are hoping that Dr. Pitamic will find our colony of 34,000 Jugo-Slavs worthy of a consular representative," said Michael Rokich, editor of the National Herald. "Ninety per cent of the fishing boats at San Pedro are owned by Jugo-Slavs, who also own two large canneries at Terminal Island. Seventy per cent of the street work done here has been in the hands of Jugo-Slav contractors and workers. We have nine benevolent societies, eight cultural clubs and two churches."

Trojan Men's Illness Leads to Cafe Inquiry

An investigation was started yesterday by the Los Angeles Health Department into the cause of the illness of twelve University of Southern California students after partaking Wednesday of food in the restaurant of J. W. Davis at 1600 South Main street. The restaurant was closed pending the inquiry.

Laboratory tests of the food dispensed at the place are being made by Dr. L. V. Dietz of the health department, and the illness of Nick Berrides, a dishwasher, who also was affected, is being investigated.

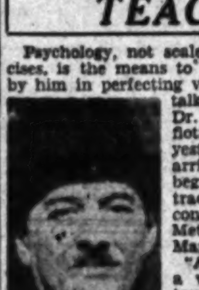
Dr. Parrish reported that none of the cases of illness appeared to be serious and that six of the students, treated at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, have been allowed to go home. The six include Spencer Murphy, George McDavid, Willard Wilson, Clifford Resehl, Douglas Dyer and Fred Harris.

LEGION SMOKER WILL DRAW LARGE CROWD

More than 2000 members of metropolitan Los Angeles American Legion posts will assemble at the Culver City Stadium tomorrow night to attend a smoker and vaudeville entertainment under the auspices of the seventeenth California district organization of the World War veterans' organization. Several boxing bouts, a wrestling exhibition and a score of vaudeville acts comprise the program. Proceeds will be devoted to purchase of new uniforms and equipment for the seventeenth district drum-and-bugle corps, which will represent thirty-five Los Angeles Legion posts at the Boston national convention in October.

PSYCHOLOGICAL VOICE TEACHING HIS METHOD

Psychology, not scales and exercises, is the means to be employed by him in perfecting voices for the talking screen, Dr. P. M. Marafioti announced yesterday on his arrival here to begin a contract as voice-consultant at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.



DR. P. M. MARAFIOTI

"Anybody with a voice can be taught to sing," he declared. "There is no such thing as a physically defective voice. Train the mind and leave the diaphragm alone. I trained a man with no larynx and a silver tube in his throat. He is now a phonograph record artist."

Dr. Marafioti, graduate of University of Naples, first joined the Metropolitan Opera Company as throat specialist and then evolved a system that upset the entire scheme of voice teaching. He is author of several books on the subject. Substantially his creed is that the natural voice, unhampered by rules of respiration or articulation, is the perfect voice.

COURT WINS PRAISE OF JURY PANEL

February Talesmen for District 14 Pause to Adopt Resolution

Most jurors are glad when their term of service is over and hurry to their homes.

One panel, however, which served during the February term in the court of Superior Judge Archbald, was different, so much so that considerable comment has been created.

The difference was revealed yesterday when a jury on being discharged by Judge Archbald handed him a sheet of paper on which was typewritten a set of resolutions commending the court. It read:

Whereas: we, the undersigned members of the jury panel of Department 14 in the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, have completed our service for the month of February, 1930, and

Whereas, we have enjoyed the opportunity of discharging our duty in this respect to the citizens of the county of Los Angeles, and,

Whereas, we have been impressed by the patient, courteous, just and efficient manner in which the proceedings have been conducted in Department 14 during our term of service. Now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, that we hereby express to the Honorable Harry R. Archbald, judge of Department 14, of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, our admiration of his ability and fitness and our appreciation of his service to the county and of his consideration for us as jurors. N. W. Thompson, Daisy Roebuck Maury, Elizabeth Walker, Thomas B. Wilson, H. Fanny Baily, Amelia C. Dekker, M. E. Nethercutt, D. L. Baker, Mrs. Mamie Thiers, Evagene Welborn, William Swyter and J. Paul Herdman.

SIGNING OF MANY PAPERS ENDS OIL TIDELAND WAR

More than 100 documents were signed and exchanged, according to attorneys, by various litigants in the Elwood oil field tideland warfare which has been in progress for more than a year and which officially came to an end with the signing of peace papers yesterday. The oil lands in question are located in Santa Barbara county and are valued at more than $30,000,000.

The Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Los Angeles acted as intermediary in the peace settlement yesterday. The heirs of Michael Den, the Barnsdall Oil Company, the Rio Grande Oil Company and the Reservoir Gasoline Company and others were arrayed on one side and the Bankline Oil and Gas Company, the Elwood Development Company and C. J. Mahoney on the other. The latter companies procured State tideland rights for drilling which were contested by the oil companies drilling on the Den rancho.

Rights of way, dismissals of suits, final grants and other legal assurances were included in the documents exchanged.

Real Estate Man Dies Suddenly

After collapsing suddenly yesterday while engaged in conversation Edwin N. McGee, real estate salesman, 992 Elden street, died in the office of F. E. Temple, 324 Walter P. Story Building. McGee had started to speak when he collapsed in a chair. Dr. Wyckoff with offices in the building, pronounced him dead, presumably of heart disease. The body was sent to the morgue.

McGee was 55 years of age and was associated with the real estate firm of Chelew & Holt, 3841 Wilshire Boulevard. A sister, Mrs. George Parmelee, lives in Montrose. McGee leaves his widow, a son and a daughter in Lansing, Mich., where he is reputed to own considerable property.

Hall and Bride Reported at Grand Canyon

Former Councilman Hall, who was married last Saturday to Miss Gertrude Engel in Phoenix, is honeymooning at the Grand Canyon and other places of interest in the Southwest. The wedding, which followed a three months' courtship, was supposed to remain a secret to all but relatives, and even though the news did get out somehow, their plans still remain somewhat shrouded in mystery.

Mrs. William H. Engel of 4412 Wesley avenue, mother of the bride, said yesterday that she expects Mr. and Mrs. Hall home on Sunday or Monday, but even that is not definite.

Mr. Hall returned to private law practice after running for the office of City Attorney last year. In 1927 he was married to Mrs. Blanche Matteson, who divorced him last March. His bride is 21 years of age.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED IN MYSTERY

Filipino Janitor Held in Connection With Hotel Guest's Disappearance

Alberto Bariatos, 32 years of age, Filipino janitor, last night was being held in the County Jail on a charge of suspicion of murder, while Sheriff's office investigators sought to explain the disappearance last December of Ed Brown from a Puente hotel.

Bariatos was turned over to Deputy Sheriffs Croushorn and Cloud of the homicide detail by police who arrested him Wednesday as a burglary suspect. Police reported finding on him keys to a local bank safety-deposit box which are believed to have been in possession of Brown when he disappeared on December 17, last, leaving his personal effects and automobile at the hotel where he was living.

Brown at the time of his disappearance, according to the officers, was employed by Jack P. Wilson of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, who stated that the keys belonged to him and that he had given them to Brown. Wilson expressed the belief that Brown may have been the victim of foul play.

OWNER OF HOLLYWOOD HOTEL DIES

Almira Parker Hershey, Well-Known Business Woman, Succumbs

Almira Parker Hershey, owner of the Hollywood Hotel and extensive real estate holdings in Hollywood, died yesterday in her eighty-seventh year. Born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Benjamin Hershey, a prosperous farmer, she became a resident of Muscatine, Iowa, in her teens when her father moved there to enter the lumber business, in which he amassed a fortune.

She was educated at a girls' school in Philadelphia and then spent a number of years as a young woman in Europe studying music. Although she became an accomplished musician, she never evidenced any desire to utilize her talents professionally.

It was in 1894 that Miss Hershey first came to this city, intending to remain only for a short visit, but she was so delighted with its charms that she decided to make her home here and had lived here ever since. It was more than a quarter of a century ago that she purchased the Hollywood Hotel, then a much smaller hostelry than it is at present, and soon after her purchase she had it built to its present size.

Although she did not regard herself as a business woman when she first came here, Miss Hershey became a great believer in the future of the city and particularly of Hollywood and became the owner of so much property that she soon became known as an astute business woman. She was always much interested in charitable enterprises but avoided publicity for her donations and did not act officially on the directorate of the organizations which she helped support.

Her only surviving relatives are a niece, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Geiger, of this city, and the latter's three sons by her first marriage. They are Clifford H. Bissell, a professor at the University of California; Kenneth M. Bissell, professor at the University of Southern California, and Malcolm H. Bissell, also a professor at U.S.C. Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. tomorrow at Hollywood Cemetery chapel by Theodore Curtis Abel, head of the Humanist Society, of which Miss Hershey was a member.

EIGHT RAIDS BY BANDITS REPORTED

Seven Business Places and Auto Driver Held Up in Quick Succession

Seven business establishments were held up and an automobile driver was robbed of his car by bandits last night. As most of the robberies occurred in quick succession the police believe several of them were committed by the same men.

The first occurred at the tailor shop of J. L. Totters, 3510 West Sixth street, where two men obtained $80. A few minutes later two men answering the same description held up the Miller Drug Store, 3101 West Sixth street and obtained more than $100. The next robbery call came from the filling station of D. M. Barr, 6046 South Van Ness avenue. This robbery was accomplished by three men, who had a 10-year-old boy in the car with them. They procured $30.

J. H. McDonald, jeweler at 153 East Santa Barbara, lost $80.

While Sam Simering, druggist at 2128 Hillhurst avenue, was talking with J. W. Gibson, 4459 Avocado avenue, and R. E. Clark, 1422 Murray street, two young men held them up.

A young man about 20 robbed the oil station of Tom Delaney, 5151 Hollywood Boulevard of $5 and escaped on foot, while a few miles away M. H. Willets, 500 San Fernando Road, an oil station proprietor, was giving up $22.

"Song of West" Includes Many Outdoor Scenes

The original handicaps of talking pictures, which limited movement and made location trips to outdoor scenes inadvisable, have been entirely overcome, it is said, in "Song of the West," the color Vitaphone film of covered wagon days, which has its Western premiere tomorrow at midnight at Warner Brothers Downtown Theater.

"Song of the West" is a Harvey Thew adaptation of "Rainbow," the successful operetta of Laurence Stallings and Oscar Hammerstein II.

HAROLD LLOYD FILM SELECTED

Director of Universal Pictures Signing With M.-G.-M.; Ruth Roland Will Have Kenneth Thomson as Lead; Bat Kearney Writing Operetta for Lasky

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Harold Loyd's next film is to be a sea story. That point is all settled, we learned yesterday, following a conversation, a few days ago, held with the famous star himself.

HAROLD LLOYD

The comedian starred in a sea story several years ago, entitled "The Sailor Made Man," and it was one of the most successful pictures he ever made. He declares that boats offer incalculable advantages to the comedian in the way of props, possible situations, etc. The story was finished yesterday.

In the new picture, Lloyd will appear on a palatial ocean liner, where he unexpectedly finds himself, and in it he will doll up in dress clothes. The title is not yet chosen, but probably will be today.

No leading lady is yet assigned, but this, too, will be remedied in a few days, as the comedian expects to start work within a week. Lloyd has been busy the last few days taking film tests of beautiful young actresses.

HARRY POLLARD TO BE WITH M.-G.M.

While I understand no contracts have yet been signed, it is reported to us on good authority that Harry Pollard, formerly director for Universal, and who made some of their most important specials, is to cast his fortunes with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer as a director.

At present Pollard is engaged in writing screen-talking treatments for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Just what pictures he will direct isn't yet settled.

Pollard is well known as the director of "Show Boat," "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and other features. He was with Universal during many years, as director and writer, following a long experience on the stage as director and actor.

KENNETH THOMSON IN LEADING ROLE

RUTH ROLAND

Kenneth Thomson has been selected as her leading man in "Reno," which George Crone, as heretofore announced, will direct.

Sam Hardy has been signed for the principal comedy role; Montagu Love will carry the burden of the villain part; and Doris Lloyd has a very important characterization.

It is likely that some color sequences will be used in the picture, since color will set off Miss Roland's beauty excellently well.

"Reno," of course, will be a talking picture, with Miss Roland, who spent all her early youth on the stage, singing and speaking lines.

Miss Roland admitted the other day that it was likely that her husband, Ben Bard, will be her leading man in her next picture to follow "Reno," though she wasn't ready to announce the name of the story. At present Bard is appearing in a role in Fox's "Louis Beretti."

Kearney Writes Operetta

Now that Pat Kearney, well-known playwright, has a roll-top desk and a little cell all to himself out in Writers' Row at Paramount studios, he is undertaking a task which he has long desired to engage in, namely, to write an original operetta, the same to be produced by Paramount.

The work is to be a French-period story, probably of the opulent Emperor Napoleon day.

So far no star has been thought of in connection with the production, although we understand that it may serve as a vehicle for Dennis King.

Marie Dressler With Norma

"Let Us Be Gay" is to be gayer even than Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer at first contemplated making it, according to report, since, we hear, M.-G.-M. has signed Marie Dressler for a comedy role in the picture, which, you remember, is to serve Norma Shearer as her next starring vehicle.

Miss Dressler has so many screen successes to her credit now that it is useless to try to mention them all again.

Gwen Lee In It

Having signed a new contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, that organization is seeing that Gwen Lee gets important roles to play.

GWEN LEE

Now she has been assigned to play the comedy ingenue lead in "Caught Short," which costars Marie Dressler and Polly Moran under Chuck Reisner's direction.

Contest Winner Here

Mildred Ressler, pretty young winner of a magazine contest, inaugurated to discover girls who most nearly resembled certain picture stars, arrived in Hollywood yesterday. Miss Ressler, more nearly than any other girl, resembled her prototype among the stars, the star in her case being Joan Crawford.

She is from Chicago, but said yesterday that she has no screen ambitions. However, we've heard that before. Just wait until she has visited the studios and the Roosevelt and the Cocoanut Grove and the Embassy, not to mention Mayfair.

Eddie Borden With Darmour

Eddie Borden, recently a vaudeville headliner in R.-K.-O. houses, has been signed to one of the leading roles in the Larry Darmour two-reel talking playlet, "The Land of the Sky Blue Daughters." The playlet is from a story of H. C. Witwer.

Others in the cast include Alberta Vaughn, Al Cooke, Harry Bowan, Lewis Sargent and Will Stanton.

Theater Safety Parley Planned

Fire Chief Scott and Commissioner Cox were appointed a committee by President Werdin of the Fire Commission yesterday to confer with the Building and Safety Commission in relation to safety precautions in theaters and other buildings used for show purposes.

The action was taken at the request of the Building and Safety Commission, which expressed a desire to co-operate with the Fire Commission. The latter now has an ordinance regulating theaters and similar structures before the City Council, passage of which has been held up for more than a year.

Police Teletype Aids Recovery of Bandit Cash

Within an hour after F. O. Vanderwater had been held up and robbed of $400 at the rear of his home at 302 Stowe Terrace, Highland Park, early yesterday, police had the two suspected bandits in custody and had recovered the money.

Vanderwater reported the descriptions of the bandits to police. These were broadcast by teletype to all beat and patrol officers. Ten minutes later Officers Underhill and Dillon arrested two suspects at Eighteenth and Figueroa streets.

And within the next half hour the suspects had confessed, the officers reported, and disclosed the money buried in a lot at the rear of the home of one of the pair, Charles H. Hensel, 38 years of age, of 2332 Langdale avenue. The other suspect gave his name as Russell J. Redman, 25, of 2045 York Boulevard.

PEDDLER SOUGHT ON WOMAN'S CHARGES

Search for an itinerant peddler was launched by police yesterday following a report by Mrs. Virginia Whiteman that he had attempted to attack her in her home at 1837 Lemoyne street. According to the woman he forced his way into the house after she had purchased some vegetables. Her screams brought neighbors to the house on the run, whereupon her assailant fled.

GO WEST, YOUNG LADY, GO WEST

If you want something new in thrills, if you want romance and action—listen to the "SONG OF THE WEST."

"SONG OF THE WEST" is a melodious romance of covered wagon days. It is peopled with bad men and worse women; a hero who does everything for a girl; a girl who is worth it; and a comedian who could make a mummy come to life laughing.

John Boles, he-man hero of many hits, is the leading man. Vivienne Segal is the leading woman, and Joe E. Brown is the comedian. To hear him sing "The Bride Who Died on Her Wedding Morn," accompanied by a broken banjo and the braying of two mules, is worth the price of admission. Laurence Stallings and Oscar Hammerstein II wrote the story and Vincent Youmans, responsible for "No, No, Nanette" and "Hit the Deck," composed the songs.

All the action is laid out of doors, on the mountains and in the valleys of the Great West. It is filmed in natural color by the Technicolor process, and it would take a combination of Zane Grey and Harold Bell Wright to do justice to its beauty. Ray Enright directed it. If you want something new and different, here it is.

"SONG OF THE WEST" opens with a brilliant premiere at MIDNITE SATURDAY at WARNER BROTHERS' DOWNTOWN THEATER. All Seats are reserved at $1.00 and are now on sale at the box office.

VILLON LEGEND ATTRACTS AGAIN

"Vagabond King" Unique in Pictorial Allure

Color and Music Blend Appeal in Berger Film

Dennis King, Heggie, Other Principals Interest

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Glamorous in photography, adventurous in a musical way, unique in its romantic quality, "The Vagabond King," with its poet-hero, Francois Villon, yesterday came to the screen at the Paramount Theater. The picture is a long step into the realm of the costume drama, dealing as it does with the days of Louis XI of France and depicting as a background of its more intimate drama the conflict between that ruler and the people of Paris with the opposing Burgundian forces. The picture is an adaptation of the stage musical play of the same name, and that in turn was taken from Justin Huntly McCarthy's "If I Were King." Ludwig Berger directed the production, as transcribed with added dialogue by Herman J. Mankiewicz. Dennis King, new to the films, is the star.

"The Vagabond King" is a conquering feature in the beauty of its color photography, which is an enriching embellishment in any creation of this type. It is ably acted by the major proportion of its principals, notably in the instance of O. P. Heggie, who appears as Louis XI. The songs, comprising the familiar "If I Were King," and "Only a Rose," and the unforgettable "Song of the Vagabonds," with its stirring rhythm, are possessed of a pervading appeal, and are splendidly sung by Mr. King, Jeannette MacDonald and others of the cast.

STIRRING MARCH

A magnificent dramatic climax is attained in the march of the Paris mob against their foes in one of the culminating scenes. This reveals a powerful emphasis on spectacular and dramatic effects. Here is the hand of the director shown, who understands both action and music, and their blending for the imposing result.

Again and again throughout the film is the musical motivation skilfully brought out. Indeed, the picture has few more outstanding attributes than its artistry in the use of the orchestra, and not only to play the tune, but to accomplish a remarkable weaving of themes.

I do not rate the story of "The Vagabond King" as a fundamentally intriguing story for the audience of today. Great in the period in which it was written, it had lost something even by the time that the stage or musical version was made. What happens is in a sense artificial and inclined to heroics of the more blatant sort.

However, the screen treatment seems infinitely more interesting than the musical stage presentation of the same plot. Due emphasis on humor has been accomplished in the portrayal of Mr. Heggie, for instance, which is eminently pleasing. There is a gayety to the episodes where Villon is transformed into the Grand Marshal of France, and has his scraggly beard shaved to make him duly presentable to the court. There is cleverness, too, in the scenes where he passes judgment on his vagabond cohorts. All this is exceptionally well brought out in the production.

Photographic touches are sometimes amazingly fine. I know of no bit that equals the first view that Katherine, the heroine, has of the Burgundian forces through the astrologer's telescope—the camp fires burning in the distance. There is a somber grandeur also to the March of Death at the close, which is matched in the ominousness of the music.

Fiery interest is injected into the "Song of the Vagabonds" through the vigorous presentation of the scenes where it is rendered. There is a sterling quality to this kind of visualization that does not neglect action for music.

TRIUMPHANT EPISODES

Indeed, there have been few recent productions that have offered so many significant touches. In individual scenes "The Vagabond King" rises often to the estate of a triumph. It is a pretentious and elaborate feature, too, in which nothing is spared to disclose a courtly resplendence.

If the picture falls short of the direct and intimate appeal to the imagination this must be ascribed to some extent to the overly make-believe nature of its plot and the fact that no particular character actually wins the sympathy and holds it. However, for splendors of the more glittering kind, it is a colorful victory.

As I have indicated, it is Heggi's portrayal as Louis XI that is particularly fine. He sustains the character even through the somewhat illogical events, when Villon, who has virtually saved Paris from destruction, is arbitrarily condemned to death. In a way the King is a thankless role to play, but Heggie manages to invest him with both humanness and humor.

The Villon character is in a way even more difficult—difficult because of its histrionics and almost feverish artificiality. I think that Dennis King sustains it perhaps as well as it can be sustained for the public of today. He acts it with a vengeance at any rate. His voice has power in the songs and he evinces musicianship. His articulation of the dialogue is not always clear-cut.

JEANETTE MacDONALD

Miss MacDonald is personally pleasing and gives a performance that has both light and shade. There are moments, possibly, when she does not convince in the dramatic part of the role, but she makes Katherine personally attractive throughout.

Lillian Roth surpasses anything that she has done heretofore in her impersonation of Huguette. Especially fine is her death scene. The one jarring note is the "blues" inflection that she gives to her solo number in the latter part of the picture. Warner Oland is responsible for one of the best interpretations, and Arthur Stone's work is creditable.

"The Vagabond King" may be classed as a picture that is alluring to the eye and interesting to the ear. There are some drawbacks in the recording, or it may be the reproduction of the sound here and there, but, as a whole, the film is unusual in its musical aspects.

NIGHT CLUB MELODRAMA PRESENTED

'Murder on Roof' Lives Up to Its Title on Screen at R.-K.-O. Theater

BY JOHN SCOTT

Titled "Murder on the Roof," a vivid melodrama of mysterious deaths, prowling gunmen in tuxedos, night-club dancing and the inevitable drunken reporter flashed across the R.-K.-O. Theater screen yesterday. Its climaxes and anticlimaxes kept an opening day audience clutching at opera chairs until the final denouement.

The title, "Murder on the Roof," is a small but efficient libretto of this Columbia picture. A man is shot and the ensuing action involves sundry efforts to catch the villain, who, incidentally, has stolen the Sommers diamond, one of great size and value.

In the course of the story others are murdered, perhaps to aid in the suspense and provide more and better climaxes. All in all, the film drama measures up to its title admirably, and not once overemphasizes the incidental entertainment, with the usual film dancing girls and orchestras in funny hats.

A quintet of well-seasoned players enact the chief roles, abetted by an efficient supporting cast. Paul Porcassi, remembered for his stage and screen roles of the night club proprietor in "Broadway," again assumes his old role as the roof-garden cafe owner, who likes diamonds and pretty girls. Porcassi presents a smooth and convincing character study of Mr. Joe Carozzo, the boss of the gang. His polished "Oh, there you ah" contrasts to good effect with his scowl and sneer in his wicked moments.

Raymond Hatton portrays the drunken reporter who has a lot to do with solving the various murders, and he hoaxes not only the cafe attaches, but his film audience as well, which speaks well for his ability as an actor. Margaret Livingston makes a charming although sinister villainess, and Dorothy Revier and David Newell provide the love interest nicely.

Minor parts are taken by William Mong, Virginia Brown Faire, Louis Natheaux, Fred Kelsey, Richard Cramer, Pietro Sosso and Hazel Howell. George B. Seitz directed smoothly and efficiently.

The stage show this week brings Healy and Cross; showing the smartest styles in songs; Jesse Block and Eve Sully, offering "A Talkie Without Film," written by Al Boasberg; Three Alexander Sisters, who are sprightly and pleasing in character dances, and Ken Christy and Company in a skit called "The Ex-Wife." Howard's Animal Show completes the bill.

"GIRL SAID NO," HAINES SAID—YES!

Latest Smart-Aleck Antics of M.-G.-M. Star Grace Screen of Loew's

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

"The Girl Said No," but that didn't faze William Haines. (It wouldn't.) He kept right on with his wooing, until, after a series of hair-raising adventures, climaxing in a kidnaping, he won his suit.

Just how Haines, in the role of a smart-aleck college graduate, overcomes the objections of the girl (Miss Leila Hyams) and in the doing makes something of a man of himself is related on the screen of Loew's State this week. The effort is titled, as you may have guessed, "The Girl Said No," and is from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.

Presumably it is a sequel to "Brown of Harvard," one of the best-liked Haines ventures and one which established this star as a likable upstart of the screen. The current tale starts in post-Harvard days when Haines, inclined to take life and business very lightly, falls in love with a pretty stenographer.

She gives an emphatic negative answer to his attempts to make her take him seriously, even though at the moment he is singing love ditties in a bond broker's office, playing tricks on waiters in fashionable cafes and indulging in the extraordinary antics of a Haines smart-aleck character. After life has dealt him some pretty hard knocks he has been forced to assume vestiges of responsibility, his character gains in sympathy until, at the end a spectator is wont to grant him graciously a hard-fought victory over a rival in love.

The picture moves at a merry gait. Situations follow one another with rapidity. Suspense is well maintained and the picture builds steadily under the direction of Sam Wood to a rather dramatic, if somewhat far-fetched climax. It merits attention as entertainment of a rollicking nature.

Haines handles his role adroitly, managing, for all his tricks and childish antics, in arousing liking and sympathy for his character. Miss Hyams, playing opposite, does capable work. Francis X. Bushman as the disagreeable and persistent rival, is thoroughly realistic. Marie Dressler in a somewhat ludicrous situation with Haines, extracts the last grain of comedy to be extracted and in so doing provokes considerable laughter. William V. Mong, Junior Coughlan, Polly Moran and Wilbur Mack are others to be seen.

Eddie Peabody and his banjo are to be heard on the accompanying Fanchon and Marco program, featuring the "Coral" Idea. Also present are the Royal Samoans, Frank Duc and La Petite Marie. George Stoll and band furnish music.

BILLIE DOVE TO STAR IN NEW TALKIE

Beautiful Actress Takes Role of Southern Girl in "Other Tomorrow"

In the role of a Southern girl, Billie Dove will start a one-week engagement at Warner Brothers' Theater in Hollywood today in "The Other Tomorrow," a First National production. It is the noted star's fifth talking picture.

The entire action of "The Other Tomorrow" is laid in Georgia. It shows Miss Dove on her honeymoon, with a man she married after a quarrel with her girlhood sweetheart. The story is by Octavus Roy Cohen.

Sunken Submarine Provides Thrilling Climax

John Ford Director of Fox Film at Criterion

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

We were cruising along on the surface, two days out of Shanghai, when the thing happened. Our sub was the S-13, seaworthy enough in a storm, but nothing could have withstood the blow she gave us hard abeam. A freighter, I think she was. Well, anyway, she did for us. Our captain and two of the men went overboard when we listed. It might have been better for all of us, almost; I'll swear we went down fifteen fathoms, and the gauge'll back me up on it. It was only when we looked about us that we saw we were in the Criterion Theater, high and dry on Grand street, Los Angeles, and our S-13 a sub in a movie called "Men Without Women."

One is tempted to write this, in the first person, after witnessing the events unfolded on a flat screen yesterday by the magic of Movietone. Certainly the story of the sunken submarine is told now; and everything afterward is anticlimax. With a minimum of sensationalism, a film that deserves to rank with the best that talk riveted the attention of a crowded house last night and is likely to do the same with many others. If there is any criticism to be made it seems to me that the secret of Chief Torpedoman Burke's dishonored past might well have never been disclosed. It smacked a little too much of "plot" in a picture that needed none.

APPROACH OF DEATH

Realistic to the nth degree, and by the same token, inevitably grewsome, "Men Without Women" describes the minute fates of thirteen sailors who await the stifling approach of death. Among those who appear in the various roles are Kenneth MacKenna, Frank Albertson, Stuart Erwin, Warren Hymer, Walter McCrail, Paul Page, George Le Guere, Farrell Macdonald, Ben Hundricks, Jr., and Harry Tenbrook—and each is entitled to a paragraph for the outline of his individual virtues . . . Mr. MacKenna, barring the inescapable theatricality of the closing speech he is required to deliver, is exceptionally good as Burke, Mr. Albertson as the young and untried ensign registering in a hardly less degree. Then there is the dry humor of Mr. Erwin, as the radio operator; the fleeting viciousness of Mr. Hymer as the hard-boiled New Yorker, the wit of Farrell Macdonald as the Irishman Costello—and so the list runs.

FROM LIGHT TO DARKNESS

The film is really split into but two sequences, the first occurring in what I believe is the notorious American bar in Shanghai, and the second—at sea. All the lightness of men at play is conveyed in the series of sharply etched incidents which serve to introduce us to them, but it is in their hour of trial that we come to know them.

John Ford, who directed, has contrived to follow each bitter cry of the trapped men with a pertinent quip to relieve the almost unbearable tension. The hairline dividing a sob from a laugh is thus maintained successfully, though on one occasion (the death of Cobb) I thought it wavered noticeably. Psychologically, the reactions are admirable, an outstanding instance of curious thought-illogic being the comment, apropos of nothing, that the radio operator makes as, knee-deep in water, he ruminates on this and that.

"Wonder if it's raining out," he mutters. "Just my luck if it was . . . me, with no umbrella."

The players taking part in other scenes include Charles Gerrard, Warner Richmond and Pat Somerset.

Authorship of "Men Without Women," a Fox production, belongs to the director and James Kevin McGuinness, Mr. McGuinness acting also as associate producer. The script and dialogue are the work of Dudley Nichols.

The gloom which shrouds the Criterion is relieved in some measure by "Stepping Out," a Charley Chase comedy with Thelma Todd and Anita Garvin, but more by an Aesop's Fable. A feature of Fox Movietone News, which is singularly newsless, is the discourse on science by Sir Oliver Lodge. He appears vastly intrigued by the mystery of the magnet.

'SKY HAWK' SOARS TO HEIGHTS

BY P. K. S.

The inquisitive Fox cameraman, equally at home in the depths of the sea or the blue above, is responsible for "The Sky Hawk," a spectacular thriller which was anchored to the Boulevard masthead yesterday. Relating in graphic detail the attack of a German Zeppelin on war-time London, this film represents what is probably the most signal feat of convincing "trick" photography devised in years by an American studio. Had the Movietone men been on the spot with their equipment (granting that such an event as is depicted ever actually took place,) they could not have captured a more vibrating, bird's-eye impression of the whole affair than they did here. Because, if for no other reason, they would have been too busy taking cover.

The episode shows the great dirigible lifting its snout above a sere countryside behind the lines, as it sets out on its death-dealing flight; the interior of the cabins, with its laconic, guttural-tongued crew of officers and men; the first warning of the approach, transmitted in the shrill sing-song of the wireless; the unearthly scream of the sirens, as the invisible menace sweeps nearer London; the crowding of the underground by terrified civilians; the calm courage of an audience in a music hall: "On with the show!"; the electrifying bombardment of the city; and then the amazing battle between a buzzing wasp of an airplane and the lordly invader, culminating in the flame-plunge of the latter, invincible no longer, and the brief, touching "ouf-wiedersehns" of its hapless human cargo. All this, miraculously before your eyes.

The story on which this magnificent sequence is hoisted is the rather ordinary one about the boy who, called coward, lived to be the hero of the hour. He had crashed, you see, on the day of his expected departure for France—a persistent habit of his, anyway—but everybody thought that this time he did it to escape active service. With several cracked ribs and what-not, then he lost his commission, his honor and his friends; so that there was nothing left, at last, but to cry quits to the girl he loved. The scene in which this occurs is one of the best in the picture, the credit for its effectiveness (despite trite lines) resting with John Garrick and Helen Chandler, players, and John Blystone, director.

Speaking of the lines, it was something of an accomplishment for any of us out front even to gather that they were trite. So ghastly and burbled was the performance of the reproducing apparatus that the showing soon resolved itself into a sort of game among the listeners, the idea being to discover who could understand the first English word in each scene. Fortunately for the air spectacle, the voice of the siren came through with first honors for articulation.

Among the other actors, Gilbert Emery as a major, Billy Bevan as the boy's mechanic and Daphne Pollard in a "bit" helped with the illusion. Lennox Pawle, Lumsden Hare and Joyce Compton also had parts.

But the real stars of "The Sky Hawk" are Ralph Hammeras, credited with the effects; the late Conrad Wells, who photographed them, and Mr. Blystone, who put them all together.

TRAFFIC TAKES LIVES OF FOUR

Mother and Child in Auto Killed by Trolley

Motorman of Redondo Car Tells of Crash

Man Struck by Youth Dies; Driver Fatally Hurt

Four traffic deaths were added yesterday to the month's toll of fatalities. A woman and her small son were killed instantly when their automobile was struck by an electric car. One man died died of injuries shortly after he drove his car against a house which was being moved along a road. A retired railway superintendent died yesterday of injuries received two days earlier when he was struck by an automobile.

The mother who was killed was identified as Mrs. Irving R. Funk, 26 years of age, of 3640 Atlantic Boulevard, Long Beach. With her died her 4-year-old son. The child's body was mangled so badly that, at first there was doubt as to whether the little victim was a boy or a girl.

The tragedy occurred at One Hundred and Tenth street and Central avenue. Mrs. Funk, according to police, was driving north in her automobile on Central avenue with her child beside her at about twenty-five miles an hour. At the intersection of One Hundred and Tenth street witnesses stated she drove the machine directly on to the tracks just as an outbound Redondo Pacific Electric Railway car approached at about forty-five miles an hour.

MOTORMAN NOT HELD

There was a blast of the motorman's whistle, a grinding of brakes, and then a crash. The automobile, according to police, was pushed 400 feet down the tracks. Mrs. Funk was thrown from the vehicle after it had traveled about 300 feet. The mangled body of the child was still in the wreckage.

The street car was piloted by Motorman K. H. Verel. He told police that he observed that the woman intended making a crossing and blew the whistle frantically but that she paid no heed to the warning. He was not held by police.

TWO OTHERS DIE

Peter R. Robertson, 32, of 1824 Charlotte street, San Gabriel, was injured fatally when he drove his car into a house that was being moved in the neighborhood of 714 Mission Road. Suffering a crushed skull and internal injuries, he died in an ambulance en route to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. An inquest will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Daniel D. Donahue, retired railway superintendent, died at St. Vincent's Hospital from injuries received the 4th inst., when he was struck by an automobile at Hudson avenue and Sunset Boulevard. The car, according to police, was driven by Homer Pheasant, 19, of 755 North Hayworth avenue. He was not held. Donahue lived at 1525 Cassil Place. An inquest will be conducted tomorrow.

Held captive by irate citizens pending the arrival of an officer, Emmett E. Malone, 35, of 711 North Beechwood street, Burbank, was booked on suspicion of driving while intoxicated. Eyewitnesses told Patrolman Anderson Malone drove his car into another machine at Figueroa street and Venice Boulevard. No injuries were reported.

Jack Little, 26, of 687 Shatto Place, also was held on the same charge. He was arrested after assertedly driving his automobile through a boulevard stop signal and upsetting a car driven by Patrolman Spencer. Neither the officer nor Little was hurt in the collision.

PLAYWRIGHT AUSTRALIA BOUND

Actress Wife Will Visit Home Folks

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein II.

OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN, II, New York playwright now writing for Warner Brothers, leaves Los Angeles today for Australia.

The trip is to permit his wife, an Australian girl, to visit her parents for the first time in eight years—and incidentally to introduce her husband to the folks back home, to supervise an Antipodean production of one of his plays at Sydney, and to write his second screen story for Warner Brothers during the six weeks' ocean voyage.

Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein was Dorothy Blanchard, of the English stage. Hammerstein has written the libretti and lyrics for eight current musical successes and six of his stage shows have been purchased by motion-picture studios. The travelers will stop over one day at Honolulu. April 17 is set as the date for their departure from the Antipodes.

NOMINATION OF BOOS TO BOARD CONFIRMED

The nomination of Cyrus Boos, former cafeteria owner, to the Board of Health Commissioners, vice, D. W. Pontius, resigned, was confirmed yesterday by the City Council.

Report Made on Causes of Charity Pleas

Brig. James C. Bell, officer commanding the Los Angeles and South Coast division of the Salvation Army, has just completed a survey of the cases which come to the central relief department of the organization in this city.

"We have checked very carefully all those cases which have come to our attention, and our findings reveal that 78 per cent of all needy families which apply to us for aid may be traced to unemployment," the brigadier stated.

"A survey made a year ago revealed that only 43 per cent of such cases could be traced to the same cause."

Announcement was made last night by the chairman of the city advisory board, Harry Haldeman, of a general meeting of all members of advisory boards in the cities included in the Los Angeles and South Coast division to be held in this city April 10. These boards are made up of business and professional men in the communities touched by the Salvation Army. Two hundred delegates will attend.

Actor's Illness Halts Work on Picture Revue

Suffering from a severe cold which threatened to develop into a more serious illness, Glenn Tryon, film star under contract to the Universal Pictures Corporation, was yesterday confined to his home on orders from his physician. As a result, major scenes in the revue in which Tryon has been working for the past week, have been postponed indefinitely.

Conclusion of the acts in which Tryon appears will mark the climax of the company's annual production program.

JULIAN CASE MAY TAKE SIX MONTHS

'Stockholders' Recovery Action in Preliminary Stages Near Fourth Week

Court action in the Julian stockholders' recovery suit against the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and a group of brokers which involves more than $12,000,000 will begin its twenty-seventh day this morning as Frank Finlayson, counsel for some of the brokers, continues to argue on demurrer before Superior Judge Tappaan.

Already more than three weeks have been consumed in the taking of depositions, argument on motions to quash and argument on demurrer. Counsel on both sides estimated yesterday at the close of court that the present arguments will continue until next Tuesday and that then another two or three days will be needed to complete a deposition being given by S. C. Lewis, former president of the Julian Petroleum Corporation.

Although the actual trial has not yet been set, it is expected that at least six months will be required in which to try the issue.

COUNSEL FILES BRIEF ON BERMAN'S BEHALF

Additional authorities supporting his original brief on behalf of Jacob Berman, also known as Jack Bennett, "bright boy" of the Julian Petroleum Corporation scandal, were filed with the District Court of Appeal yesterday by Otto Christensen, Berman's counsel.

Berman was cited for contempt after refusal to answer questions in Superior Judge Tappaan's court. The Appellate Court proceedings concern a writ of habeas corpus petition filed by Berman after Judge Tappaan's ruling.

At an Appellate Court hearing, Attorney Lewinson, representing Julian stockholders, filed a brief after oral arguments. The brief filed yesterday is Christensen's answer to Attorney Lewinson's document.

It wasn't just the proper thing to do in the Jonathan Club, so the night watchman, James Hasens, called the police. Parage was awakened, dressed and taken to the City Jail as a vagrant. There he said he lived at 6605 Hollywood Boulevard. Police declare that Parage stated that he had consumed a considerable quantity of Jamaica ginger and "must have gone into the club and undressed without quite knowing what he was about."

HOW WASTE PAPER TURNS TO GOLD TOLD BY VISITOR

Thar's gold in them thar waste paper baskets for Edward J. Herbert of New York, head of Herbert Enterprises, Inc., with a factory at Rutherford, N. J., who is a guest of the Biltmore.

Herbert related that scrap paper, which his company gets for the cost of collection, is the chief material used in the manufacture of a new product for printing establishments. The product is a plate from which printers may run off reproductions of pictures and printed matter without the necessity of making electrotypes, Herbert explained.

Herbert is here on a vacation with his wife and child.

Explaining the uses to which the new plate may be put, Herbert said that where two hours is required for the making of an electrotype, only twenty minutes is needed for the manufacture of the new plate. After the first plate is made others may be turned out at twenty-second intervals.

Financial houses have offered the visitor fabulous sums for the rights to the invention, but Herbert declared it is not for sale. Fred C. Goldenbaum, an employee, was the inventor. Approximately 1300 newspapers throughout the country are now using the new plate, Herbert said.

HEATH ARRIVES AT STAR CAMP

First Baseman Promises to Work Out Today

Kelso Twirler is on Hand for First Tryout

SAN DIEGO, March 6.—The most important news item emanating from the Hollywood Stars' spring training camp here today was the arrival of Mickey Heath, regular first baseman, who has been spending most of his time at Long Beach since the Sheiks nailed down the 1929 Pacific Coast League championship banner.

MICKEY HEATH

Heath was too late for today's workout, which started shortly after noon and lasted two and one-half hours, but he promised to be on deck bright and early tomorrow.

He appears to be in fine shape and says he is ready for a great season. He played baseball with the Long Beach Shell Oil Company club for several months and turned in some nifty work. In Heath's absence yesterday Vitt had Harry Green holding down first base.

FIVE ABSENT

The arrival of Heath leaves but five members of the club still to check in—Emil Yde, regular pitcher obtained from Detroit; Hensel Hulvey, regular moundsman; A. E. Pallas, recruit hurler; Vance Page, pitcher purchased from Durham, and Henry Severeid, regular catcher. All but Pallas, who is detained at his home in Hollywood due to illness in his family, are reported en route to San Diego.

Earl Alexander, a right-handed pitcher, who has had considerable experience in semipro competition in Kelso, Wash., showed up for a try-out today. Kelso, it will be recalled, is the home of Earl Averill, the sensational outfielder who went from the San Francisco Seals to the Cleveland Indians. Vitt undoubtedly will give the young fellow plenty of attention in the hope that Kelso has made another ten-strike.

After more than an hour of calisthenics Vitt sent the Stars through some snappy infield practice, the short fielders lining up with Mike Gazella at third, Otis Brannom at second, Green at first and Dudley Lee at shortstop. The boys did some fine work and drew lots of applause from the onlookers. Lee, in particular, looked classy.

TRIES ROOKIES

Near the end of the session Ed Reichman relieved Lee and Lou Catina took over Gazella's duties. P. J. Schwegel and then Eric Swanson did the catching while Vitt used the ash.

Vitt hasn't selected the starting pitcher for Saturday's game with the Seattle Indians here, which will open the 1930 exhibition campaigns for both clubs. The peppery leader of the Sheiks said he would make the decision after tomorrow's workout. None of the hurlers is in the best of shape yet so Vitt is puzzled over the problem.

WASHINGTON'S CASABA STARS

SUMMER RACING PLANNED

Agua Caliente Announces Sixty-Day Meet to Start on July 4

A summer race meeting to last sixty days at the Agua Caliente track was announced last night by H. Morgan Pollok, publicity purveyor of the below-the-border oval.

JAMES N CROFTON

This was decided yesterday at a conference between Wirt G. Bowman, Baron Long and Jimmy Crofton, who between them control the destiny of Agua Caliente affairs.

The dates for the new meet run from July 4 to September 1, inclusive.

Pollok said there will be seven races every day during the summer season with three purses of $500

CAGE RIVALS RATED EVEN IN COAST TITLE SERIES

BY BRAVEN DYER

Battling for the basketball championship of the Pacific Coast Conference, teams representing the University of Washington and University of Southern California meet tonight at the Olympic in the first of what may be a three-game series. The opener is billed for 8 o'clock, with indications pointing to a capacity crowd of 8000 souls.

Two years ago the Huskies and Trojans also played for the title. By winning the first two games S.C. copped the crown. Scores were 53 to 50 and 27 to 26, making a third game unnecessary. The first was an overtime affair.

JESS MORTENSEN.

Tonight's struggle finds the two teams on practically even terms, although the writer favors Southern California to win the series. Washington won twelve and lost four games in the Northwest while the Trojans, to take the southern division championship, copped seven while losing two.

Coach Hec Edmundson's players worked out yesterday at the Olympic and the writer gave them the once over. They are a fast bunch of basketeers, considerably more speedy than the Trojans.

Stork McClary, 6ft. 6in. center, is the tallest thing seen here in some time. He drops the ball into the net with consummate ease from his lofty position. Hank Swanson, 6ft. 4in. forward, makes a great running mate for the Stork. Both are slim fellows, but move with great speed. McClary was

TROJAN MILER OUT OF RELAYS

Auto Crash Puts Lee Hansen on Injured List

BY RALPH HUSTON

A minor accident to Lee Hansen, demon miler, slightly disrupted Dean Cromwell's plans for the A.A.U. relays yesterday, but teams of practically full strength will be entered in the races at Long Beach tomorrow. Hansen, forsaking his trusty spiked shoes for the services of an automobile, tangled with a delivery wagon, and came out second best.

DEAN CROMWELL

The miler emerged from the tangle with a severely wrenched left side, which has sent him into temporary retirement, and he will be unable to run in the four-man two-mile at Long Beach Poly High School tomorrow. Bill Horton is scheduled to take his place in the event. Hansen, who is eligible for

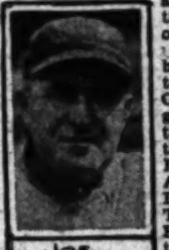
CUBS DEFEAT "REBELS"

Grimm Looks for More Hitters as Youngsters Lose to Regulars in 3-to-1 Contest

AVALON (Catalina Island) March 6.—Charley Grimm, manager of the Cub Rebels, is in the market for a few hitters. He led his boys into actual strife against the so-called Cub Regulars today in the first of the intracamp engagements, but the Rebels proved of little consequence with their bats so succumbed in nine snappy innings by 3 to 1.

It was only because Grimm waxed desperate and hoisted the sphere over the barrier that his nine avoided the added humiliation of a shutout.



JOE McCARTHY

The noncombative inclinations of the Grimm contingent was due to three different things. One was Hal Carlson. Another was Bud Teachout. The third was Bob Osborn. Off this trio of tormentors the Rebels, even though they boasted the services of such as Cuyler, Stephenson and Hartnett, were able to assemble only six hits, most of them scattered. Two of this half-dozen wallops bumped off the bat of Hartnett. Dan Taylor, the clouting outfielder who has only to supplant Stevie, Wilson or Cuyler to win a regular berth, accounted for two more.

The Regulars managed to produce a creditable amount of hitting even though treated to pitching dispensed by such past masters as perspiring Pat Malone and Charley Root. In three rounds Malone gave up three hits without a run resulting. Root handled the next three rounds and throttled the Regulars with two hits but they were paired in the fourth for a run. The last three rounds saw Lou Werneke facing the Regulars, who made the going so tough for him that runs scored in the eighth and ninth.

LINDBERGH PAYS VISIT TO ARGENTINE POLOISTS

DEL MONTE, March 6. (AP)—Argentine polo players who arrived hare today for games on the Del Monte polo field Friday and Sunday afternoons temporarily abandoned practice when Col. Charles A. Lindbergh made an unexpected visit. The players and Lindbergh talked for an hour, sitting meanwhile on the polo sideboards.

MANUEL ANDRADA

Four of the Pampas riders were out for practice, Manuel Andrada, team tice ,Manuel Andrada, team captain; Juan and Jose C. Reynal and Carlos Uranga, substitute. Alfredo J. Harrington, No. 1 on the Pampas four, remained in his room recuperating from slight injuries he received in the last game at Santa Barbara. He was expected to be in the game against the all-star combination.

Sunday's game is expected to provide the toughest competition so far offered the Argentinians, who have not been defeated since thir arrival in California.

Cypress Point's line-up for tomorrow will be strengthened by the addition of Gerald Balding and E. A. S. Hopping, who will each play four chukkers at No. 2, and Carlos Uranga, Argentine substitute, who will play at No. 3, with W. W. Crocker at No. 1 and Arthur Perkins, back.

Sunday's all-star line-up will include Aiden Roark, Hoppings, Malcolm Stevenson and Balding.

MRS. LIFUR COPS MATCH

Reaches Semifinals of Del Monte Championship; Miss Hollins, Mrs. Hutchings Clash

DEL MONTE, March 6. (AP)—Miss Helen Lawson of Hollywood eliminated Mrs. Brent Potter of San Jose, 2 and 1, in the hardest-fought battle of today's quarter-finals of the Pebble Beach women's golf championship.

Miss Lawson was 2 up at the turn and, although Mrs. Potter fought gallantly she was unable to overcome the lead.

MRS GREGG LIFUR

Mrs. Vera Hutchings of Vancouver, B. C., Pacific Northwest champion, had the best round of the day, carding a 46 going out and coming in with near-par score to defeat Mrs. Charles Nicholas of Chicago, 6 and 5.

Miss Marion Hollins and Mrs. Gregg Lifur had another easy day. Miss Hollins shot better golf than any day so far this week to dispose of Miss Barbara Lee, Oakland, 4 and 3. Mrs. Lifur turned in an easy 5-and-4 victory over Miss Angie Parkhurst, Crystal Springs.

DIMTER TO LEAD OXY CAGE SQUAD

Larry Dimter was elected to captain the 1931 Occidental basketball team in a meeting yesterday of the ten lettermen. Dimter starred as regular center during the past cage season. He poled six votes to four for Dick Glover, star forward, who was also up for the captaincy. Dimter, Glover and Elliott will be back for the next season, but Capt. Ed Beebe and Walt Murray will be lost by graduation.

Major and Minor City Prep Leagues Start Dual Track and Field Meet Season To

Manual Arts Runners Picked Over Poly Team

Jefferson Favored to Cop Three-Way Contest

Fremont Has Edge in Meet With Roosevelt

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

With the assurance of the weather man of fair skies today, both the Major and Minor City leagues will start their dual meet track and field season this afternoon. The feature contest finds Coach Eddy Leahy's Poly Mechanics doing battle with the Manual Arts Toilers on the Manual track.

EDDIE LEAHY

The other Major loop meet is a three-cornered affair between Jefferson, Lincoln and Franklin. Jim Purcell's Democrats will act as host today and the consensus of opinion is that they will do a good job of it.

Purcell is the only coach in the city with two jobs. During the morning he officiates as head of the athletic department at Beverly Hills High and in the afternoon comes across the city to work with the Jefferson track squad.

JEFFERSON STRONG

And that he has done great things with the Democrats will be seen this afternoon. The Green and Gold warriors should win the three-way meet because of the preponderance of first-place men on the squad. With Toppins in the sprints, Carmichael in the quarter, Hassen in the half-mile and Sexton in either the high jump or the pole vault, the majority of first-place winners are on the Jefferson side.

Franklin should score with Jobe in the broad jump, Held in the low hurdles and Don Carter in the shot, while Lincoln will rely on Lee Gutterro in the high sticks and Rinehardt in the pole vault.

The feature trackfest in the Minor City League finds Fremont at Roosevelt, with Irwin Tanner's Pathfinders the favorites to win. The other affair will see Fairfax at Belmont, with the Colonials picked to win easily.

Coaches Sid Foster and Charley Tony of Manual Arts ought to show their true strength today and according to the dope sheet should win by a margin of some 15 points.

WATCH POLY

Eddie Leahy, Poly mentor, hasn't the best of material to work with this year but nevertheless should make a very creditable showing not only during the dual meet season, but in the city meet as well.

The Mechanic mainstays are Mack in the hurdles, Cooper in the sprints, Dick Lindsey in the pole vault, "Spud" Curtis in the mile and Graves in the half. Both LuValle and Lott are coming along well in the quarter and Gibson shows promise in the shot.

Although Jimmy Lawrence, Manual captain, is a heavy favorite to win the mile this afternoon, Curtis of Poly promises to give him a tough race. Lawrence won in decisive fashion last Saturday when the two met in the distance medley in the city relay carnival at Los Angeles High.

The Los Angeles High Romans will be host today at a three-way track fest at Housh Field featuring Huntington Park and Garfield. Both the Spartans and the Romans have strong teams and should have quite a battle for first-place honors.

Coach Bill Paige's Redshirts make a trip to Santa Monica today to meet Coach Crumpacker's Vikings in a practice affair, thus accounting for every school in both circuits.

University High originally had a meet lined up with Garfield, but canceled it because of the failure of the Warriors to line-up a team.

Baseball Notes

"Indian" House, a full-blooded Cherokee, playing his first game in the Coast League, pulled off some marvelous catches in left field as Sacramento defeated San Francisco in a thrilling seventeen-inning contest played early in the season of 1909. "Kid" Mohler, veteran of many campaigns, starred at second base for San Francisco, with fourteen chances and no errors. Mohler was one of the greatest favorites in the history of Coast League baseball and was a great favorite to the game.

Imagine a ball game of nineteen innings being played with neither side making a home run or a three-base hit. Such a game was played between Los Angeles and San Francisco a little more than twenty years ago. Although the Angels were on the losing end, the team made the phenomenal record of playing errorless ball throughout the long drawn out struggle. The team accepted eighty-three chances. The Seals played errorless ball in the final twelve innings. Few games have been played that held more excitement for the spectators. The pitchers were Frank Browning for the Seals and Walter Nagle for the Angels. Browning was in the midst of his sixteen consecutive victories. It was Nagle who finally stopped Browning when the two hooked up in another thrilling pitchers' battle at Chute's Park, Los Angeles, a few days later.

So far as the records go, there never was another game in baseball history like that of the Cincinnati-Chicago contest of May 2, 1917. The Reds won out in ten innings by a 1-to-0 score. For nine innings Jim Vaughn and Fred Toney twirled hitless ball. In the tenth inning Vaughn allowed the only two hits of the game. In the first nine innings only twenty-seven men faced the Cub hurler, who struck out ten batsmen. Toney walked two batsmen and they were the only Chicago players to reach first base.

REPORT CAREY TO QUIT AS GARDEN PRESIDENT

NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Reports, current in New York, that William F. Carey would step out of his post of president of the Madison Square Garden Corporation failed of either confirmation or denial today.

According to gossip on the fistic rialto, Carey is to retire in favor of Frank Bruen, now general manager of the corporation. Carey, who became the dominant figure in the Garden's affairs after the death of Tex Rickard, is slated to become chairman of the board of directors, according to these reports.

Giants Take Opener From Texas Squad

AUSTIN (Tex.) March 6. (AP) The New York Giants ushered in the 1930 baseball exhibition season today with a 4-to-1 victory over the University of Texas nine.

Andy Reese, starting at third base for the Giants, was forced to retire in the first inning, when he was spiked in the left hand by Umpire Boggess as Reese was sliding into the bag.

TRIEZE IS WINNER AT BORDER

Scores Easy Victory Over Rivals in Oceanside Stake at Agua Caliente

AGUA CALIENTE (Mex.) March 6.—Finding the muddy track much to his liking, Triese, 5-year-old son of Omar Kayyam, owned by Lewis & Kemp, scored an easy victory in the Oceanside Handicap, a $1200 race at one and one-sixteenth miles, which featured today's program. Held in restraint half the distance and then finishing eased up Triese went the route in 1:47 2-5, getting home eight lengths ahead of Mrs. Parsons' Seth's Hope. The Three D's stables' Calf Roper, making his first start at this meeting, was third.

Dr. Wilson, carrying the Allo Cordio stable colors, set the early pace, but was unable to hold Triese when Jockey Willie Cleverly decided to take the Lewis & Kemp runner to the front. Seth's Hope was outpaced in the early running, but finished in great style, beating the others easily.

SEALS ALWAYS NEAR TOP IN COAST RACES

Only in five Coast League seasons have San Francisco ball clubs failed to finish above fifth place. The club dropped to last place only one time and that was in 1926 after several members of the championship team of 1925 had advanced to the major leagues. San Francisco's yearly record follows:

JUNIORS WILL COMPETE TODAY

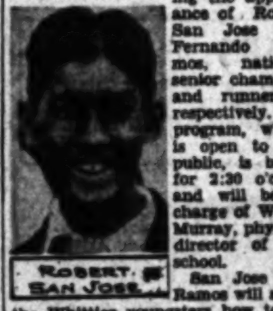
Whittier School Will be Scene of Tryouts

San Jose, Ramos Perform for Youngsters

Pomona Evidences Healthy Olympic Interest

BY BRAVEN DYER

John Muir School in Whittier will be the scene of a Junior Olympic Games meet this afternoon, featuring the appearance of Robert San Jose and Fernando Ramos, national senior champion and runner-up, respectively. The program, which is open to the public, is billed for 2:30 o'clock and will be in charge of W. W. Murray, physical director of the school.



ROBERT SAN JOSE

San Jose and Ramos will show the Whittier youngsters how to do their stuff in the five events on the Junior Olympic Games schedule. These are seventy-five yard dash, standing broad jump, basketball throw, baseball toss and chinning.

Neither San Jose nor Ramos is eligible for competition this year, having passed the age limit, but the boys are very much interested in the Junior Olympic Games and are offering their services this spring to help Southern California youngsters make a strong showing.

Several Whittier boys have their eyes on that twenty-eight-day ocean voyage from New York to Los Angeles via the Panama Canal and seven Latin American countries. This is the prize for the four leading performers in the Southern California finals.

G. A. Silvey, physical director of the Pomona Y.M.C.A., reports great interest in the program among schools of his city. Recently Mr. Silvey asked for 250 entry cards. Yesterday he wrote in for an additional 200, which is a fine showing for the town of Pomona. Last year the Pomona district turned out some splendid young athletes, due in a large measure to the efficient work of the Y.M.C.A. instructor.

Inglewood city schools will be entered practically en masse in the 1930 program, according to word received from Lionel De Silva. There will be approximately 600 youngsters competing from that city.

Everett Birchfield, student executive at Norwalk, reports much interest in the athletic competition and forwarded a request for fifty entry blanks. "Of course, our school isn't as big as some in Los Angeles," wrote Everett, "but I guess we have a chance."

Billy Magginetti of Alhambra, who not only acts as student executive for Garfield School, but also finds time to actively compete in the Junior Olympic Games, writes in that he and Robert McGuire are making progress in their 1930 training. Billy says he hopes to have a number of new athletes signed up soon.

PICK EXECUTIVES

Fred H. Clapp, director of physical education at Chaffey Union High School of Ontario, reports the following student executives have been appointed:

Marvin Loth for Alta Loma district, Leon Utman for Etiwanda, Herbert Demis for Fontana, Ronald Gibson for Upland Junior High and John Meet for Upland Grammar School.

Seven schools of Anaheim in Orange county will be entered in this year's competition, according to word from Samuel Loose, director of physical education for grammar schools of that city. The schools taking part are Fremont elementary and intermediate, Citron, Broadway, Central, Lincoln and La Palma.

Boys of Yosemite Playground in this city are enthusiastically engaged in training for the junior games, according to T. N. McDougal, physical director for the field. Some of the leaders competing at this time are Gordon Hornstangerm, Carl Frady, Walter Duggan, Howard Jenkins, Bill and Bob Lyman, Robert Rosenthal, James Duffy, James Donnelley, Norman Porter, Walter Benifield, Bill George, Tom Daly, George Fleming, Legrand Goodsell and Leonard Reed.

Boyd Comstock, director of the Junior Olympic Games for Southern California, leaves today for Inyo county. Tomorrow he will confer with coaches and school officials at Big Pine and Lone Pine.

SHELL OIL PUCKSTERS NOSE OUT ARROWHEAD

Staging a last-minute rally in the overtime period, the Shell Oil ice hockey team nosed out the Arrowhead Valley skaters 4-3 in the last league game of the Southern California senior amateur ice hockey circuit, last night at the Palais de Glace.

With the score 3-1 against the Arrowhead team, Bill Halderson scored twice in the last eight minutes of play to force the teams to play an overtime period. Buster Smith won the game for the Shell outfit when he tallied during a mix-up in front of the Valley net in the extra session.

DIX IN EASY WIN OVER JIMMY GOODRICH

TRAINING CAMP GOSSIP

FRESNO, March 6. (AP)—The first slash in the Oaks' training camp took place here today when Manager Carl Zamloch asked Toke Jones of Tehachapi, aspirant for third-sack honors, to turn in his uniform. Jones had been here at his own expense. His uniform was filled by Leo Ostenburg, former Hollywood and Portland third sacker, now a free agent. Zamloch announced that for the time being Ostenburg is merely working out with the Oaks.

CARL ZAMLOCH

A slight rainfall early this morning failed to halt the daily four-hour workout, inasmuch as the sun came out quickly. Zamloch termed the day the best workout since the opening of the camp and issued orders to his pitchers to commence curving the ball in tomorrow's batting practice.

The first practice tilt is scheduled to be held Saturday, Zamloch said.

Joe Mellana, hold-out infielder of the Oaks, signed a contract last night and was ready to report here today for duty with the bay team.

Outfielder Stanley Schino reported yesterday and "Buzz" Arlett, leading hitter of the club, is the only outfielder who thus far has not come to terms.

Manager Carl Zamloch said today that Fenton will have to sign at the terms offered him, otherwise he will be placed on the suspended list.

BERGER'S LONG TRIPLE SETS BRAVES TALKING

ST. PETERSBURG (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—A monstrous three-bagger by Walter Berger, Pacific Coast recruit, was being talked about in the Braves' training camp today in recalling the victory of the "Sislers" yesterday over the "Gowdys," 9-4. The ball was hit into the wind and traveled over Lance Richbourg's head.

First Baseman Johnny Neun and Outfielder Randolph Moore both made a good appearance in the first game of the season. Neun got three hits.

SOLONS SEND ULTIMATUMS TO PAIR OF HOLDOUTS

BILOXI (Miss.) March 6. (AP)—The end of the week should determine whether two of the Washington Nationals' players who for some time have been adding to President Clark Griffith's worries are to return to the fold peaceably.

At any rate, Griffith has written Catcher Roy Spencer that if the latter does not accept terms by next Saturday, he will be assessed $100, suspended and required to get into condition at his own expense, if not forced to take less money than has been offered. As to Outfielder Leon (Goose) Goslin, it was intimated drastic action was planned in this case, also, if he fails to come to terms by next Sunday, the date he has been ordered to report.

ONLY THREE RED SOX ARE MISSING FROM CAMP

PENSACOLA (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—The Red Sox squad in spring training here numbered forty-one today, with only three men still to report. These men have widely different reasons for their absence. Jack Rothrock, fleet center fielder, is detained in Detroit, where he recently became a father; John Wisnett, another outfielder, is completing his studies in medicine, and Johnny Heving, catcher, still is at loggerheads with President Bob Quinn in regard to his pecuniary worth to the American League entry from Boston.

MISSION REDS TAKE TWO-HOUR WORKOUT

STOCKTON, March 6.—The Mission Reds had their best workout of the week under clearing skies here today. Manager Wade Killefer put the squad through almost two hours of exercise in the outfield, while the infield was getting a thorough drying out.

Pitchers and outfielders went through a particularly strenuous program of shagging flyballs hit by the Mission manager.

Walter "Beacap" Christensen, clownish outfielder of the Reds, donned a uniform for the first time and took his exercises with the others. Bert Cole and Ernie Nevers, two pitchers, are still absent. Neitzke is a holdout.

Killefer today arranged a practice game with the Stockton State League club for March 16.

ALEX AND WILLOUGBY FEELING OPTIMISTIC

WINTER HAVEN (Fla.) March 6.—Twenty-five or thirty games won for the Phillies and the season more than a month away! That's the big news given out today by Grover Cleveland Alexander, pitcher emeritus of the Phils, and Claude Willoughby, one of his admiring understudies.

"I'm going to win at least ten games," Alexander declared today, as he started for the ballyard. "My arm is great—it always is. But take my legs. That's where we go bad first. I haven't got a sore muscle anywhere."

"I should win fifteen or twenty games this season," Willoughby said. "This whole pitching staff is going to do better work. Aleck has been a big help and when I start this season I will know how to pitch for the first time."

MYATT AND BONURA GET HOME RUN CLOUTS

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—Glenn Myatt, veteran catcher, and Zeke Bonura, whose future status with the Cleveland Indians depends much on whether the ailing Lew Fonseca returns to condition, hold the home run honors for the tribe today.

Both crashed out long drives over the walls in the first batting practice of the season yesterday. Bonura, who hails from Loyola University, here, is being watched with growing interest as a first base candidate in event Fonseca fails to regain his health.

YOUNG DETROITERS WILL BE GIVEN CHANCE

TAMPA (Fla.) March 6.—Young pitchers in the Detroit Tigers' training camp will have an early chance to show what they can do against major league batters, according to plans of Manager Bucky Harris.

Harris, who has found nothing to complain about in showings made by his various charges to date, expects to try out two and possibly three recruit hurlers against the Boston Braves, in the first exhibition here next Sunday, and to continue giving the youngsters a chance in the rather heavy pre-season schedule.

BROOKLYN ROBINS BOAST CUBAN BATTERY

CLEARWATER (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—The Brooklyn Robins have discovered a battery that can get along without signals unless some undiscovered member turns up in the National League. With ancient Adolfo Luque pitching and young Alfonso Lopez catching, the instructions can be passed in their native Spanish with no one the wiser. They also may be able to get in a few words about the way the umpire is calling 'em without leaving the field.

Luque dropped into the Robin camp yesterday, a trifle overweight but with most of his old time pitching form after a winter of baseball in Havana. Ray Moss, still a holdout but a rather doubtful one, and Jim Faulkner also arrived.

CONNIE MACK TO CARRY TWENTY-FIVE PLAYERS

FORT MYERS (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—A glance at Connie Mack's little black book reveals how the Philadelphia Athletics' boss will divide his twenty-five-man squad this year. It indicated that most of the fourteen rookies trying to break into the A's outfit will be disappointed.

Mack plans to carry nine pitchers, three catchers, eight infielders and five outfielders, and twenty-one of the twenty-five players will be holdovers.

DONIE BUSH ANNOUNCES WHITE SOX LINE-UP

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) March 6. (AP)—Manager Donie Bush has just about decided how his Chicago White Sox will line up against the New York Giants in the opening game of the exhibition season Saturday.

Vic Frasier, recruit hurler, is to start for the ambitious Sox, with Ed Walsh, Jr., and Ted Lyons sharing the mound task. Irving Jeffries will be at third base, vice Willie Kamm who has not yet reported; Bill Hunnefield will be at shortstop, Cissell at second, and Clancy at first base. The outfield will start with Moore in left, Reynolds in center, and either Dave Harris or Johnny Watwood in right. Berg and Riddle will divide the catching.

GUS SUHR MAKES HIT WITH PITTSBURGH PILOT

PASO ROBLES, March 6. (AP)—Gus Suhr, new first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, has made a hit with Manager Jewel Ens. He has fielded sensationally and in batting practice is hitting them far and often.

Rain again cut the Pirate practice short yesterday. Preparations are being made for the opening of the Yannigan-Regular series of camp games tomorrow.

KILLEFER FAILS TO TALK MANUSH INTO SIGNING

WEST PALM BEACH (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—Despite a long "huddle" on the Palm Beach sands between Heinie Manush and Manager Bill Killefer, the slugging St. Louis Brownie was still a holdout today. It is now up to the club management and the outfielder to agree on terms, Killefer declared.

Lu Blue celebrated his thirty-second birthday yesterday, and cavorted about first base in midseason form during the infield practice.

Play Starts Tomorrow in Cage Tourney

KANSAS CITY, March 6. (AP)—With forty teams entered tonight and the probability that not more than a half-dozen others would send in their blanks late, it was virtually assured no morning games would be necessary in the annual national A.A.U. basketball tournament starting here Saturday.

Teams from Kansas City and near-by towns will be paired in first-round games Saturday afternoon and night to reduce the field to thirty-two by Monday. Afternoon and night games will be played through Wednesday and thereafter only night contests will be scheduled, the finals being played Saturday night.

Pairings will be made either Friday or Saturday morning.

Among entries in the tournament are the Olympic Club, San Francisco; the Los Angeles Athletic Club, Los Angeles; the Athens Athletic Club of Oakland, Cal., and the winner of an elimination tournament at Denver.

NO ACTION TAKEN IN OAKLAND FIGHT FIXING

OAKLAND, March 6. (AP)—Dist.-Atty. Earl Warren of Alameda county today told Charles Traung, State Boxing Commissioner, that the District Attorney's office could take no action against an alleged prize fight "fixing" and gambling ring in Oakland unless Traung would swear to a complaint. Warren suggested that if conditions warranted the commission was empowered to revoke the prize-fight permit.

Warren's announcement followed his acceptance from Traung of a copy of the transcript of testimony taken during the recent investigation of the State Boxing Commission into activities of the alleged ring. The investigation was taken as an aftermath of a fight here several weeks ago between Max Baer of Livermore and "Tiny" Abbott, of Eureka. After hearing the evidence Traung had recommended that the District Attorney be asked to continue the investigation.

COOPER IN FINALS OF HOLLYWOOD TOURNEY

Chet Cooper, holder of the junior and senior national titles, qualified for the finals in the Hollywood Athletic Club squash-handball singles championship tournament yesterday by defeating Harold Hopper, 21-12, 5-21, 21-14, and will meet Les Klawiter for the title. Hopper, who provided one of the surprises of the tournament when he eliminated Dan Jones in the quarter-finals, 14-21, 21-8, 21-9, gave Cooper a good fight. Klawiter advanced to the final round with a default victory over Tom Gallery, Hollywood Legion matchmaker, when the latter was forced to quit the tournament with an injured ankle suffered in defeating Herman Frieseke, 21-16, 3-21, 21-16.

OXY GRIDDERS MAY MEET ARIZONA TEAM

PHOENIX, March 6. (AP)—Occidental College and University of Arizona probably will meet on the gridiron here October 25 if they can obtain the use of the Phoenix High School stadium for the contest.

Edward Montgomery, superintendent of the Phoenix High School, offered to move a scheduled game on that date between San Diego and Phoenix high schools up a day to October 24, to provide the stadium for the Wildcats and the Tigers.

In asking for the Oxy-Arizona game, Montgomery proposed that Arizona play here annually on a fixed date. Either the Saturday following Thanksgiving or the first Saturday in December.

RUTH'S TRIPLE WINS FOR YANK YANNIGANS

ST. PETERSBURG (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—Babe Ruth's war club struck the deciding blow as the New York Yankee yannigans trimmed Lou Gehrig's regulars, 3 to 1, in a practice game today. The Babe cracked out a long triple and a single for exictly half of the yannigans' hits off Rhodes and Andrews. The regulars got only five safeties off George Pipgras and Americus Polli. Two catchers were hurt during the battle. Bubbles Hargrave caught one of Rhodes's slants on the wrist and had to retire. Benny Bengough went in for him and the second ball he caught tore off the nail of the little finger of his left hand.

Pasadena Tournament Gains Added Interest

With the announcement that Edith Cross of San Francisco will play in the Huntington invitational tennis tournament, Pasadena, the 14th, 15th and 16th inst., the tournament will offer tennis enthusiasts six of the first ten ranking women players in the United States headed by Helen Wills of San Francisco, first rank.

That stars from Northern California are manifesting great interest in the tournament is demonstrated by the large number of entrants from San Francisco and other northern cities. Helen Wills, Edith Cross, third ranking player, and Ethel Burkhardt, who holds eighth rank, will form a powerful northern trio which will invade the south.

Southern net stars among the feminine entrants are Midge Gladman, Santa Monica, ninth ranking player; Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana, tenth; Mary Greef, Los Angeles, sixth. Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Santa Monica, former world's champion, will be a worthy contender for the singles crown.

Midge Gladman has often been rated over Ethel Burkhardt in this year's ranking by her Southern California supporters, and the participation of these two stars will be watched with great interest because of the closeness of their tennis ranking by the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

Male entrants in the tourney include Ben Gorchakoff and Arthur Kussman of Los Angeles, co-holders of the intercollegiate doubles championship; Philip Neer, Berkeley, former intercollegiate singles champion; Ellsworth Vines, Pasadena, co-holder of the national junior doubles championship; Keith Gledhill, Santa Barbara; Lester Stoefen, who recently defeated John Doeg at Midwick and who is ranked as eighth male player in Southern California; Jack De Lara, Los Angeles; Bobby Sellers, San Francisco; Jack Tidball, Los Angeles; Neil Brown, San Francisco; Henry Culley, Santa Barbara.

COLIMA TO APPEAR IN OLYMPIC GO

Mexican Idol to Battle Feldman in Feature Tilt in Olympic Ring

Bert Colima, Mexican idol, and Willie Feldman will box the ten-round wind-up at the Olympic the 18th inst. Jack Laken, who is handling Feldman, signed for the bout yesterday.

BERT COLIMA

It will be Colima's first appearance since he fought Jose Peregrina, about two months ago. That fight packed the gallery with its capacity of 4000 and about 3000 more Mexicans were seated on the main floor of the building.

Feldman defeated Peregrina in a hard fight last week at the new Eastside arena. The newcomer is a Jewish middleweight from the East. He has fought Maxie Rosenbloom.

Eddie Mack and Goldie Hess go to the post at Doyle's Tuesday night. The weight is 136 pounds. They fought before a packed arena last September, Mack taking a very close decision.

Hess boxed five rounds yesterday at the Main-street club and looked stronger than he ever has before. He spent the last six weeks on a ranch in Arizona, doing rough work and forgetting boxing. Mack settled down to training at Soper's ranch yesterday and may not come back to town until Monday after completing all his training.

HULL CITY WINS

LONDON, March 6. (AP)—Hull City defeated Newcastle United by a replayed tie from the sixth round of the English Football Association Cup competition today by one goal to nothing. The match was played at Hull. The winners meet Arsenal at Leeds in the semifinals to be played the 22nd inst.

Tilden and Protege Win Net Matches

MENTONE (France) March 6. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden and his protege, Wilbur F. Coen, Jr., continued their winning ways in the Mentone lawn tennis tournament today.

Tilden defeated Viandau, a Monaco Davis Cup player, in singles, 6-1, 6-0, and in doubles he and Coen trimmed Arenard and Dahemar, 6-4, 6-4. Both were third-round matches.

Eastern Skipper Arrives

C. L. Farrand of the Larchmont Yacht Club of New York who will skipper his slick R sloop Robin in the national midwinter sailing championships which start next Saturday, arrived here yesterday from the East. The Robin is one of the finest R sloops on the Atlantic Coast. Mr. Farrand is anxious to make a good showing here with her against western boats. The sloop was shipped here some time ago and is ready for action. The midwinter series will start on the 15th inst. and continue until the 19th.

LONG BEACH TROUNCES SANTA ANA

Norman Barker's Track Squad Surprises With Win Over Saints

LONG BEACH, March 6. (Exclusive) -While Norman Paul of Santa Ana, State champion in the low hurdles and broad jump, flivvered in both specialties to take seconds, Norman Barker's Jackrabbits of Long Beach Poly scampered off with an unexpected 74-39 victory over Tex Oliver's Saints at Burcham Field this afternoon to open the Coast League track season. In the low sticks, Paul trailed Capt. Barton Smith, Long Beach star, who negotiated the furlong in the exceptional time of 25.5s. In the broad jump Bob Parke of Long Beach leaped 21ft. 4½in. to beat Paul by half an inch. Although Al Reboin was beaten in the pole vault, one of his favorite events, he copped the high hurdles. MELANCHOLY TRACK DAYS

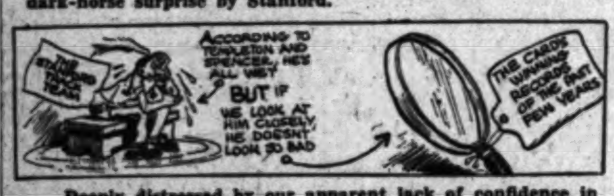
THERE doesn't seem to be much use in going ahead with the track season this year—at least not as far as Stanford and Southern California are concerned.

Mr. Dink Templeton, the Stanford boy coach, says his lads can't possibly win more than 55 points from the Trojans, whereas 66 are necessary for victory.

Mr. Bud Spencer, the former Stanford track captain and holder of the world's 400-meter record, seconds Mr. Templeton's motion, and adds that we of the Southland should admit that the Trojans have a great team instead of intimating a dark-horse surprise by Stanford.



THE STANFORD TRACK TEAM
ACCORDING TO TEMPLETON AND SPENCER, HE'S ALL WET
BUT IF WE LOOK AT HIM CLOSELY, HE DOESN'T LOOK SO BAD
THE CARDS' WINNING RECORDS OF THE PAST FEW YEARS

Deeply distressed by our apparent lack of confidence in Dean Cromwell's Trojans Mr. Spencer points out that some of the press boys hailed the Trojans as a "wonder team" after their victory over Stanford on the gridiron last fall.

Mr. Spencer plaintively asks, "Why don't you admit the truth about the S.C. track team?"

The main reason, so far as I can see it, is that the Trojans haven't beaten Stanford yet.

The Cardinals have won the last three dual meets from the Trojans, and they have won the I.C.A.A.A.A. crown for an equal number of years.

Having witnessed Stanford upset the dope on more than one occasion the conductor of this column refuses to accept the decay of the Cardinal track team until revealed on the field of competition.

I hold to this platform in face of all of Mr. Templeton's melancholy statements and Mr. Spencer's tearful letters.

FOR THE HOOP TITLE

THE Huskies of Washington and the Trojans of Southern California open that eagerly awaited basketball struggle for the Coast title tonight.

The records of both teams are very similar. The Trojans won seven games and lost two for a percentage of .777 in the southern division of the Coast Conference. The Huskies captured twelve and lost four for .793 in the northern division.

However, there is one peculiar point about the Washington record.

The Huskies lost all three games they played with Oregon State, and yet the latter team was unable to break even in the standings, winning seven and losing nine games.

Those who have seen the Huskies report that the invaders don't live up to their names, but that McClary and Swanson are two of the tallest chaps ever observed in basketball regalia. On the whole the Huskies appear less rugged than the Trojans, but may be better shots.

The tremendous growth of basketball hereabouts will be demonstrated in this three-game series, and the Olympic probably will house the largest crowds that ever saw hoop games in this locality.

PETE'S BABY SHOES

LITTLE Pete De Paolo, former champion of the speedways, leaves for Indianapolis tomorrow to prepare for this year's 500-mile Hoosier classic.

Pete is taking a T.A.T. plane in the morning and is scheduled to arrive at the scene of action the following day.

This is said to be Pete's first trip via plane.

He has designs on the race crown he once wore, and for the purpose of dethroning Lou Meyer, also of this city, he has a brand-new car.

Of course, little Pete will have his baby's shoes mounted on the radiator cap.

The little shoes have carried Pete through many a race, and he considers them his good-luck omen.

FIVE FOR BOBBY

THE threat of Mr. Robert Tyre Jones to take part in five major tourneys this year promises the most auspicious conquest ever achieved by the golfing lawyer from Atlanta, Ga.

Back in 1926 Mr. Jones won the British open and the American open, but lost the American amateur to George Von Elm.

The following season he won the American amateur and repeated in the British open.

This year his schedule calls for four classics—American and British open, American and British amateur—and the German open is a fifth that may intrigue his skill.

Mr. Jones may not win all of them, but it's a good bet he will capture three of the tourneys.

New Racers Enter Events

Racing men hereabouts evidently expect business to "look up" this year at the American Legion Speedway. Several drivers and car owners have been investing heavily in powerful new mounts for the season at the saucer track here, while still others are spending considerable money in rebuilding their gas burners for the 1930 campaign.

Sunday afternoon, when the 100-lap sweepstakes and four other thrillers are held at the Legion oval, at least half a dozen new cars will be introduced. Herman Schurch, the German-American ace, will make his debut in one of them, which is a classy job brought here from Indiana. It is a Frontenac and Schurch predicts that he will show the rest of the field nothing but his rear axle from now on.

Earl Hovenden, who crashed up in Ted Simpson's car two weeks ago, has built himself a Fronty which will carry the numeral 50 and which should attract plenty of attention. Still others who are scheduled to blossom forth with new and rejuvenated machines are Paul Barrett, A. T. Grandel and Art Boyce.

VENICE WATER POLO TEAM VICTORIOUS

Still undefeated in league competition the Venice High water polo team swept to an easy 11-2 victory over the Redondo Seahawks yesterday afternoon in the Venice plunge. Bill O'Connor led the Gondolier scoring with 4 goals. Venice led, 5-1, at the half. In a preliminary game the Venice Class C swimmers also kept an undefeated record clear by drubbing the Redondo babes, 12-2. Morin starred for the Gondoliers.

BASEBALL NINES VIE

Coach Jack Manildi's baseball team from the Harvard Military Academy is scheduled to engage the North Hollywood nine in the nations pastime this afternoon on the latters diamond. Manildi has several bright prospects in Moore, Raymond, Kindler and Johnson, all of whom are expected to play stellar roles against the Lions.

In addition there will be at least one stake race with $3000 added during the two-month period, with extra handicap races on Sundays.

The present meeting is scheduled to conclude the 30th inst., but the horsemen have asked for a two weeks' extension to the season.

Definite decision on the request has been reserved, but Pollok said it probably would be granted, and added that many of the good horses at the track would be held over for the summer meet.

Local Italians Honor De Paolo

The local Italian colony will honor Pete De Paolo, former champion of the speedways, at a luncheon at Bert Rovere's Paris Inn today.

De Paolo is leaving by T.A.T. plane for Indianapolis tomorrow morning, and will drive a new car in the annual Hoosier 500-mile automobile classic on Decoration Day.

De Paolo is a nephew of Ralph De Palma, also a noted figure of the speedways, and gained his early driving experience riding as a mechanic in his uncle's car.

BRUINS TO BATTLE SANTA CLARA NINE

The U.C.L.A. Bruins and the Santa Clara Broncos meet today and come together this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the season's opener in Southern California of the California Intercollegiate Baseball League. The game will be played on the Westwood diamond.

Last year Santa Clara took the series from Coach A. J. Sturzenegger's Westwooders, but this year, with the best material available in the history of the local university, may see a different story. Inexperience is the bugaboo of the Bruins at present, and today's game will thoroughly test the quality of the team.

POMONA SQUAD FACES BRUINS

Rival Track Teams Collide at Westwood Oval

Occidental and Caltech Clash Tomorrow

Final light workouts will be in order today both at the Bruins' field and at Pomona in preparation for the meet between the old Southern Conference rivals tomorrow on the Westwood oval. The U.C.L.A. cinder men will go into the meet a slight favorite to win over the Sagehen squad.

HARRY TROTTER

The question centers around the participation of one Pomona athlete, Clarence Bishop. If Bishop competes, the meet is doped to be close, since the Claremont athlete can throw the javelin around 180 feet and can high jump 6ft. 2in. There is also some doubt as to the fitness of Bob Cameron, star Bruin middle-distance man, who is just recovering from an injury to his left foot. Cameron can run the quarter in under 50s. flat and the half-mile in under 2m. flat.

The Westwooders will be under a handicap in one event, the hammer throw. This event was discarded in the Pacific Coast Conference, but is still held in the Southern Conference. Pomona is expected to cop all three places in that event. However, Coach Bob Strehle's crew will have a handicap also in the absence of Harvey Bear, star sprinter, who is out with the mumps. Coach Harry Trotter's sprinters, "Chuck" Smith, Capt. Johnny Hill and Johnny Talbot, are expecting to have things pretty much their own way.

The Bruin squad is seeking revenge for last season's defeat at the hands of Pomona, and indications are that it will get it. The Sagehens won the 1929 affair held at Claremont by the score of 81 to 59.

TIGERS IN TRACKFEST WITH CALTECH

Coach Joseph A. Pipal sent his track aggregation through a hard workout yesterday afternoon and will prescribe very light work today in final preparation for the Caltech dual meet carded for tomorrow afternoon at Occidental. According to conference rule, the meet will start at 1:30 p.m., unless rain interferes, in which case the meet will be staged on Monday.

Pipal, who is usually regarded as pessimistic regarding any phase of his track interests, broke down and optimistically predicted that the sun would shine Saturday, and furthermore that he is going to send his squad full strength against the Engineers with the expectation of victory.

Efforts on the part of the Oxy track mentor to secure a meet with U.C.L.A. have so far been in vain, though no official refusal has been forthcoming. Pipal is very anxious to meet the Bruins on anybody's oval a week from Saturday, feeling that it would be a close and interesting affair for all concerned.

ANGEL ROOKIES MEET TROJANS

a trimming. Gooch, Williamson and Dryden are the Trojan twirlers while Capt. Joe Ward has done most of the receiving to date with Bob Allen turning in some pretty fair games. Ted Holzhauzen and Garrett (Whataman) Arbelbide, the well-known end, have been decorating the initial sack. Purcell at second, Orv Mohler, the frosh grid star, and Jess Hill, intercollegiate broad-jumping champion, complete the infield. Hal Stanier, Doug Hanby and "Bing" Boswell, veterans from last year, make up the outfield.

Inasmuch as the youngsters will be performing in the afternoon, Lelivelt will have his regulars report in the morning for their daily workout.

Features of yesterday's workout were the terrific clouting of Johnny Moore, the young outfielder secured from the Cubs, who batted no less than seven balls into the right-field bleachers or over the wall, and the brilliant fielding of Carl Dittmar and of Frank Sigafoos around second base.

Moore looks like a mighty sweet hitter and he should clout a lot of home runs for the Angels this year. Johnny doesn't slug the ball; he just meets it and times his swing perfectly. That kind of hitters are tough to fool. Two of Moore's clouts yesterday sailed over the right-field brick wall on a line and were about as well kissed as you could care to see.

Sigafoos also was hitting the ball hard and on a line, but it was his fielding that made an impression on Lelivelt. Siggy and Carl Dittmar are going to form a nifty keystone combination that should turn in plenty of double plays. Dittmar, always a sensational fielder, is showing the effect of having a capable man alongside of him and is looking better every day.

George Harper announced yesterday that he plans to sign his 1930 Angel contract some time today. The veteran outfielder secured from the Braves appears perfectly satisfied with the terms the Angels have given him. George was again out in a uniform yesterday and expects to round into shape in a hurry.

Midwick Polo Quartets Will Clash Sunday

Midwick's polo program, interrupted one week by the postponement of last Sunday's game because of the sudden death of E. D. (Ted) Miller, will be resumed again this week-end at the Monterey Park field. Two high-goal Midwick teams, the Whites captained by long-legged Elmer Boeseke and the Purples led by Carleton Burke, tangle in a special match game Sunday afternoon.

CARLETON BURKE.

The game will serve to introduce Hal Roach again to local polo fans. Roach retired from the game at the end of last season but he has since changed his mind and is once more back in the saddle. He will play No. 2 on the Purple four.

Boeseke will have Steen Fletcher, Neil McCarthy and Gordon Cronkhite on his team. On the Purples will be the one and only Eric Pedley, J. M. Spalding, Roach and Burke.

The ball will be tossed in at 2:30 o'clock.

a year of competition, following a transfer from Oregon State, is one of the fastest milers in the Pacific Coast conference. He has run 4m. 19s. and is expected to be one of the best in the West this season.

The Trojans took advantage of clear weather to work out with the baton yesterday, and Dean Cromwell, Trojan coach, hopes to emerge with major honors in the finals of the various events tomorrow. Cromwell's four sprinters—Wykoff, Guyer, Draper and Maurer—have designs on both the 440 and 880 records, and although there seems slight chance of their breaking these marks this early in the season, their initial effort is expected to be productive of sensational results.

WYKOFF FACES GEORGE

The addition of an open 100-yard dash to the program indicates a good time for all. Last year Frank Wykoff and Charley Borah, after running 9.6s. at Fresno, succumbed to Nate George of Whittier in a 9.8s. race. Borah is not in training now, but Wykoff and George will hook up in what should prove an epic battle.

The only open event run off a couple of weeks ago was the four-man, four-mile, in which S. C. Trojans scored an impressive victory over the L.A.A.C. Indians. Inasmuch as that event already has been included in the official results, Cromwell intends to use some of those athletes in a second team in the shorter events, just to give them a workout.

BRIX SEEKS RECORD

Field events which were finished two weeks ago, will be repeated for exhibition purposes. Herman Brix of the L.A.A.C., who lost to Harlow Rothert of Stanford in a meet at Palo Alto last Saturday, is expected to make a real assault on the American record. Brix got off a toss of 50ft. 7in. in the meet two weeks ago, and ought to go better than 51ft. tomorrow.

The following are the Trojan entries for the meet:

HUSKIES DANGEROUS

Jiggs Jaloff, star forward, is smaller than anybody the Trojans have and that goes for Boelter and Nibley. He's hardly more than a midget but moves with such rapidity that the Trojans will undoubtedly have a tough time keeping track of him. West, guard, is only slightly bigger than Jaloff.

Cairney, guard, is a nicely built, good-looking chap of about 175 pounds and looks every inch a basketball player.

The Huskies, in their workout, showed more basket-shooting ability than the Trojans possess. This, coupled with their speed, should make them a very dangerous outfit tonight.

The Trojans will have a distinct edge in weight, what with such men as Jess Mortensen and Web Caldwell. These two chaps have done heroic work for Southern California this year and when the going is toughest late in the night's toil one or the other generally comes through. Their ability to do this may be traced in some measure to their splendid physique.

Edmundson's players handle the ball very skillfully and shoot with either hand from close to the basket. They do a lot of dribbling which may mean plenty of this style of attack tonight.

Edmundson brought ten players with him, but on his arrival found his squad numbered twelve. Two athletes couldn't resist the urge to be in on the play-off so drove down from Seattle. They are Clair Berlin and Pat Schlichting.

TICKETS ON SALE

Coach Sam Barry of the Trojans plans to stick to his same starting line-up which includes Capt. Johnny Lehners and Caldwell as guards, Mortensen at center, and Frank Smith and Jack Gardner at the forward berths. Lehners and Mortensen both played against Washington in the series two years ago.

McClary and Jaloff were with the Huskies at that time, but McClary was the only one who saw service, being in one of the games for a short time.

Trojan officials announced last night that 5000 general-admission seats will be on sale at the Olympic tonight.

The line-ups:

	Southern California.		Washington.
8	Gardner	F.	Jaloff	25
7	Smith	F.	West	12
3	Mortensen	C.	McClary	43
4	Caldwell	G.	Swanson	29
5	Lehners	G.	Cairney	23

Loop Leaders Confer Today

The athletic managers for all Southern California Conference colleges will meet this evening in San Diego for the purpose chiefly to discuss football schedules for next fall. This is the first time that the meeting has been held in the southern city, as all previous conferences have been held in or near Los Angeles.

The controversy on the football menu centers around the opposing arguments: First, that of Occidental and stronger teams that La Verne and Redlands have refused to meet them, and the retaliating view that Occidental and Pomona are not willing to give the weaker teams anything but early season dates for games. There is also a proposal to draw by chance for all the dates which would obviously ruin the traditional closing tilt of the year for Pomona and Occidental.

Braves Not Going Anywhere

PENNANT HOPES DEAD ALREADY

Bean Eaters Hope to Annoy Other Clubs

McKechnie Lists Troubles in Long Oration

Former Angel Ace May Find Permanent Job

BY BRIAN BELL

ST. PETERSBURG (Fla.) March 6. (AP)—The Boston Braves are not going anywhere in the National League race, but they would like to annoy the other clubs along the way.

BILL McKECHNIE

Bill McKechnie, a canny Scotchman, who has won pennants for both Pittsburgh and St. Louis, is starting a four-year term as manager at Boston. McKechine, calling himself a "pessimistic optimist," is keeping a stiff upper lip, but it may be that he is hoping for the best while fearing the worst.

"Some of our best fielders are not very good hitters. We have some strong hitters whose fielding is in doubt, we are short of catchers and we have far too many left-handed batsmen," said Bill. "Outside of that we are all right."

McKechnie is starting his task of building up the Braves along original lines, he is not concerned with the positions his athletes think they play. If he is convinced they can hit, he will find a place for them somewhere. As a result of this experiment, outfielders may be found in the infield, infielders catching and what have you, before the season opens in April.

BERGER LIKED

Walter Berger, a big outfielder from Los Angeles, may find himself playing third base. He has shown that he can hit, and he has a great throwing arm, so "why not third base?" asks the Scot. Russell (Red) Rollings was a third baseman when he was with the Red Sox but if Berger strong-arms his way into that position the Mobile (Ala.) boy may be moved over into second, where Freddy Maguire did the work of a magician in the field last season but failed to cause opposing pitchers' hearts to miss a beat. Rollings, like Berger, comes from the Pacific Coast League, from Hollywood, via the draft.

The veteran Rabbit Maranville probably will be the regular shortstop when the practice period smoke clears away but he will be "spelled" by Bobby James, a peppery boy who has been benefited by a year's experience in the National and International leagues.

Three first basemen are available, George Sisler, Johnny Neun, former major leaguer, and Patsy Flaherty, who played football—not baseball—with the New York Giants. Sisler made 205 hits last season, the only Brave in the camp to pass the two-century mark, and, like Maranville, he seems to grow no older. Sisler has the inside track leading to the first-base job.

FINE OUTFIELD

Lance Richbourg, one of the great outfielders of the National League, will play right field, and Earl Clark, another holdover, hardly can be improved upon for center. Randy Moore, with Dallas in the Texas League, last summer, may complete the starting trio. Jim Welsh has not reported and Bill Dunlap, a promising recruit, has fallen a victim to appendicitis. Ralph Boyle, with the club for a time last season, and Joe Bratcher, drafted from Denver, will be given the benefit of every doubt.

With some hitting to help them, the Braves' pitchers do not present such a dismal prospect. Johnny Cooney has not thus far observed anything wrong with his arm. From last year's team Bob Smith, Ben Cantwell, Percy Jones, Bruce Cunningham, Harry Seibold and Ed Brandt are back to try it again and two youngsters have a great chance to remain after the cuttings down time comes. Alonso Smith from Providence, R. I., who is certain to be called "Al," and Bob Brown, a semi-pro from Hull, Mass.

The receiving end of the battery alignment is not so good. Al Spohrer, while a better catcher than a fighter in the ring against Art Shires, is not brilliant. Bill Cronin is rated only fair and Hank Gowdy, while a star among the baseball seniors, must play from scratch and without any handicap on account of his age.

Arrested for stealing a bicycle at Monmouth, Eng., a man claimed that, seized by toothache, he took the bicycle to get to the dentist quickly.

Washington's New Coaches Out en Masse

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, March 6. (Exclusive)—Washington's full complement of new coaches is also on deck. Danny Lamont, line coach, and Ed Collins, end coach, having arrived over over the week-end. Besides Lamont and Collins, Cotton Wilcox, backfield coach, and Pest Welch, freshman coach, there are Tubby Graves, Wayne Sutton and Bill Wright, hold-over members from the former Washington coaching staff, acting as assistants.

Millionaires Defeated by Oiler Pucks

The Los Angeles Richfields finally stopped the winning streak of the Hollywood Millionaires by taking a 4-1 decision over the Movie City pucks last night at the Winter Garden Ice Palace. Hollywood had beaten the Oilers twice in the last week.

Hollywood's lone goal was scored in the opening period when Dan Carrigan took a pass from Wolfe Peltier and tallied with it. The fans had hardly settled in their seats when Dale Welles tied the count by scoring on a solo excursion down the ice.

The second period saw the Oilers add three more digits to their score, Jack Lawrence, Jack Wilson and Dale Welles putting the puck into the net for the Richfield skaters.

The last session was featured by great goal keeping on the part of both goalies, Tom Carrigan of Hollywood and Bud Vaughan of Los Angeles. Incidentally Vaughan turned in one of the best games of his career, stopping the strong Hollywood attack cold.

Illinois Man Ties Troeh

DEL MONTE, March 6. (AP)—Mark Airie of Champaign, Ill., and Frank Troeh, Portland, Or., continued their winning streak today, tying with C. A. Gunning of Longmont, Colo., and breaking 100 consecutive targets in the sixteen-yard event of the fourth grand Del Monte hundred and handicap trapshooting tournament at Del Monte Gun Club.

Troeh was also runner-up in the Del Monte sliding handicap with 98x100. J. H. Brookman of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, won this event with the exceptional score of 99x100.

Guy Houghtaling, Los Angeles, and C. E. Griffin, Seattle, Wash., tied for second honors in the sixteen-yard event with 99. Dr. H. W. Armstrong, Los Angeles; Albert Elasho, Monterey, and G. A. Smith, Long Beach, tied for third place with 98.

Third place in the sliding handicap event was won by G. L. Becker, Utah, with 97.

Miss Belle McCord Roberts, Long Beach, was high lady, shooting 87x100.

FEW TRIPLE PLAYS

Coast League ball clubs have participated in about 7000 contests since the last unassisted triple play was made. The last play of this kind was executed by Heinie Sand, Salt Lake shortstop, in a game with Sacramento July 4, 1921. A stretch of nearly nine years intervened between the day "Roaring Bill" Rapps, Portland first-baseman, made his unassisted triple play in a game with Oakland, September 14, 1912, and the day Heinie Sand made his. More than eight seasons have now gone by without one unassisted triple play being made.

LEFTY GROVE TELLS HOW HE GOT BASEBALL START

BY ROBERT M. GROVE

As Told to John F. McCann

(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

It was up in the picturesque hills round my home town of Lonaconing, Md., that I first got started in baseball, and began the course which one day was to lead me to the major league. Little did I think then that in a few short years I was to be sold to a big league club for the largest price ever paid for a rookie.

It was in 1919 that I caught on with the amateur team of our home town as a pitcher, and that summer I did well enough, for the Martinsburg club, of the Blue Ridge Mountain League, to hear about me, so the next spring I went over with them.

Within four weeks after I got my start with Martinsburg, the late Jack Dunn, manager of the Baltimore Orioles, came over to see me. "Lefty," he told me, "I'm going to buy you for the Baltimore team."

That same day he did, paying $3500 for me, and I want to say he was a great manager for a young player to be with because Jack sure knew the game and was a wonderful man along with it. From June, 1920, till the last of 1924, I stayed with him at Baltimore.

Then came the big deal with the Philadelphia Athletics. Connie Mack paid Jack $100,000 for me, setting an all-time record for prices on recruit players. That is how I broke into the majors, and how I happened to come to Connie Mack, who, I think, is the greatest manager in the major league.

I didn't have a great deal of trouble starting out. I just made up my mind I was going to play baseball and whenever things went against me, I just worked that much harder. That, I believe, is one of the necessary things to break into the big leagues—and stay there.

Good times were registered in the dash events and broad jump and shot put. SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

PANAMA MAIL'S PLANS ADVANCE

Contract Announced as Made by Postal Bureau

Terms Require Construction of Larger Liners

Two Costing $5,000,000 Each to Start at Once

BY WALDO DRAKE

The Panama Mail Line's four new express liners for California-New York service will cost $5,000,000 apiece and will be of 8000 net tons, instead of smaller vessels costing $3,500,000 each, as previously planned. That was revealed yesterday in announcement by Postmaster-General Walter F. Brown, that the Panama Mail Line has been awarded the contract for carrying mails from San Francisco and Los Angeles Harbor to Puerto Colombia. Provision is made that the company must immediately construct at least two new vessels of a minimum 8000 net tons, costing $5,000,000 each.

Panama Mail officials explained yesterday that increase in size of the new ships had previously been discussed, chiefly to meet competition. E. T. Ford, president of the Panama Mail Steamship Company, is now in New York, discussing construction plans of the new intercoastal squadron with officials of W. R. Grace & Co., of which Panama Mail is a subsidiary. Reports persist in Coast shipping circles that all four of the liners will be built at the yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation.

W. R. Grace & Co. has already filed with the United States Shipping Board preliminary applications for loans to aid in building the ships, as provided under the Jones-White Act. The new vessels, to replace the five small steamers now in the trade, will operate from San Francisco and Los Angeles via ports of west coast Mexico, Guatemala, Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, through the Panama Canal and thence to Havana and New York, returning by the same route, except that they will call northbound at San Diego. The first two ships are expected to be laid down before June 1, next.

DRAWBRIDGE CLOSING PLAN MAKES HEADWAY

The Harbor Department favors keeping the Badger-avenue drawbridge down for the benefit of motor traffic to and from Terminal Island between 7:15 and 7:45 a.m., and between 4:45 and 5:15 p.m., daily, Port Engineer Nicholson told the harbor committee of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce yesterday, and the committee voted to support the proposal.

Nicholson said few, if any, large ships use Cerritos Channel during those periods, and such lumber schooners as do, will not suffer by the move. He declared certain channels in San Francisco have such closed periods to which there is no objection.

Hearing on the application will be held by Maj. Lanagan, army district engineer, at 10:30 a.m., the 11th inst., in the San Pedro branch City Hall.

The chamber committee also sustained the Harbor Department in the latter's request for various dredging projects, to be heard before the Army Engineers at Washington, D. C., the 25th inst. Mr. Nicholson leaves the 20th inst., to attend the hearing.

More than 700 passengers, including several scores from seven foreign countries, are due from New York and Central America on the Panama Pacific electric liner Pennsylvania tomorrow morning. Among them are Prof. Elihu Thomson of Lynn, Mass., inventor of electric welding, and consulting engineer of the General Electric Company, and Baron C. Juel of Lima, Peru, the latter boarding the liner at Balboa.

Luckenbach Line's plan to step up the frequency of its Gulf-Pacific service will be put under way today, it was announced yesterday by H. C. Ewing, district manager. BEST FOOT FORWARD

Advertising is characterized as an economic necessity by the domestic distribution department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in its revised handbook, "Small Store Advertising," which has just been issued. But by advertising it does not mean the printed word alone. It is the sum total of al lthe things that create a favorable impression.

"When a retailer advertises," the department says in its foreword, "he is identifying his name and location with services and merchandise of definite characteristics in the minds of consumers.

"The advantages of advertising may be stated specifically:

"(1.) Identifying a store with certain kinds of merchandise of certain grades.

"(2.) Building of confidence and good will.

"(3.) Attracting new customers.

"(4.) Increasing sales and speeding turnover.

"(5.) Reducing expense by spreading it over an increased volume.

"(6.) Stabilizing merchandise, methods and prices.

"Advertising plays so large a part in successful retail business that it has been well demonstrated that it is an essential element of success."

FAULTY ARGUMENT

That war is normal and peace the exception is argued by Prof. Pella, Rumanian delegate to the League of Nations, who finds that in 3400 years there have been but 248 years when the world was at peace. But for that matter it would be hard to find as many years as that with no homicides, yet who is prepared to argue that murder is the normal thing? — [Capper's Weekly.

Gillette announces a NEW BLADE... a NEW RAZOR

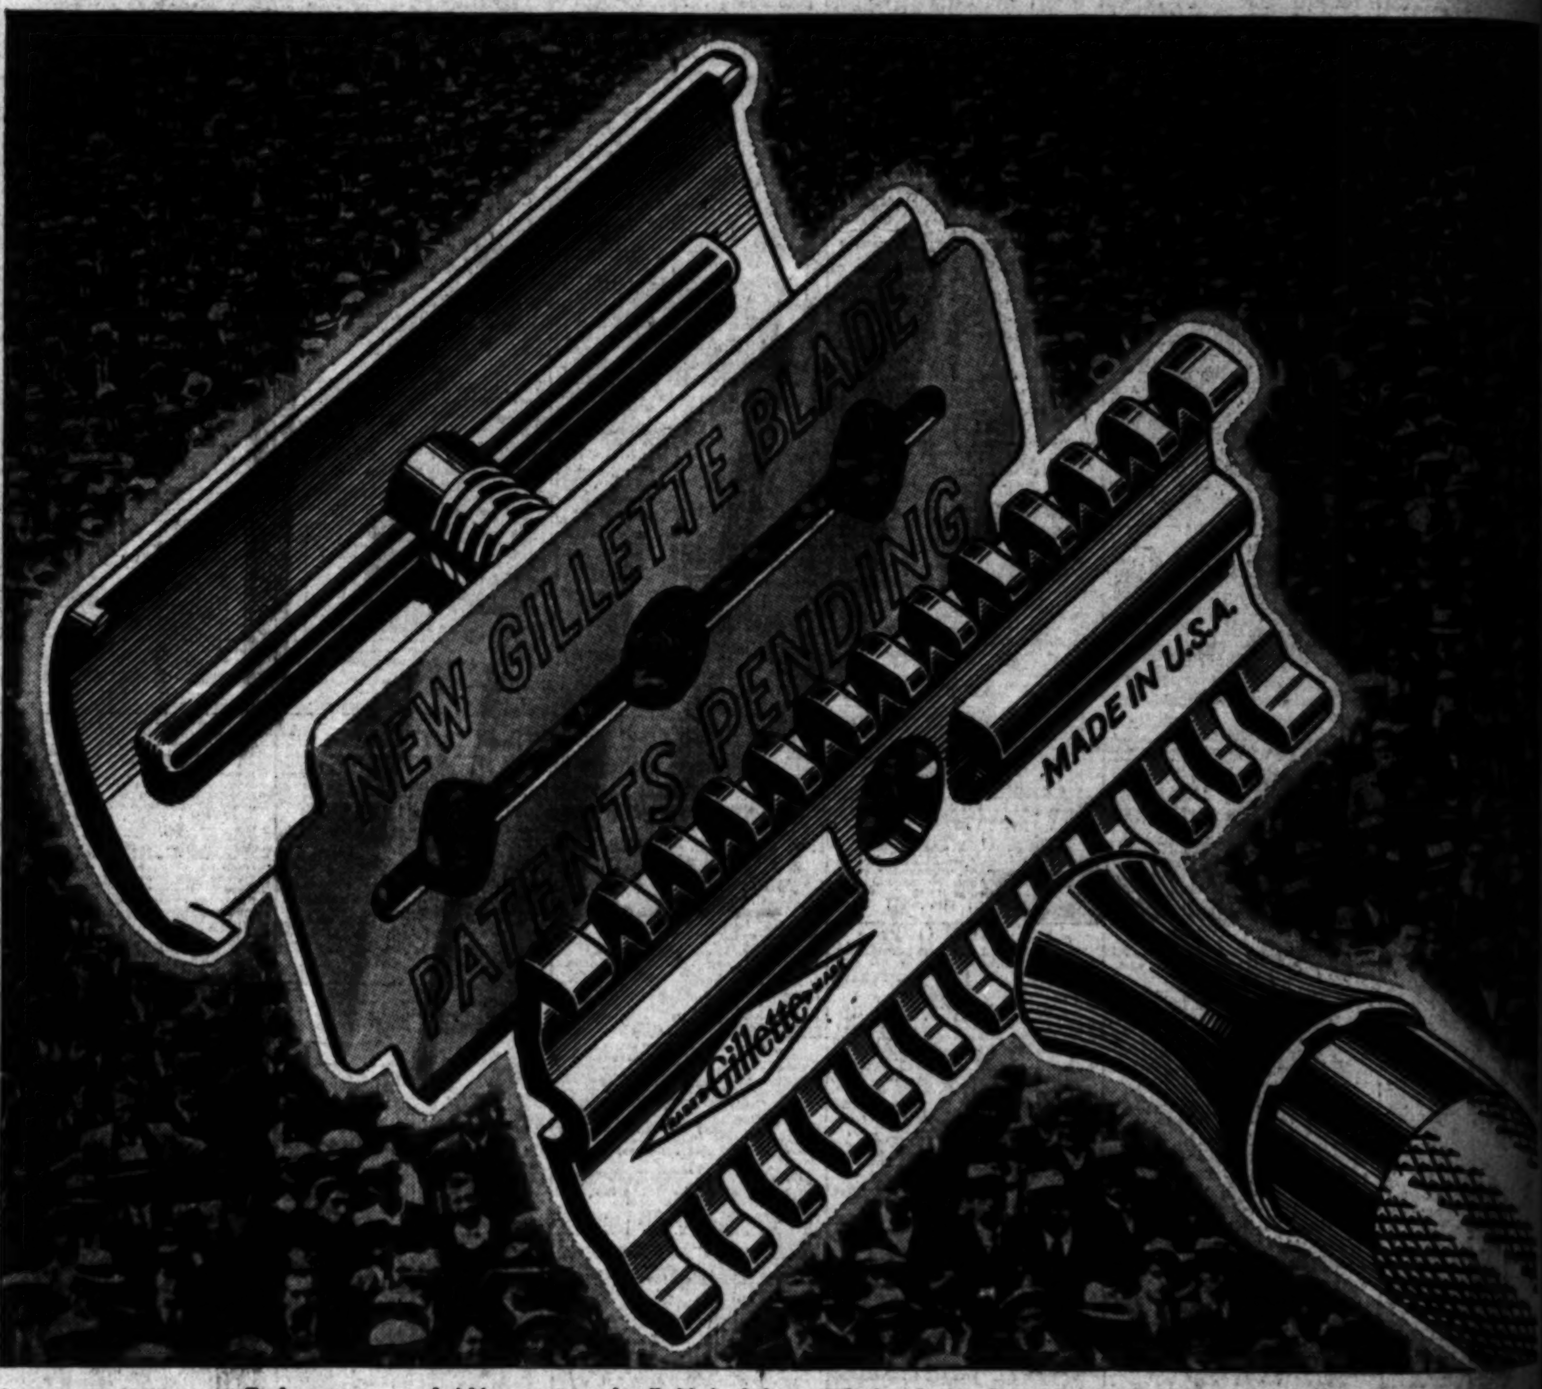
No more "razor pull"... No more wiping... with this new blade of processed steel



TWENTY-EIGHT years ago Gillette changed the shaving habits of the world by creating a safety razor with double-edged replaceable blade—an improvement so far-reaching that it has maintained leadership for more than a quarter of a century without essential change.

Today Gillette offers another great contribution to man's shaving comfort—a New Gillette Blade and a New Gillette Razor (patents pending).

The New Gillette Blade can be used in your present Gillette Razor. But the New Gillette Razor has so many points of superiority that any man or woman who has tried it once will gladly discard the faithful instrument of the past.

Used together, the New Gillette Blade and the New Gillette Razor abolish forever the two unpleasant factors in shaving—"razor pull," and the tedious drying of razor parts. Imagine a shave so smooth and cool that you hardly feel the razor on your skin. Think of not having to take the razor apart for cleaning—merely rinse it off and shake it dry. These are only two of the advantages of the new razor and the new blade. Read the other advantages summed up under "Quick Facts."

Back of these great improvements lies a fascinating story of research.

Twenty-seven thousand men have been interviewed. Tens of thousands of used razors were examined. In these studies a discovery of far-reaching importance was made:

Cause of "razor pull" found

In almost every case when a man complains that his razor "pulls," an expert examination shows that the razor has been nicked.

Why should a little nick—even a microscopic nick—spoil your shave? Here is the reason:

The parts of a Gillette Razor are machined to a fine precision. The slightest dent at one of the corners causes an unequal tension on the blade, throwing it out of perfect alignment. The blade may even crack under the unequal tension. Perhaps you have had this happen for no apparent reason. Perhaps you have blamed the blade.

QUICK FACTS

1. New blade can be used in your old Gillette
2. New processed steel; new blade resists rust
3. Cut-out corners of blade prevent "razor pull"
4. To clean, turn guard at right angles... then re-tighten... rinse... shake dry
5. New shape guard channel gives full shaving clearance
6. New shape guard teeth meet skin smoothly, naturally
7. No projecting posts to dull blade edges
8. Reinforced razor corners prevent damage if dropped
9. Square blade ends safer to handle
10. Shaves easier around mouth, nose, ears
11. New blades same price as old
12. New razor, 24K. gold-plated, with one new blade, in case, $1.00

Gillette finds the answer

We could not keep men from dropping their razors. But we could offset the harmful effect. To do so required a change in both the razor and the blade. In the razor we reinforced all four corners of the cap with sturdy lugs made to withstand nearly any kind of abuse.

The blade was treated even more ingeniously. All four corners were cut out; when the cap and guard of the razor clamp together, the blade is not held at the corners. Even if you drop the New Gillette, you probably will not dent it. Even if you dent it, you do not, cannot spoil your shave.

When you see the new blade, you'll notice immediately a different, finer finish... the result of a new process of treating the hard special steel.

How many tedious minutes you have had to waste in unscrewing your razor, washing it off, and carefully wiping it dry! How many towels have been cut! Now the nuisance of unscrewing your razor, washing it off, carefully wiping it dry—and risking a cut towel—all this is abolished forever; the new blade resists rust. A single twist of the fingers turns the guard at right angles. Then re-tighten. Hold the razor under hot running water. Shake thoroughly. Lay on the shelf. That's all.

Shaves closer in corners

The ends of the blade are square—the old blades were rounded. A square end is much easier and safer to handle with wet fingers... no fishing down the drain pipe for a slippery blade. But even more important, the ends of the blade are much more nearly flush with the ends of the razor cap and guard... much easier now to reach those tough little corners around the mouth, the ears, the nose.

Notice the longer, bent-back teeth

A little improvement? Yes. But notice how smoothly the new razor slides over your skin. A shave so perfect that not a sign of a whisker remains. Yet so comfortable that you have hardly felt the razor.

The old posts that stuck through the blade and so often stubbed the edges are gone too.

Blade edge is clear but protected

Still another improvement. The guard of the New Gillette has the famous channel beneath the blade edge. This channel allows the blade to meet the beard full and clear, yet with perfect safety. Until now this feature has been available only in Gillette Razors selling at $5.00 to $75.00.

And the price is only $1.00

The New Gillette Razor, with all its improvements, is now offered to you, 24K. gold-plated and packed in a neat case, with one new blade, for only $1.00. And the new blades of steel processed to resist rust, come to you at the old price... $1.00 for ten.

To men who want the greatest bargain in shaving comfort that $1.00 has ever bought, we say, see your dealer today!

ASHINGTON, March 7. (AP)— coalition of Democrats and Re- ican independents suffered an- major reverse in the Senate contest today with the ap- l of a duty on cement, but it diately countered with a de- for another ballot on the r increase.
